Synonyms

are words that mean almost the same thing.

neat	spotless
sad	unhappy
thin	skinny
nibble	chew
joyful	happy
mad	angry
fall	trip

outside	inside
near	far tall	short young	old cloudy	sunny
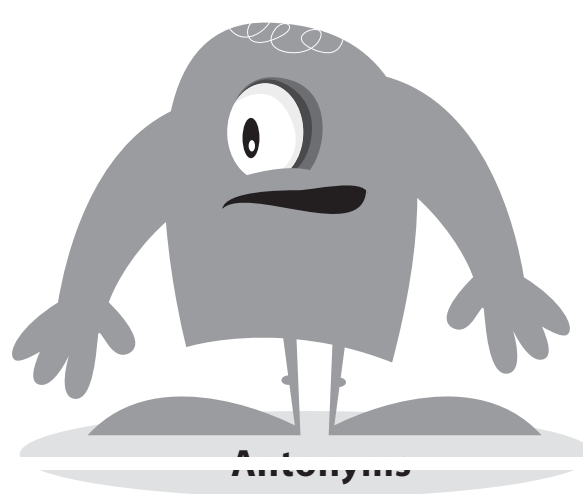
rich	poor

Antonyms

are words that have the opposite meaning of each other.



Context Clues

Read the information and trace the synonyms and antonyms.

Adjectives – words that describe a noun

Adjectives	Synonym	Antonym
big	giant	tiny
cold	chilly	hot
fast	quick	slow

Action verbs – words that tell what is being done

Action verbs	Synonym	Antonym
invent	create	copy
deliver	bring	take
cut	slice	mend

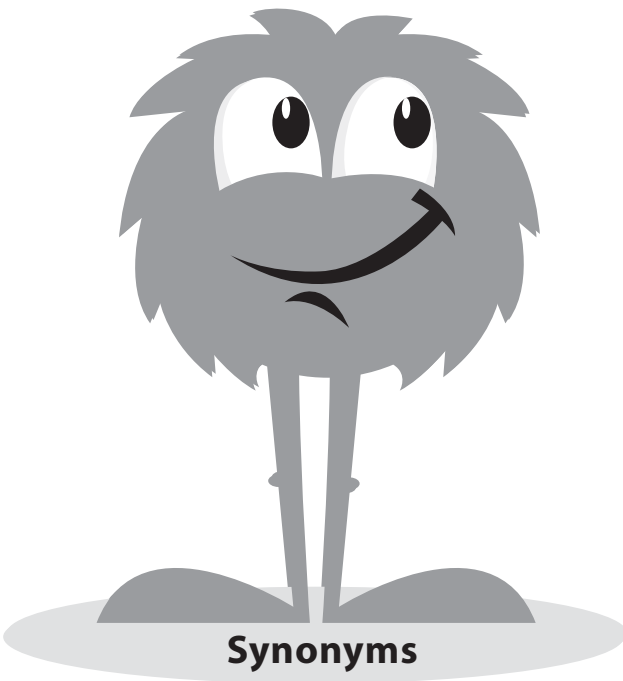
Nouns a person, place, animal, or thing

Nouns	Synonym	Antonym
group	bunch	separate
hero	champion	villain
man	male	woman

Context Clues

Read the information and trace the synonyms and antonyms.

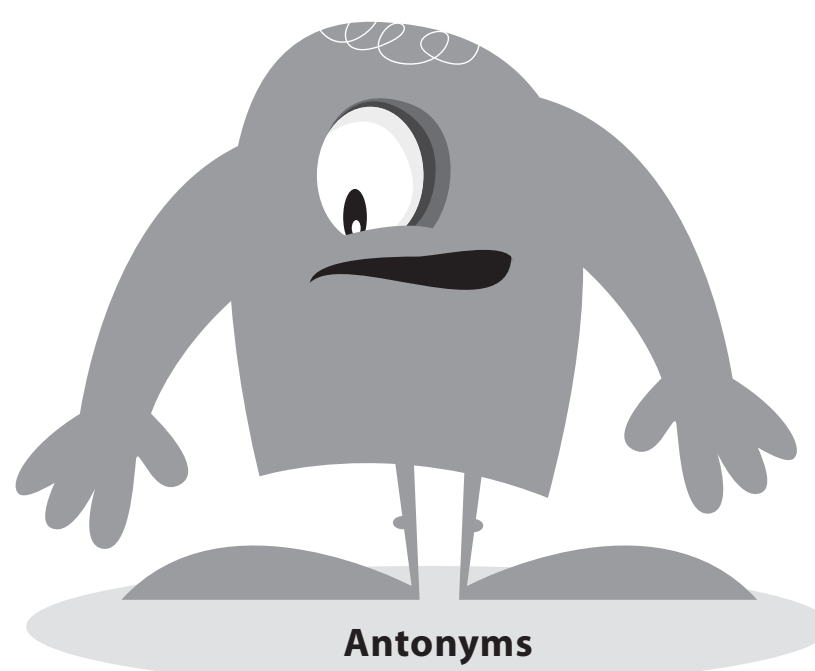
Synonyms	repair break	happy sad	tardy early	jog walk	lose discover



1. fix: _____
2. find: _____
3. run: _____
4. glad: _____
5. late: _____

Antonym	bad nice	down high	polite mean	night dawn	sob laugh

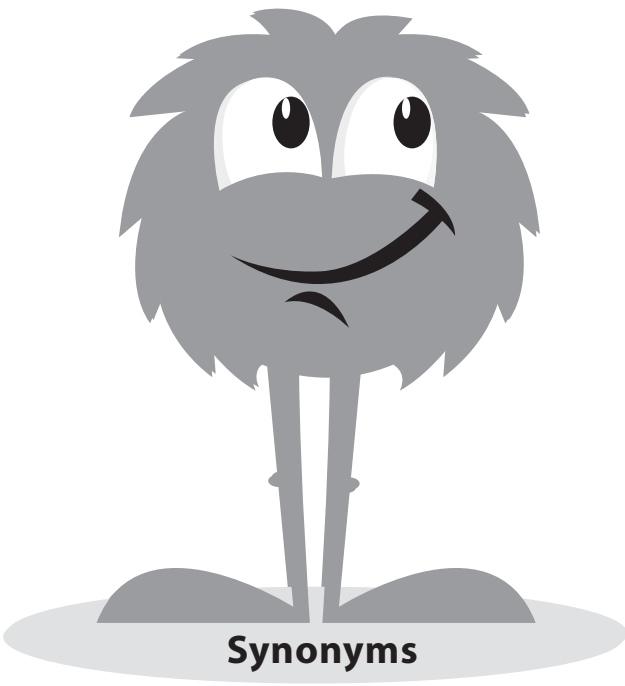
1. good: _____
2. up: _____
3. rude: _____
4. day: _____
5. cry: _____



Context Clues

Choose a synonym/antonym for each word from the word box. You will NOT use every word.

