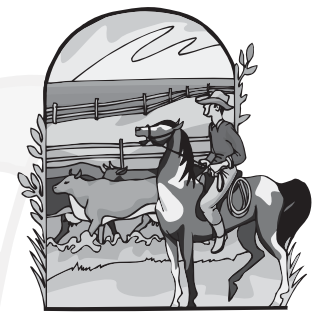
Common Nouns - A person, place, animal or thing is a noun.

1. President George W. Bush liked to go to his ranch.

place



2. President Taft liked to play golf.

thing

3. President Madison had a parrot as a pet.

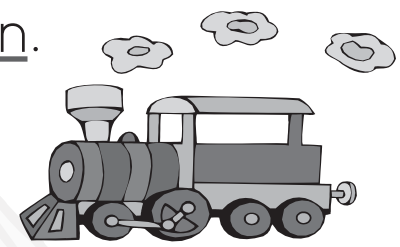
animal

4. President Ford had a wife named Betty.

person

5. One way President Arthur traveled was by train.

thing



6. Before Carter was President, he was a farmer.

person

7. President Harrison had a goat and a cow for pets.

animal

Common Nouns

Read the information and trace the dotted words.

Common Nouns - A person, place, animal or thing is a noun.

1. book run

2. little door

3. mom three

4. red tiger

5. girl jump

6. park tall

7. flat library

Common Nouns

Trace the circle and write if it is a person, place or thing.

Word Bank

paint	roses	lawn	friends	movie theater	pets

1. The White House needs 570 gallons of _____ to cover the outside.

2. It has a garden that is famous for the beautiful _____ that are grown there.

3. Children can roll Easter Eggs on its _____.

4. The President can have _____ visit him in the Blue Room.

5. The White House even has a _____.

6. Presidents and their families have had many different kinds of _____.

Common Nouns

Use the Word Bank to fill in the blanks.

Word Bank

paint	roses	lawn	friends	movie theater	pets

1. The White House needs 570 gallons of _____ to cover the outside.
   paint

2. It has a garden that is famous for the beautiful _____ that are grown there.
   roses

3. Children can roll Easter Eggs on its _____.
   lawn

4. The President can have _____ visit him in the Blue Room.
   friends

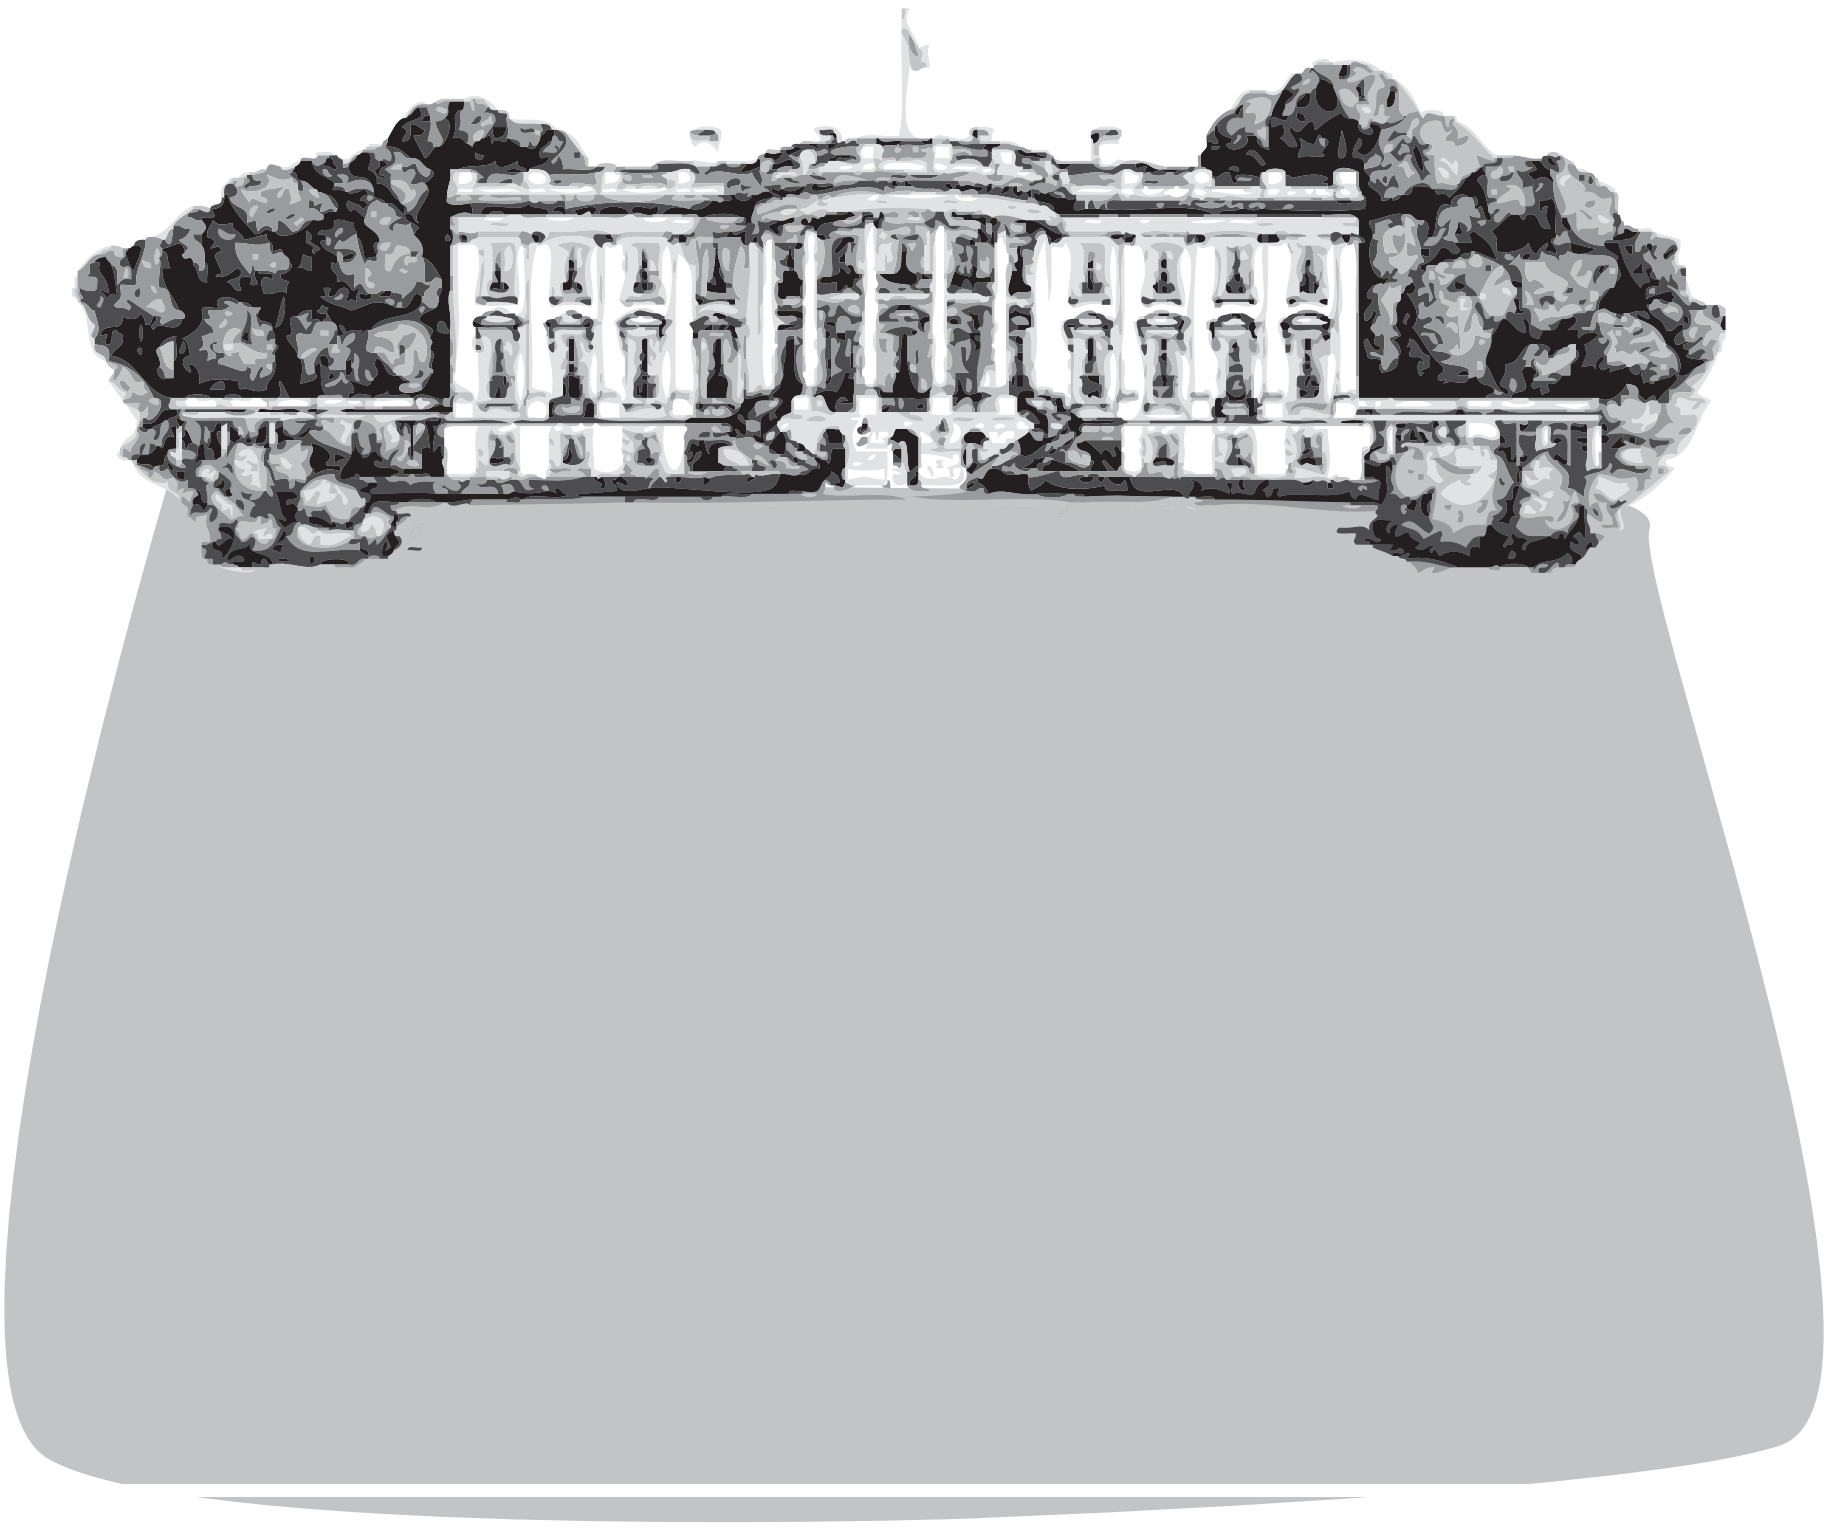
5. The White House even has a _____.
   movie theater