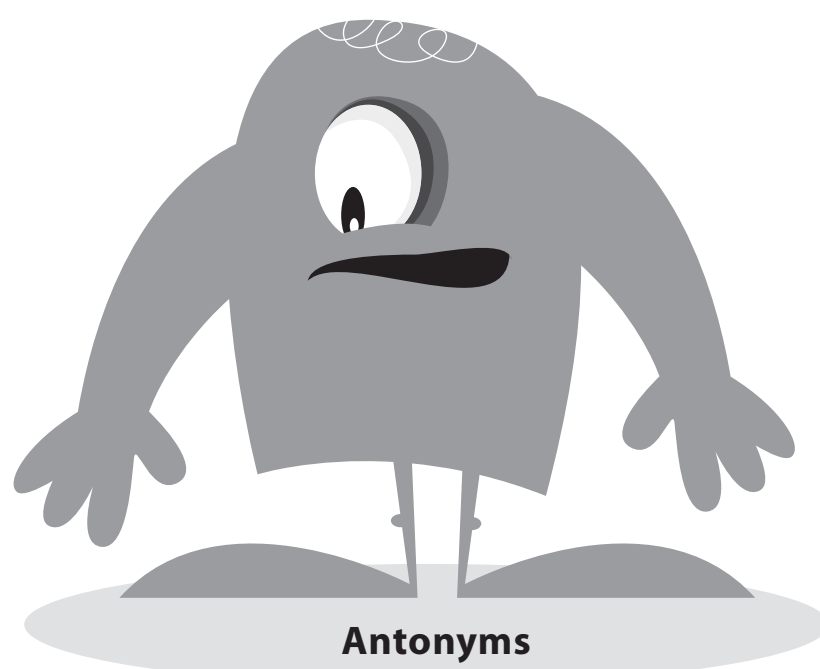
Synonyms	repair break	happy sad	tardy early	jog walk	lose discover



1. fix: _____
   repair
2. find: _____
   discover
3. run: _____
   jog
4. glad: _____
   happy
5. late: _____
   tardy

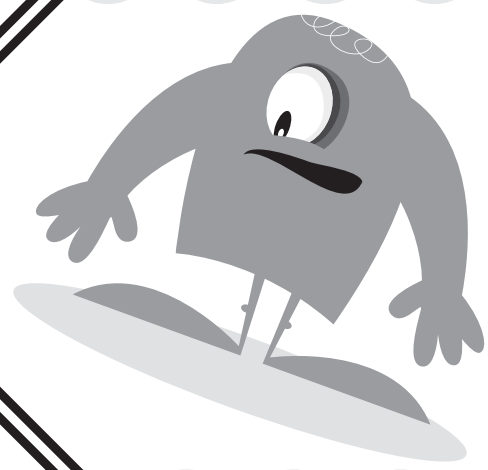
Antonym	bad nice	down high	polite mean	night dawn	sob laugh

1. good: _____
   bad
2. up: _____
   down
3. rude: _____
   polite
4. day: _____
   night
5. cry: _____
   laugh



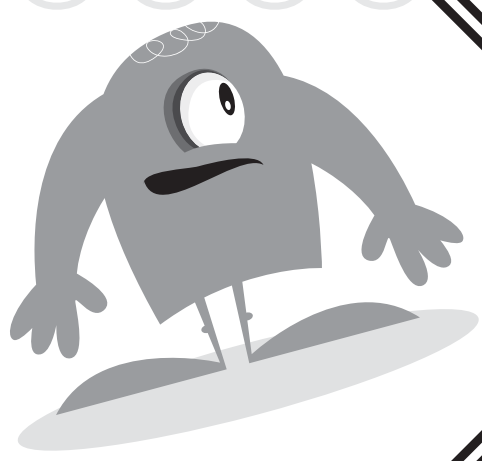
Add

Subtract



Float

Sink



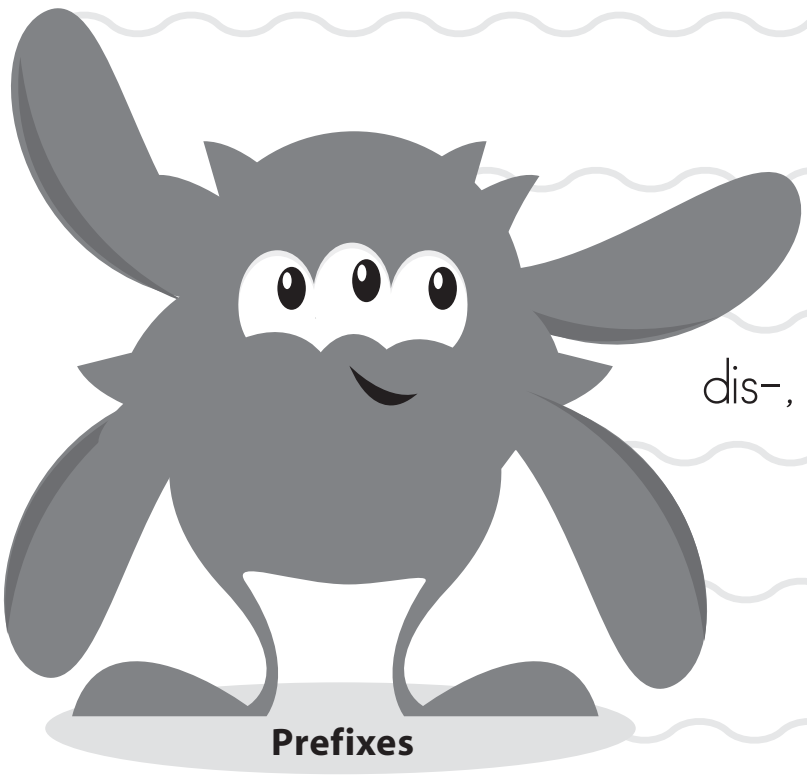
Sour

Sweet

Context Clues

Draw a picture to represent each pair of antonyms.

Prefixes are added to the beginning of a base, or root, word. They change the meaning of the word.



pre-	before
re-	do again
mis-	wrong
dis-, non-, un-	not
sub-	below
bi-	two
in-	in or not

1. pre + wash = prewash

prewash means wash before

2. re + wash = rewash

rewash means wash again

3. mis + understand = misunderstand misunderstand means not understand

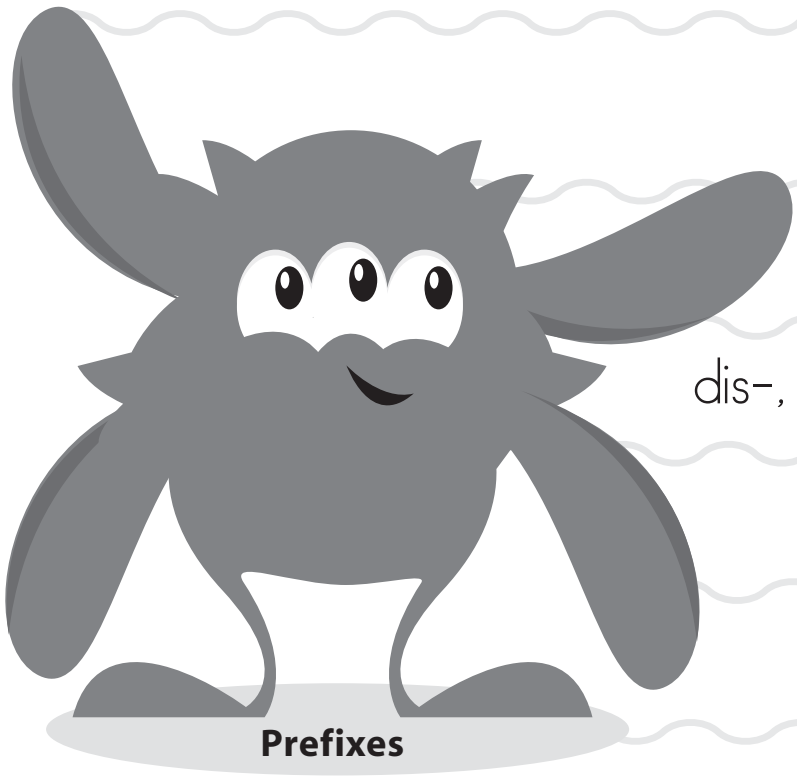
Context Clues

Read the information and trace the dotted words.



pre-	before
re-	do again
mis-	wrong
dis-, non-, un-	not
sub-	below
bi-	two
in-	in or not

1. re + mix = _____

This means to mix again

2. un + kind = _____

This means not kind

3. dis + agree = _____

This means to not agree

4. sub + freezing = _____

This means below freezing

5. in + correct = _____

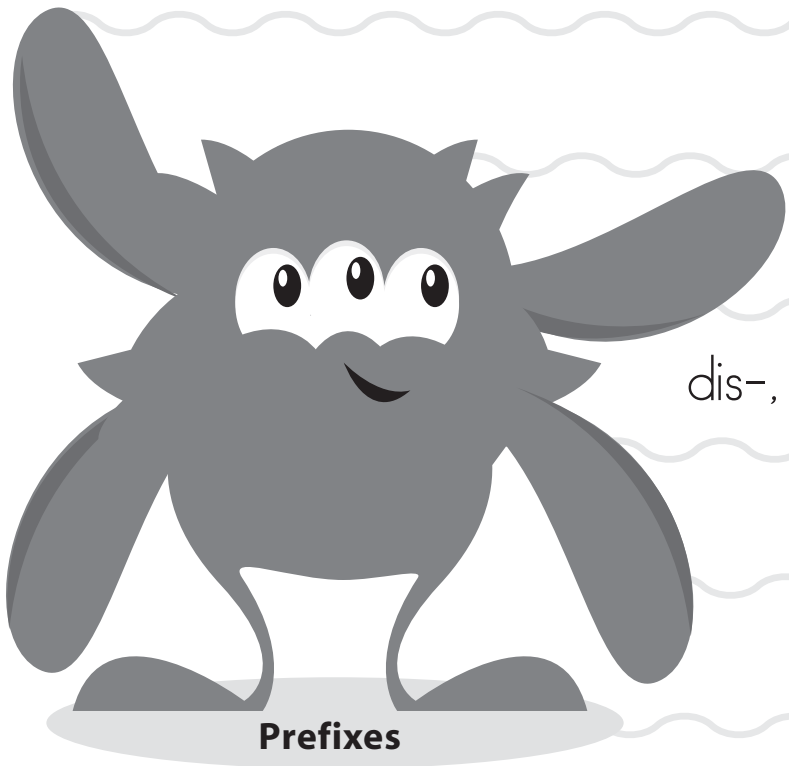
This means not correct

6. pre + test = _____

This means test

Context Clues

Write the new word on the line and trace the meanings.



pre-	before
re-	do again
mis-	wrong
dis-, non-, un-	not
sub-	below
bi-	two
in-	in or not

1. un + fair = _____

   This means _____

2. mis + behave = _____

   This means _____

3. re + invent = _____

   This means _____

4. dis + interested = _____

   This means _____

5. sub + soil = _____

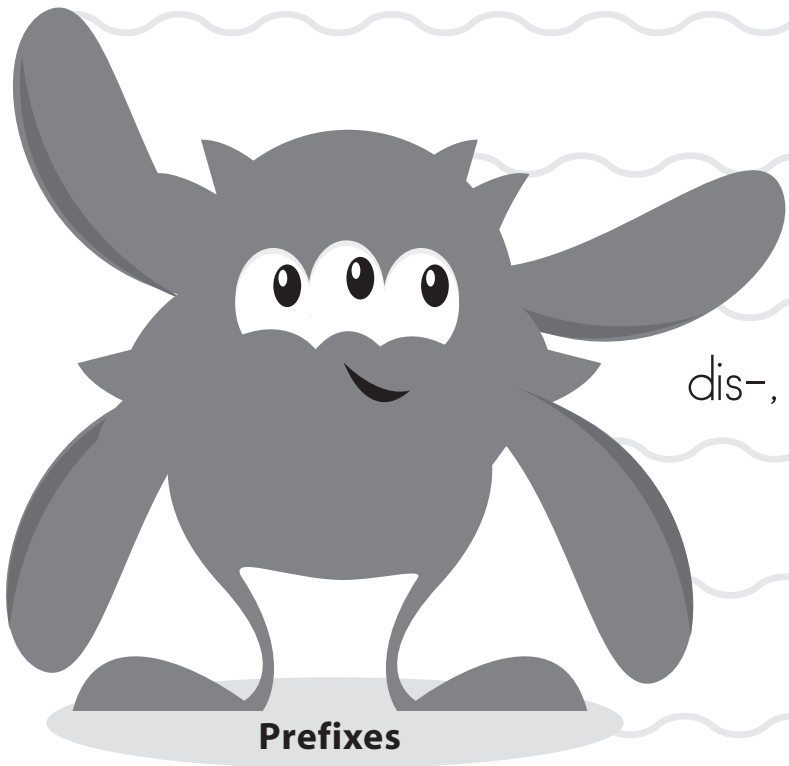
   This means _____

6. pre + heat = _____

   This means _____

Context Clues

Write the new word and its meaning on the lines.



pre-	before
re-	do again
mis-	wrong
dis-, non-, un-	not
sub-	below
bi-	two
in-	in or not

1. un + fair = _____ unfair
   This means _____ not fair

2. mis + behave = _____ misbehave
   This means _____ behave wrong

3. re + invent = _____ reinvent
   This means _____ invent again

4. dis + interested = _____ disinterested
   This means _____ not interested

5. sub + soil = _____ subsoil
   This means _____ below soil

6. pre + heat = _____ preheat
   This means _____ heat before

Context Clues Answers

Something that makes you un happy

A time where you dis obeyed

bi cycle
(cycle is a synonym for wheels)

The in side of your room

Context Clues

Draw a picture to represent each prefix.

Suffixes are added to the end of the base, or root word. They also change the meaning of the word.