6. Presidents and their families have had many different kinds of _____.
   pets

Common Nouns - A person, place, animal or thing is a noun.

The President and his family live in the White House in Washington D.C. Over the years, there have been many different kinds of pets that have lived there too.

Some of these are: cows, goats, dogs, cats, ponies, sheep, a snake, and even an alligator. Draw how these animals would have looked outside the White House.



Common Nouns

Draw the animals on the White House lawn.

Proper nouns are the names of a person, place, an animal or a thing. For example, the names of people, animals, holidays, days of the week, titles, and months of the years are proper nouns. Proper nouns always begin with a capital.

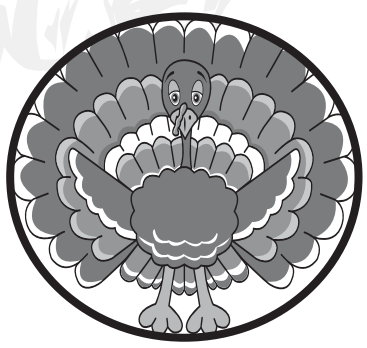
1. President Lyndon Johnson had two dogs named Him and Her.

person animal

2. The President's office is called the Oval Office.

title place

3. The President pardons a turkey every Thanksgiving.



person thing

4. Instead of getting eaten, the turkey gets to go and live at Disneyland and be part of the Thanksgiving Day Parade!

place thing

Proper Nouns

Read the information and trace the dotted words

1. My name is _____.

2. My city is _____, and my state is _____.

3. My best friends' name is _____.

4. My pet's name is _____.

5. My favorite holiday _____.

6. I like to shop at_____.

Proper Nouns

Fill in the blanks.

1. For almost 100 years, the President has thrown the first pitch at the beginning of baseball season.

Yes No

2. There are many decorated trees in the White House at Christmas.

Yes No

3. The South Lawn is used for the easter Egg Roll held every year.

Yes No

4. The President gives an important speech called the State of the Union every january.

Yes No

5. The name of the President's plane is air force one.

Yes No

Proper Nouns

Circle Yes or No if it is a proper noun; if Yes, write it in the blank.

1. For almost 100 years, the President has thrown the first pitch at the beginning of baseball season.

Yes No

2. There are many decorated trees in the White House at Christmas.

Yes No

3. The South Lawn is used for the easter Egg Roll held every year.

Yes No

Easter

4. The President gives an important speech called the State of the Union every january.

Yes No

January

5. The name of the President's plane is air force one.

Yes No

Air Force One

What special things would happen on your holiday?

What would people eat?

How would they dress?

Create your own holiday and write it on the sign.

Action Verbs - words that tell what someone or something did.

Abe Lincoln was born in a log cabin in Kentucky. He lived there until he was eight. Then, his family moved to the state of Illinois. When he was eight he started school. Abe walked one-and-a-half miles to school every day. At the age of 10, his mother died. He studied hard and always carried a book with him. People called him Honest Abe. He learned how to be a lawyer. He became our sixteenth and one of our greatest Presidents.

Action Verbs

Read the story and trace the dotted words.

Action Verbs - words that tell what someone or something did.