-ful	full of
-able	can be
-er	person who
-less	without
-ness	being
-ment	being
-dom	being
-hood	being

1. care + ful = careful careful means full of care

2. care + less = careless careless means without care

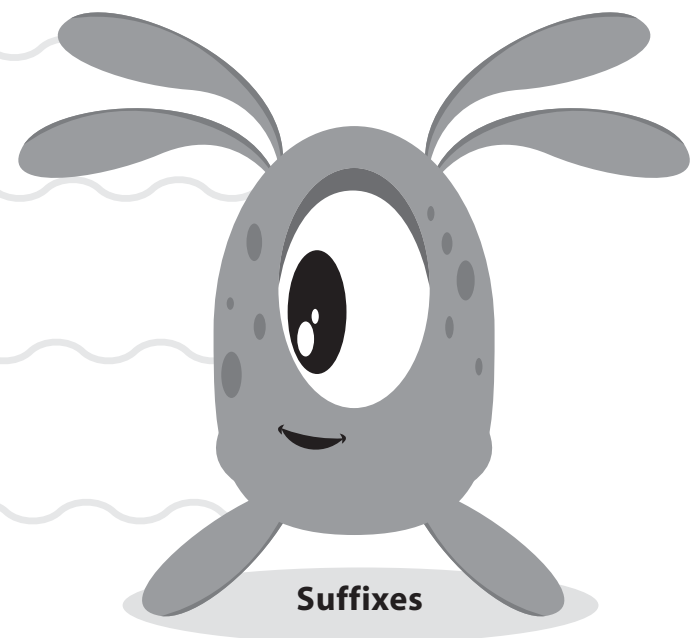
3. kind + ness = kindness

kindness is being kind

Context Clues

Read the information and trace the dotted words.

-ful	full of
-able	can be
-er	person who
-less	without
-ness, -ment	being
-dom, -hood	being



1. excite + ment = _____

   This means being excited

2. free + dom = _____

   This means being free

3. wash + able = _____

   This means can be washed

4. hat + less = _____

   This means without a hat

5. play + ful = _____

   This means full of play

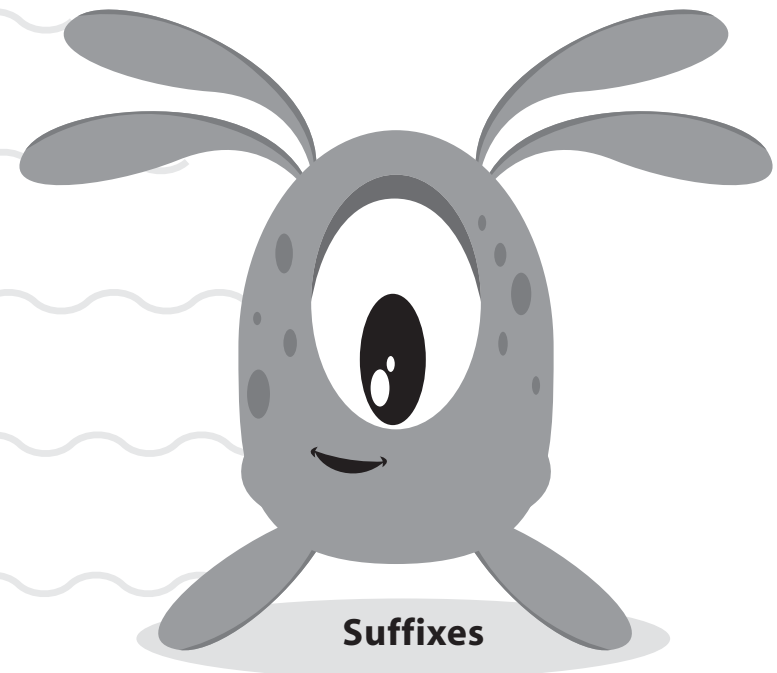
6. work + er = _____

   This means a person who works

Context Clues

Write the new word on the line and trace the meanings.

-ful	full of
-able	can be
-er	person who
-less	without
-ness, -ment	being
-dom, -hood	being



1. meaning + less = _____

   This means _____

2. drive + er = _____

   This means _____

3. plant + able = _____

   This means _____

4. hard + ness = _____

   This means _____

5. work + er = _____

   This means _____

6. bore + dom = _____

   This means _____

Context Clues

Write each new word and its meaning on the lines.

-ful	full of
-able	can be
-er	person who
-less	without
-ness, -ment	being
-dom, -hood	being

1. meaning + less = _____ meaningless
This means _____
without meaning.

2. drive + er = _____
driver
This means _____ a person who drives.

3. plant + able = _____ plantable
This means _____
can be planted.

4. hard + ness = _____
hardness
This means _____ being hard.

5. work + er = _____
worker
This means _____ a person who works.

6. bore + dom = _____
boredom
This means _____ being bored.

Context Clues Answers

Teach er

use ful

hair less beauti ful

Context Clues

Draw a picture to represent each suffix.

When a good reader finds a word he does not know, he uses the other words in that come just before or after the word to help them figure out what it means. Let's practice this skill as we read about tall tales. The traceable words are the meaning of the underlined word.

1. Tall tales are stories found in American literature.

2. They combine, or mix together, facts from history and the imaginations of storytellers.

3. They began in the early 1800's as the people who moved West, called pioneers, tried to tame the wild, ferocious land where they lived.

4. The main character usually had superhuman strength and abilities. These skills helped them conquer the land.

5. These stories exaggerate, exaggerate, exaggerate! The problems and solutions in these stories were greater and more fantastic than you would ever find in real life.

6. Finally, the characters are often humorous, or in the things they say and do.

Context Clues

Read the information and trace all the dotted words.

Have you ever heard the tall tale of Paul Bunyan?
If not, don't worry! You will read the story on Q-18 and you can compare your answers to the story then.

1. Paul Bunyan is a tall tale about a lumberjack and his pet _____.

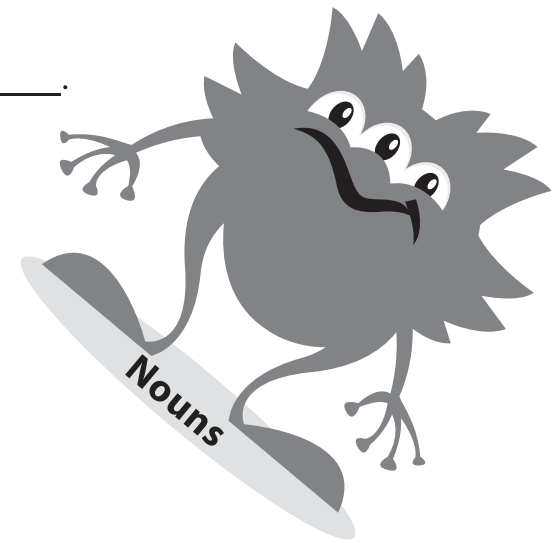
   noun



2. He was brought to his parents by five

   _____.
   noun

3. He grew to be a very _____ man.

   adjective

4. Because of this, he had to wear his

   _____'s clothes.
   noun

5. His footprints were made into _____.
   noun

6. Paul Bunyan invented _____.

Context Clues

Predict what you think will happen by finishing the sentences.

Paul Bunyan

lakes	water	wheels
logging	giant	Babe

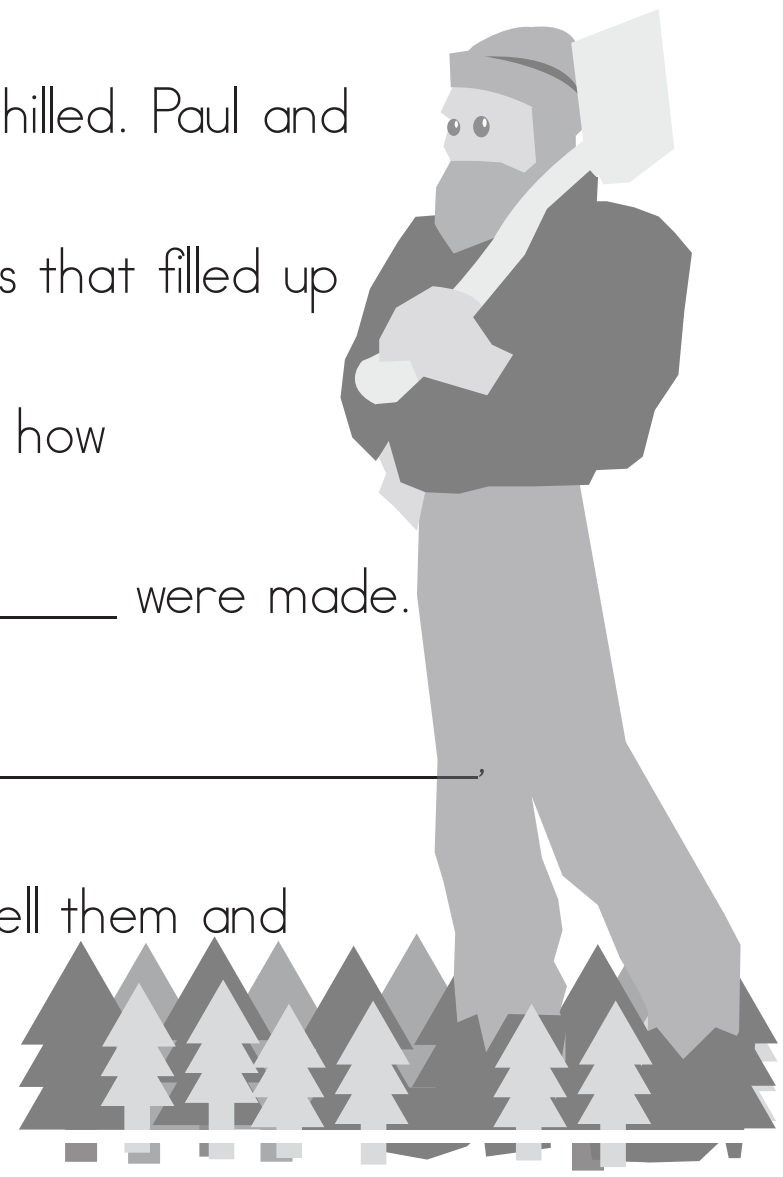
There once lived a _____ of a man who was so big that when he was born it took FIVE storks to deliver him to his mother and father! He was so big he had to use wagon _____ for buttons. When he was older, he found a baby ox he named _____. He was blue in color because hehad been found in a snowdrift and his blood was all chilled. Paul and Babe were so big, their footprints left holes that filled up with _____. This is how Minnesota's 10,000 _____ were made. Paul Bunyan invented _____, or the cutting down of trees in order to sell them and make money.



Context Clues

Finish the story by filling in the blanks so the story makes sense.

Paul Bunyan

lakes	water	wheels
logging	giant	Babe

There once lived a _____ of a man who was so big giant that when he was born it took FIVE storks to deliver him to his mother and father! He was so big he had to use wagon _____ wheels

for buttons. When he was older, he found a baby ox he named

_____. He was blue in color because hehad been Babe

found in a snowdrift and his blood was all chilled. Paul and

Babe were so big, their footprints left holes that filled up with _____. This is how water

Minnesota's 10,000 _____ were made.
lakes

Paul Bunyan invented _____, logging

or the cutting down of trees in order to sell them and make money.

Context Clues Answers

Context Clues

Connect the dots to complete Paul and his trusty pet, Babe.

The words AND, OR, CALLED and the commas will tell you what comes before and what comes after them are synonyms for each other.

1. When something can be broken easily, it is called fragile.

What does the word fragile mean? broken easily

2. My neighbor was irate, or mad, when the baseball we had been playing with went through his kitchen window.

What does the word irate mean? mad

3. The blue whale swam through the large, vast ocean.

What does the word vast mean? large

4. Konnor has to pay attention and concentrate when he pitches the ball.

What does the word concentrate mean? pay attention

Synonyms

Context Clues

Circle the words, and, or and called, and the comma if they are used. Trace and use the dotted words to understand what the underlined words mean.

The words AND, OR, CALLED and the commas will tell you what comes before and what comes after them are synonyms for each other.

1. During the slack, or off-season, Paul's men decided to make him a pipe. They had to use a giant hickory tree and use two flat train cars to carry it back to their campsite.

What does the word slack mean? _____

2. During the Year of Two Winters, it was so cold that the coffee congealed, or was frozen while it was still hot.

What does the word congealed mean? _____

3. Paul used huge, mammoth ants to help on occasion. They weighed over 2,000 pounds!

What does the word mammoth mean? _____

4. Lucy, the Purple Cow, supplied all the milk for Paul and his men. She was happy and content as long as the grass was green. During the winter, Paul had special glasses with green lenses in them. That way, even the snow looked green!

What does the word content mean? _____

Context Clues

Circle the words, and, or and called, and the comma if they are used. Trace and use the dotted words to understand what the underlined words mean.

Elmer the Axeman

Write what the underlined word means on the line after the sentence. Remember, the words and, or, called and the comma will tell you the words on either side are synonyms for each other.

1. Paul Bunyan worked with seven men who were so immense, or big, that they were six feet tall sitting down.

What does the word immense mean? _____

2. There was one winter that was so frigid and cold that Elmer had to grow his beard and mustache long.

What does the word frigid mean? _____

3. The beards were so long they could wrap their beards around their bodies to keep them warm. Paul used a long curved blade called a scythe to cut them off in the spring.

What does the word scythe mean? _____

4. The long, flowing whiskers were stacked up like haystacks and sold to make mattresses.

What does the word flowing mean? _____

Context Clues

Write what the underlined word means after each sentence.

Elmer the Axeman

Write what the underlined word means on the line after the sentence. Remember, the words and, or, called and the comma will tell you the words on either side are synonyms for each other.

1. Paul Bunyan worked with seven men who were so immense, or big, that they were six feet tall sitting down.

What does the word immense mean? _____
big

2. There was one winter that was so frigid and cold that Elmer had to grow his beard and mustache long.

What does the word frigid mean? _____
cold

3. The beards were so long they could wrap their beards around their bodies to keep them warm. Paul used a long curved blade called a scythe to cut them off in the spring.

What does the word scythe mean? _____
long curved blade

4. The long, flowing whiskers were stacked up like haystacks and sold to make mattresses.

What does the word flowing mean? _____

Context Clues

Help Paul find his way back to the lumber camp.

Homophones are words that sound alike but have different meanings and spellings.

bee-be	creak-creek
hall-haul	blew-blue
dear-deer	meet-meat
ate-eight	write-right
sea-see	flour-flower

1. Paul (won, one) every pancake eating contest he was in.

You should have circled won. When spelled o-n-e, it is a number.

2. Ole, the Blacksmith made a (new, knew) pair of shoes for Babe, the Blue Ox.

You should have circled new. When spelled k-n-e-w it is something you know

Context Clues

Read the information and trace all the dotted words. Circle the correct word for each sentence.

ate – having already eaten	eight – a cardinal number sea – the ocean	see – to look at made – produce by making	maid – a woman servant
their – belonging to someone	there – in or at a place

1. Paul's men (ate, eight) so many pancakes that the cook, Sourdough Sam, couldn't make enough to keep them happy.

2. When Ole found out, he (maid, made) a griddle large enough to cook pancakes for Paul and his men.

3. It was so large you couldn't (see, sea) across it.

4. The cook, Sourdough Sam, had fifty men with bacon fat tied to (there, their) feet skate across it to grease it.

Context Clues

Trace the correct homophone to complete the sentence.