1. Abe Lincoln worked as a store clerk.

2. He married Mary Todd and they had four children.

3. People voted for him to be our Sixteenth President.

4. Abe was the first President to grow a beard.

5. Abe Lincoln freed the slaves.

6. He was so important that we put his face on the penny and the five dollar bill.

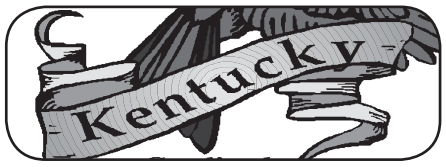
Action Verbs

Read the information and trace the dotted words.

1. Abraham Lincoln was born in a log cabin.

T F

2. He lived in Kentucky and Illinois.



T F

3. He moved to Texas with his family.

T F

4. Abe had to teach himself to read.

T F

5. His stepmother helped him.

T F

6. He read by candlelight.

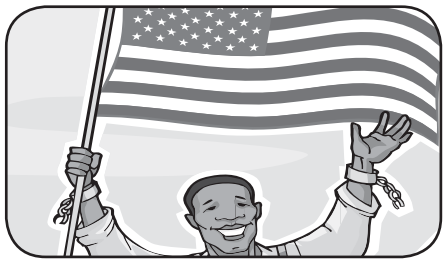
T F

7. He grew to be over seven feet tall.

T F

8. He was elected to be our 46th President.

T F



9. He freed the slaves.

T F

Action Verbs

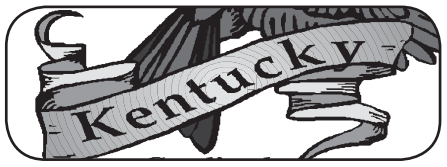
Circle the action verb in each sentence and mark whether it is true or false.