1. There was a river in Minnesota called the Whistling River because twice a day it raised up and whistled. The whistle was so loud it could be (heard, herd) all the way to New York City on a clear day.
2. It was an ugly, mean river but the lumberjacks had to use it get their logs to market. It was so mean that it would (break, brake) apart the rafts the lumberjacks sailed on.
3. One day, as Paul was sitting (by, buy) the river and combing his beard, using a large pine tree.
4. The river thought it would get Paul good. It took a deep breath and spat out (four, for) hundred gallons of dirty water (write, right) onto Paul.
5. Not to be outdone, Paul hiked up (to, two) the North Pole and caught himself a few young blizzards.
6. He (staked, staked) those blizzards on either side of the Whistling River and froze it up solid. After that, he and Babe pulled that river out of its banks and straightened it out. When he put it back and released the blizzards, the Whistling River got grumpy and refused

Context Clues

Trace and circle the correctly spelled homophone for each sentence.

1. There was a river in Minnesota called the Whistling River because twice a day it raised up and whistled. The whistle was so loud it could be (heard, herd) all the way to New York City on a clear day.
2. It was an ugly, mean river but the lumberjacks had to use it get their logs to market. It was so mean that it would (break, brake) apart the rafts the lumberjacks sailed on.
3. One day, as Paul was sitting (by, buy) the river and combing his beard, using a large pine tree.
4. The river thought it would get Paul good. It took a deep breath and spat out (four, for) hundred gallons of dirty water (write, right) onto Paul.
5. Not to be outdone, Paul hiked up (to, two) the North Pole and caught himself a few young blizzards.
6. He (steaked, staked) those blizzards on either side of the Whistling River and froze it up solid. After that, he and Babe pulled that river out of its banks and straightened it out. When he put it back and released the blizzards, the Whistling River got grumpy and refused

Word Bank Homophones:

beat	great	hole	know	sore
beet	grate	whole	no	soar
blew	haul	pair	wave	son
blue	hall	pare	waive	sun

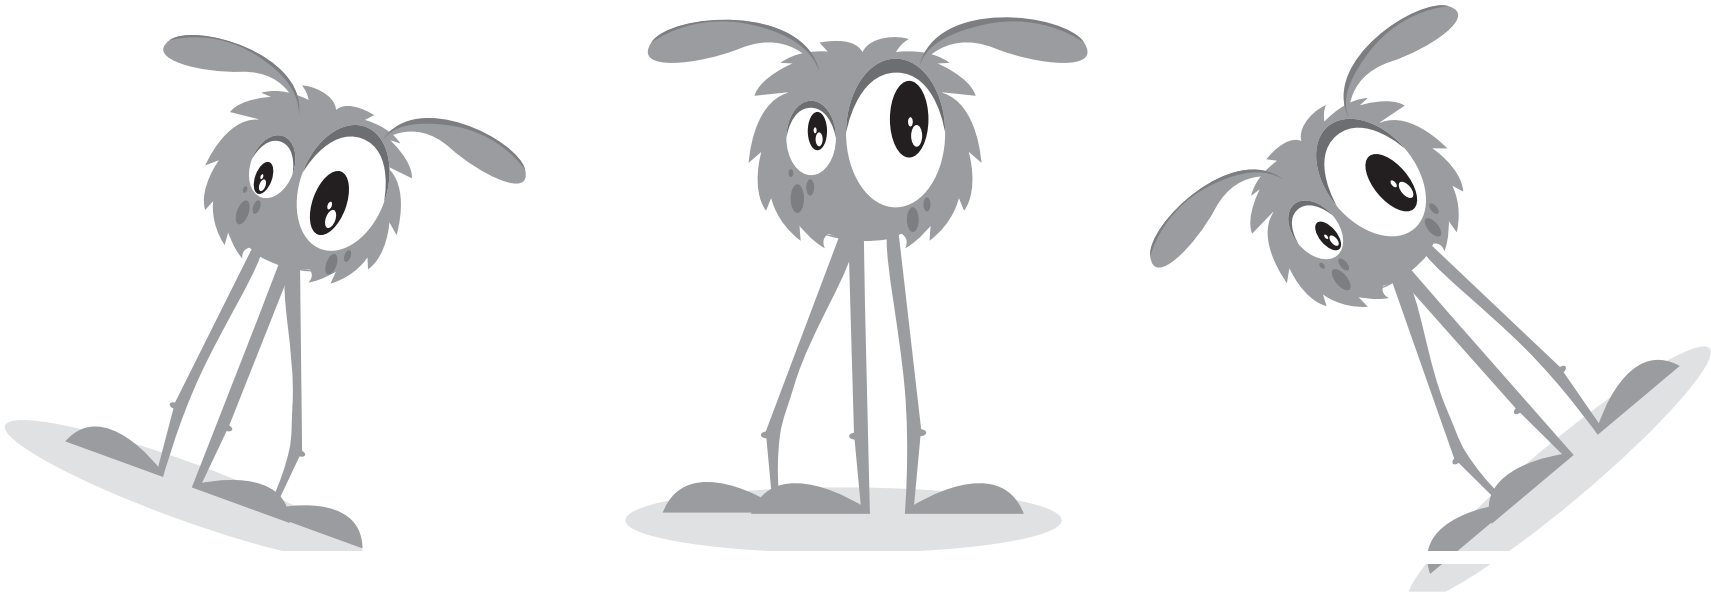
B	N	C	O	A	M	X	R	L	N	T	K	N	O	W	N
E	E	D	C	W	I	F	K	E	E	I	V	O	H	O	D
E	R	A	N	P	A	I	R	I	U	M	U	Y	K	X	E
T	N	F	T	A	C	E	L	L	L	L	X	Z	E	T	F
I	T	I	M	R	A	M	H	U	B	L	E	W	X	Y	H
D	E	H	N	E	V	T	M	H	U	F	Z	S	O	R	E
R	S	U	N	S	J	J	W	R	C	O	T	O	R	L	R
N	O	J	G	R	U	E	T	M	R	A	Z	A	U	E	E
T	N	O	R	I	T	V	P	S	E	I	M	R	T	J	J
J	E	K	A	W	E	I	Y	V	I	W	O	J	C	E	E
V	S	C	T	F	T	A	A	A	O	M	N	U	V	F	F
G	G	R	E	A	T	W	Q	U	N	R	T	Y	E	F	F
H	D	C	W	E	C	V	N	E	B	D	I	H	E	E	E
A	A	P	C	E	Z	V	T	E	X	W	C	Z	O	R	R
L	N	U	T	D	D	A	A	O	Y	C	E	D	T	L	S
L	T	N	L	O	E	G	C	U	T	T	W	H	O	L	E



Context Clues

Complete the word search using the Word Bank.

Paul Bunyan was as big as a _____.

He was so strong he could lift a _____.

He was so loud when he yelled the _____ would blow off of the _____.