1. Abraham Lincoln was born in a log cabin.

T F

2. He lived in Kentucky and Illinois.

T F



3. He moved to Texas with his family.

T F

4. Abe had to teach himself to read.

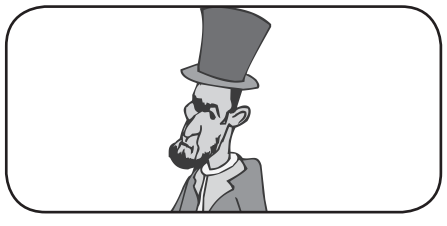
T F

5. His stepmother helped him.

T F

6. He read by candlelight.

T F

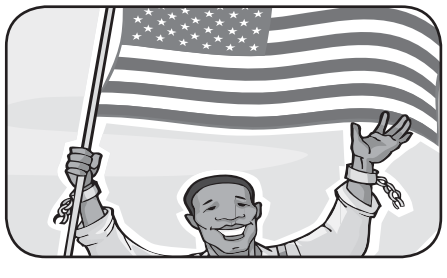


7. He grew to be over seven feet tall.

T F

8. He was elected to be our 46th President.

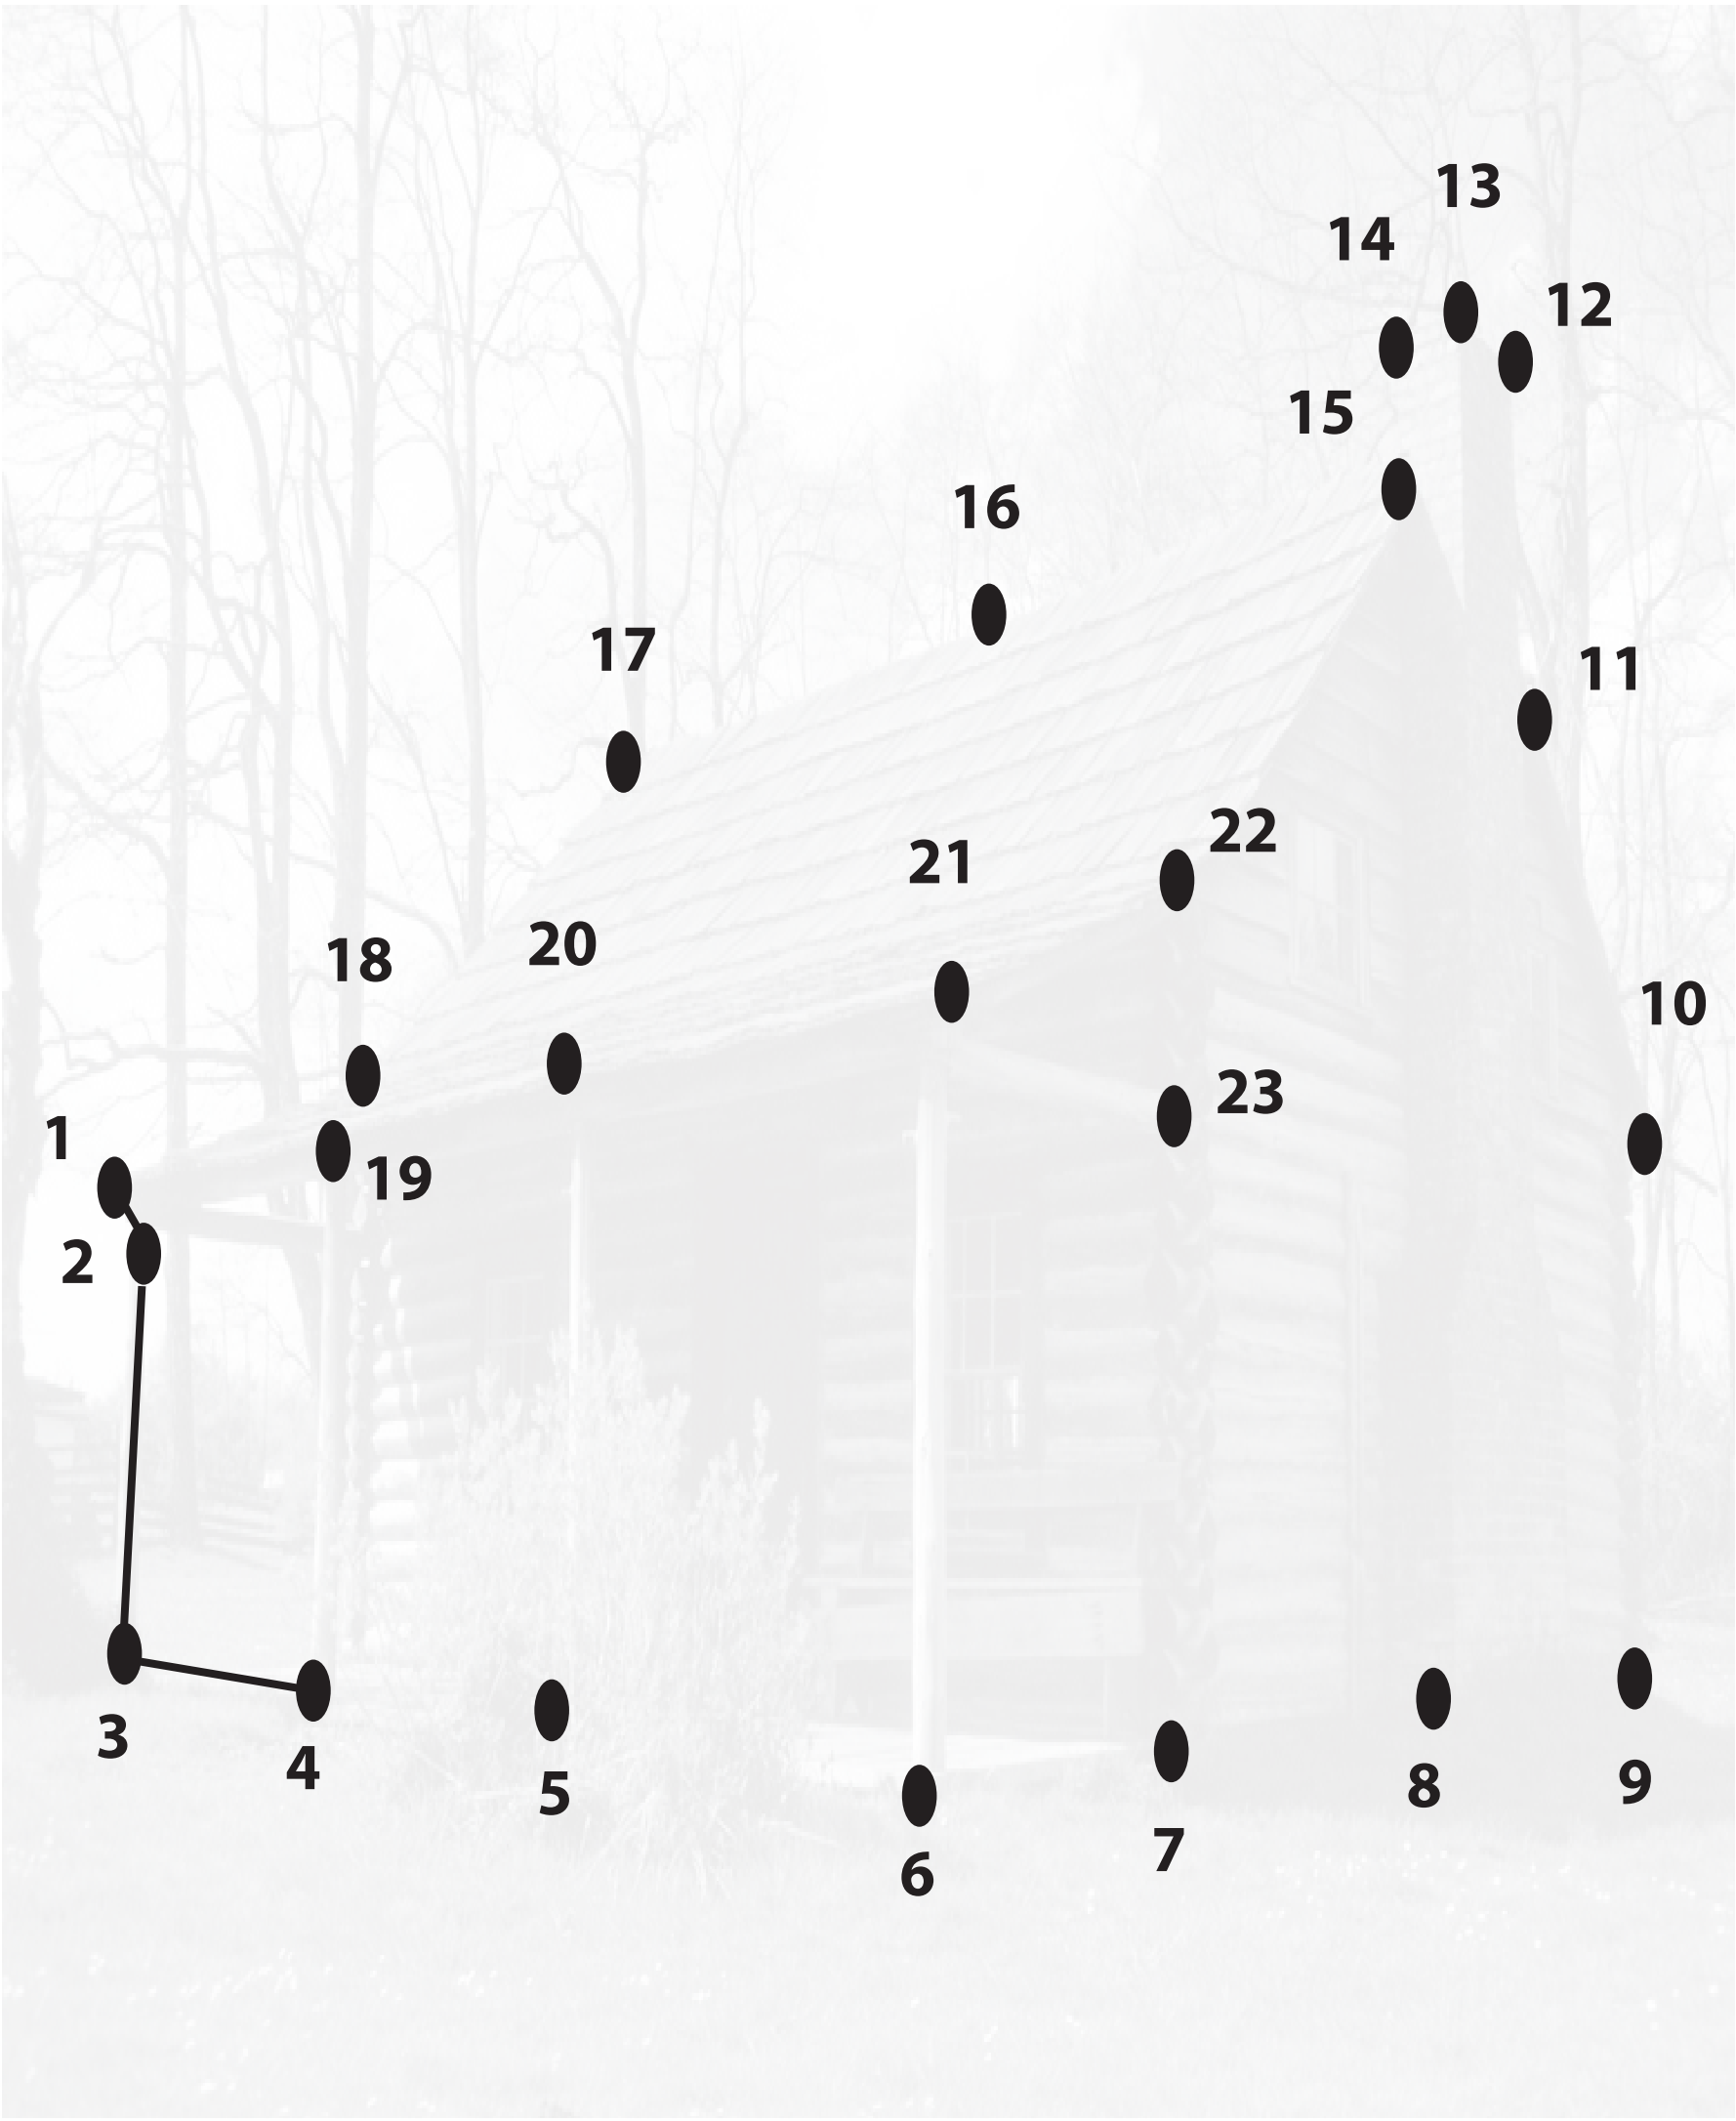
T F



9. He freed the slaves.

T F

Abe Lincoln was born in a log cabin.



Action Verbs

Connect the dots.

Helping Verbs - they work with main verb to tell about the action.

Trace the helping verbs.

has have had can do be can does

did was is were should are been could

Read and trace the helping verbs in each sentence.

1. American citizens have been given the right to vote.

2. Americans can choose who they want to lead the country.

3. We do elect the President every four years.

4. When you are eighteen, you will be able to vote too!

Helping Verbs

Read the information and trace the dotted words.

Helping Verbs - they work with the main verb to tell about the action.

1. My parents are going to vote on the first Tuesday in November.

2. They will drive their car to the Community Center.

3. The volunteers can help them if they have questions.

4. If there are many people, they may wait a long time.

5. My parents have waited in long lines before.

6. Mom says that every American should register to vote when they turn eighteen.

Helping Verbs

Circle the helping verb in front of the underlined main verb.

1. may action helping

2. jump action helping

3. should action helping

4. is action helping

5. vote action helping

6. drive action helping

7. could action helping

8. was action helping

Helping Verbs

Circle whether the verb is an action or helping verb.

1. may action helping

2. jump action helping

3. should action helping

4. is action helping

5. vote action helping

6. drive action helping

7. could action helping

8. was action helping

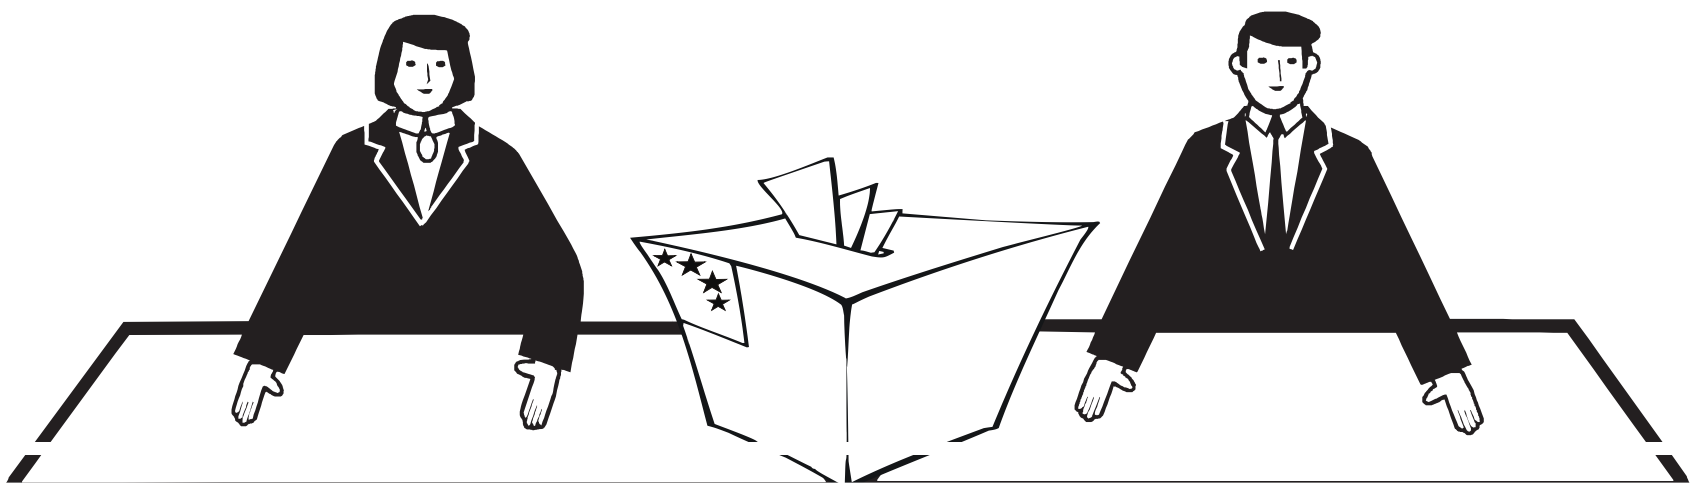
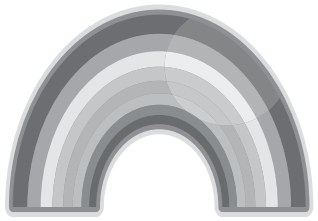
People who work at a voting place are volunteers. This means they do not get paid. Without them giving of their time, we would not be able to vote. During elections it is nice to remember these people.

Design a thank you card thanking them for donating their time to help us vote.



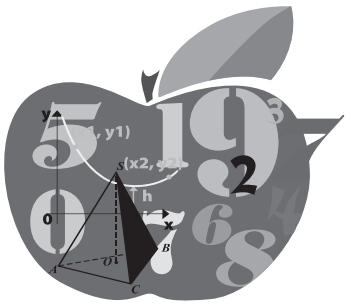
Adjectives - words that describe a noun. Adjectives - tell what kind or how many.