He once ate a stack of pancakes as high as _____.

Babe and him played so hard that when they rolled on the ground together the tunnels they left formed the _____.

Elmer, the axeman, once grew his beard so long that it reached _____.

Paul helped him cut it in the spring and they used the cut-off hair to make

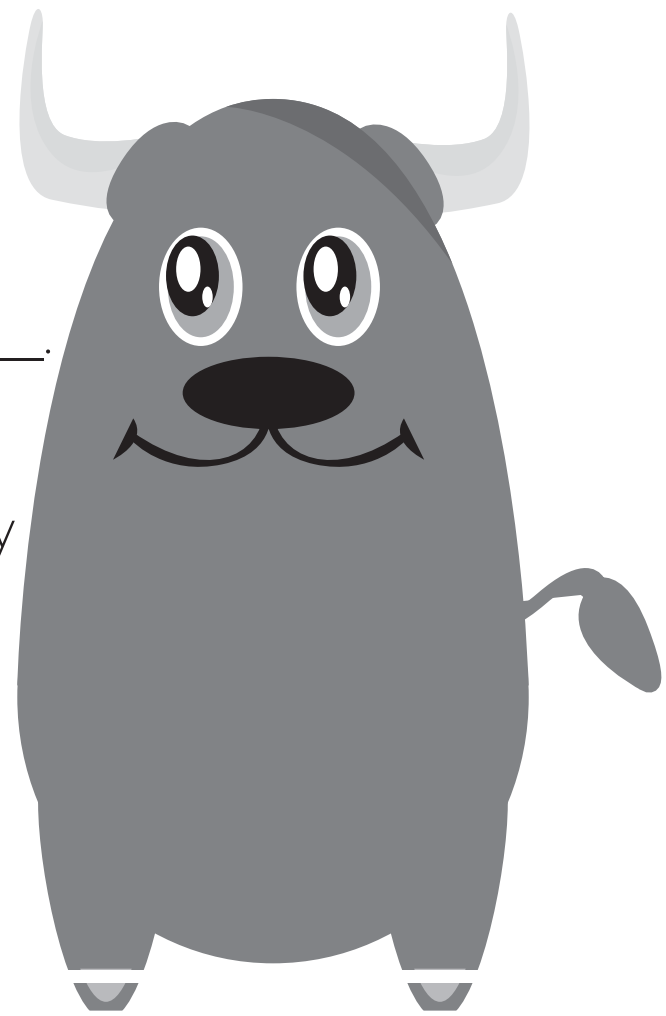
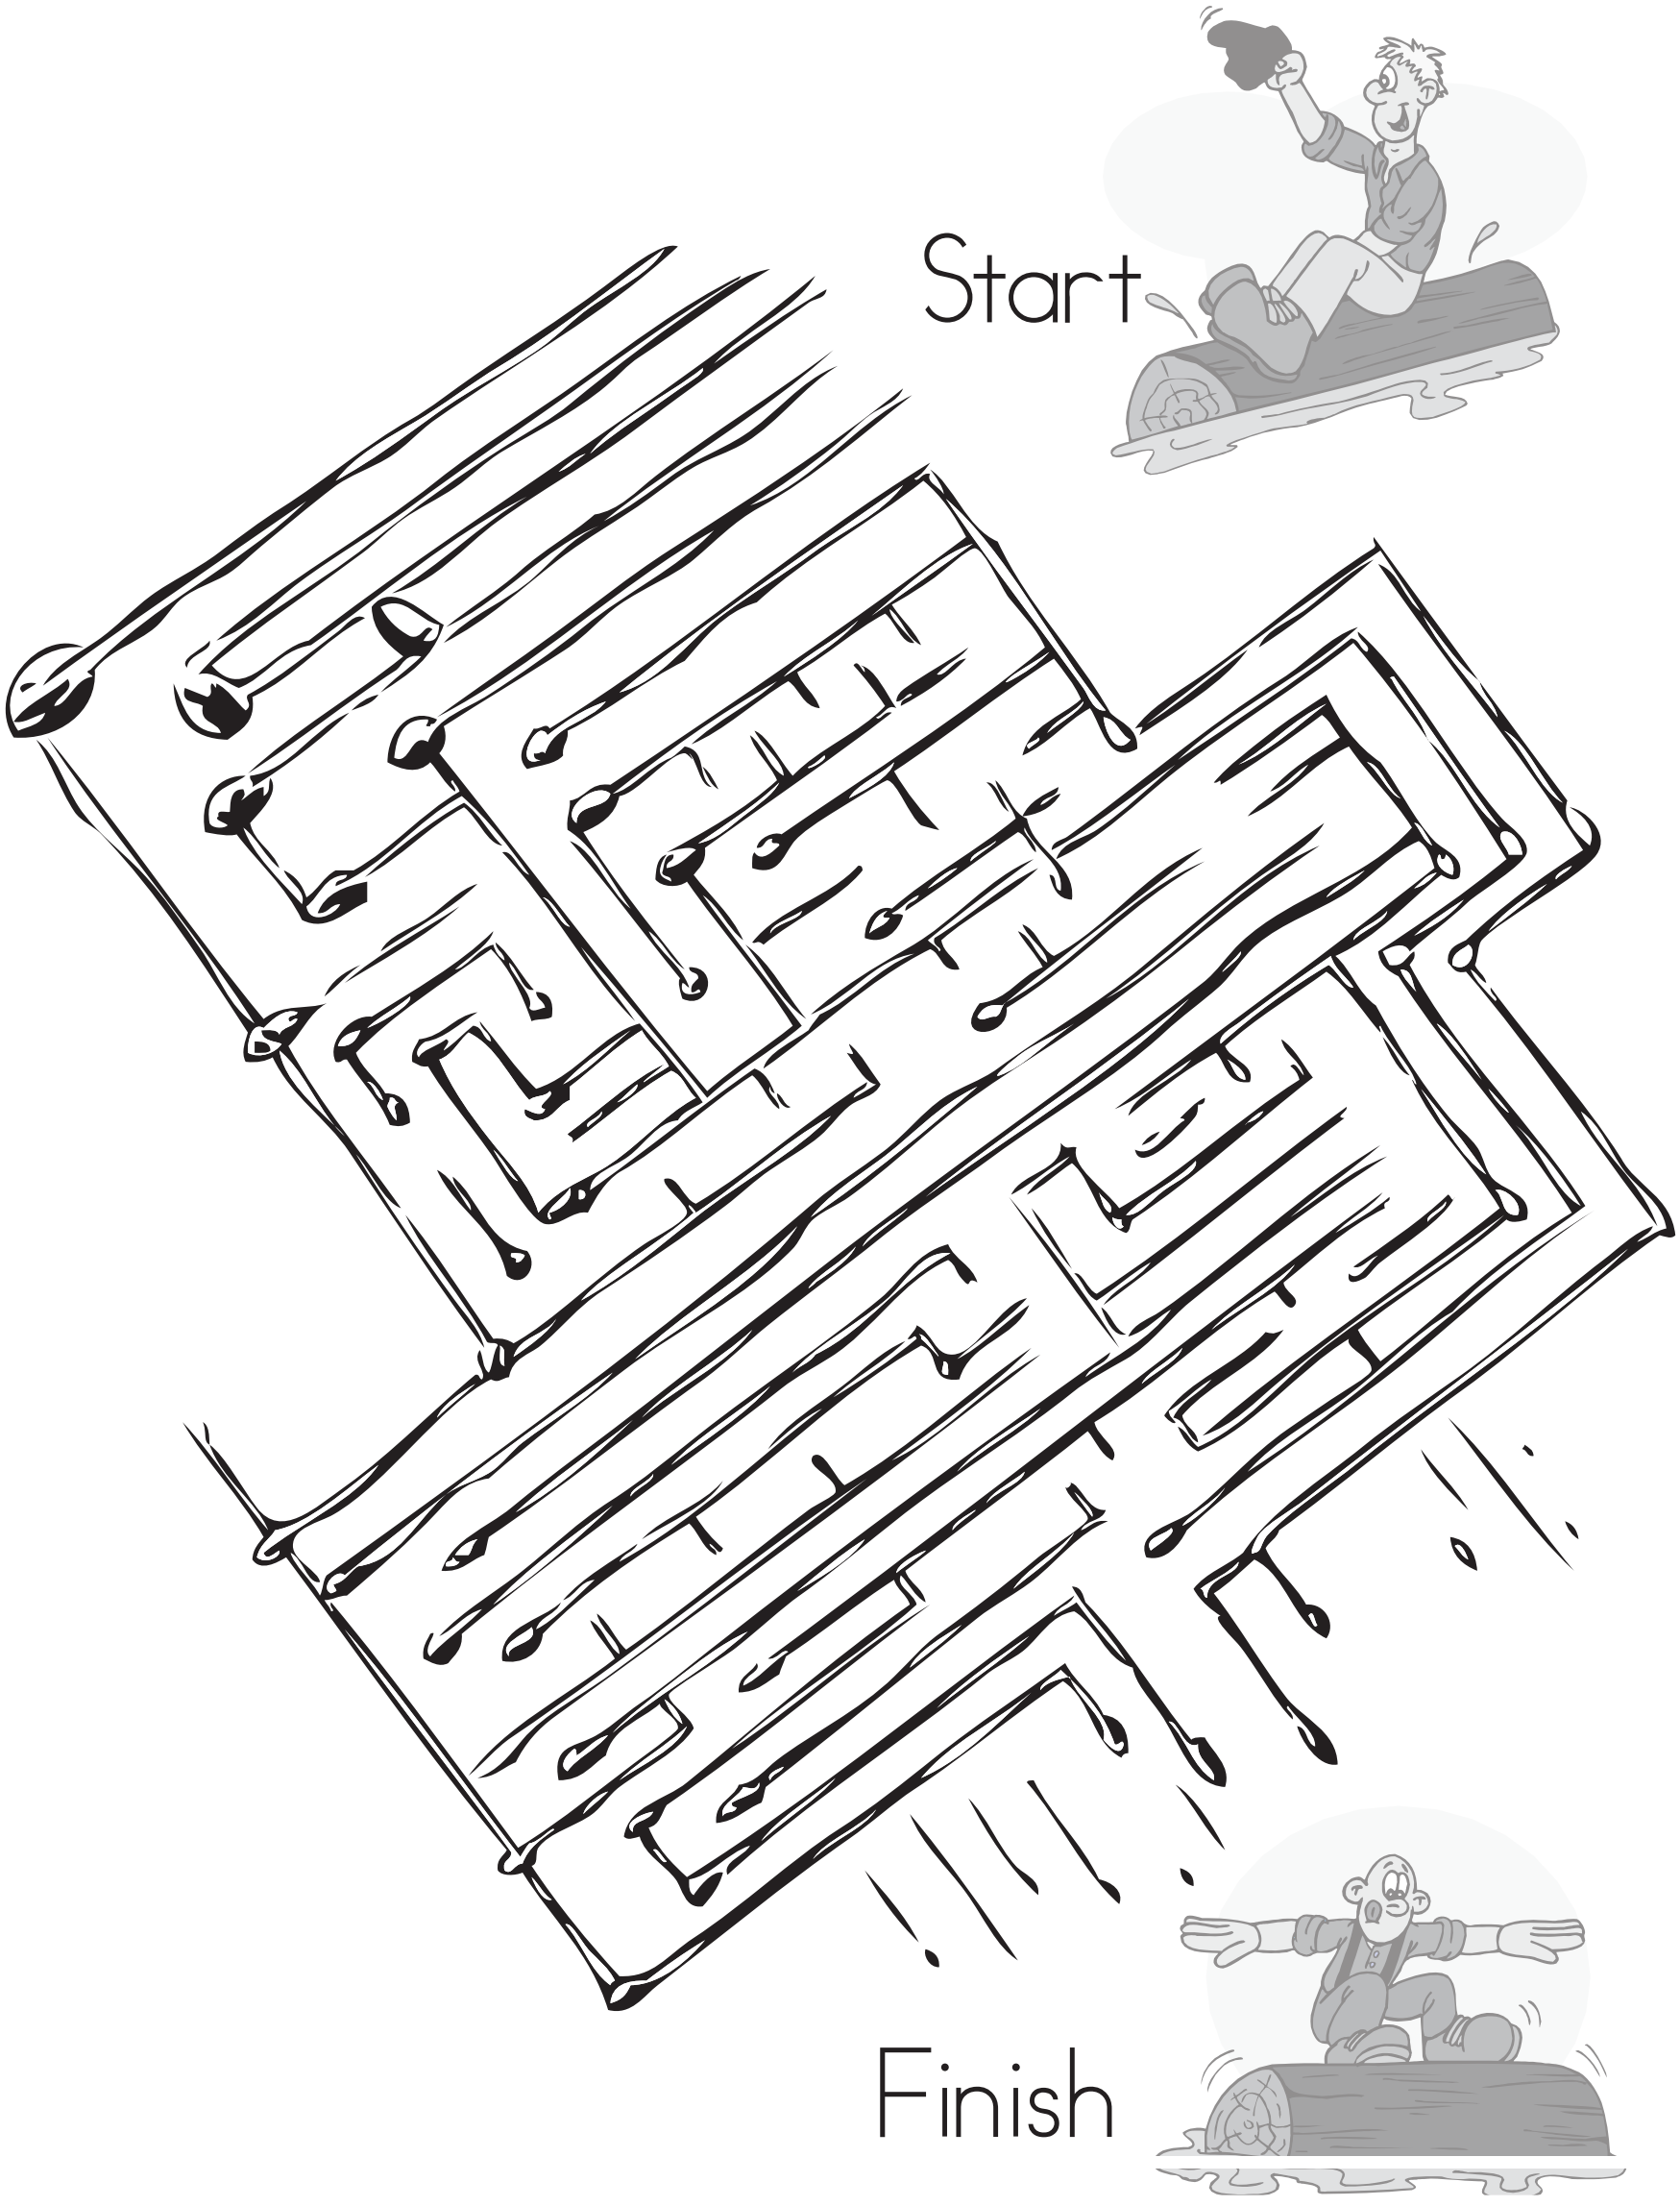
_____.



Context Clues

Write your own tall tale by filling in the blanks.



Context Clues

Help the lumberjacks get the logs down the river!

This page intentionally left blank for creative use.

This page intentionally left blank for creative use.