Adjectives can be colors: red, blue, green



What is your favorite color? _____

Adjectives can tell how many: 1, 20, 100



What is your favorite number? _____

Adjectives tell what kind: beautiful, ugly, bad, clever

What word could you use to describe this flower?

_____

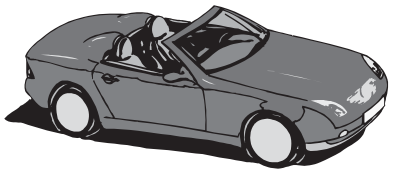
_____

What word could you use to describe this child?

_____

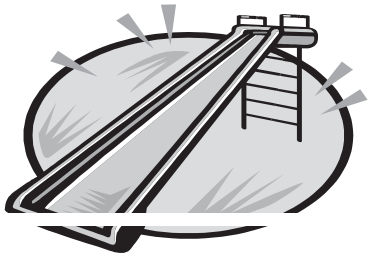
_____

Circle the adjectives in these sentences.



1. The red car raced down the road.

2. There were three children in line ahead of me.



3. The new slide sparkled in the sunlight.

Adjectives

Fill in the blanks and trace the adjectives.

Adjectives - words that describe a noun.
Adjectives tell what kind or how many.

1. George Washington was our first President.

2. Abraham Lincoln was born in a log cabin.

3. President Harrison had two unusual pets.

4. The White House is the home of the President.

5. President Arthur traveled in a black train.

Adjectives

Read the information and trace the dotted words.

1. The State of the Union was a long speech.

2. The President rode in a black limousine.

3. The White House lawn had green grass.

4. Abraham Lincoln was a tall man.

5. Air Force One is a large plane.

6. The man was a good volunteer during the elections.

7. I was a proud voter.

Adjectives

Circle the adjective that describes each underlined noun.

1. The State of the Union was a long speech.

2. The President rode in a black limousine.

3. The White House lawn had green grass.

4. Abraham Lincoln was a tall man.

5. Air Force One is a large plane.

6. The man was a good volunteer during the elections.

7. I was a proud voter.

Word Bank

small	red	pretty	sunny	important	five	many large	green	twenty	quiet	strong	fast	ugly	loud

y	f	a	s	t	p	m	n	n
e	l	o	u	d	e	d	l	n
n	y	g	r	e	e	n	l	q
g	t	g	u	g	p	r	a	u
t	n	a	t	r	o	p	m	i
m	e	o	e	a	f	u	s	e
a	w	t	r	l	u	i	o	t
n	t	e	i	t	e	a	v	g
y	n	n	u	s	s	d	t	e

Adjectives

Complete the word search.

Noun – a person, place, or thing

children country pets

Proper Nouns – the name of a person place or thing

White House George Washington, D.C.

Action Verbs – words that tell what somebody did teach learn cut work

Helping Verbs – they work with the main verb to tell about the action

was are can will do

Adjectives – words that describe a noun

big three happy

Review

Read the information and trace the dotted words.

Fourth of July in Washington D.C.

1. A parade is held on the Fourth of July every year in Washington D.C.

Proper Nouns – the name of a person place or thing

2. Visitors can watch fireworks at the National Mall.

Helping Verbs – words that help the main verbs tell about the action

3. Many visitors come to Washington D.C. to see the fireworks.

Nouns – a person, place, or thing

4. The fireworks lit up the Washington Monument.

Action Verbs – tell what someone or something did

Review

Read the information and trace the dotted words.

1. two	common noun	action verb	adjective
2. President	proper noun	action verb	adjective
3. yellow	common noun	action verb	adjective
4. is	proper noun	helping verb	adjective
5. house	common noun	action verb	adjective
6. vote	common noun	action verb	adjective

Review

Circle the correct answers.

1. two common noun action verb (adjective)

2. President (proper noun) action verb adjective

3. yellow common noun action verb (adjective)

4. is proper noun (helping verb) adjective

5. house (common noun) action verb adjective

6. vote common noun (action verb) adjective

Review

Draw your own fireworks in the sky over the Capitol Building.

How many words for each part of speech can you make from this phrase?

The President of the United States

Common Nouns

Proper Nouns

Adjectives

Action Verbs

Helping Verbs

Review

Follow the directions.

Slogans – Almost every President had a slogan, or phrase, that he used during the election to try and get people to vote for him. Here are some famous ones.

A CHICKEN IN EVERY POT AND A CAR IN EVERY GARAGE – HOOVER (1928)

I LIKE IKE • EISENHOWER (1952)

NOT JUST PEANUTS - CARTER (1976)

YES, AMERICA CAN! – GEORGE W. BUSH (2004)

Vote Yourself a Farm – Lincoln (1860)

BUILDING A BRIDGE TO THE 21ST CENTURY - CLINTON (1996)

Review

Write your own slogan if you ran for President.

This page intentionally left blank for creative use.

This page intentionally left blank for creative use.