Setting is WHEN and WHERE a story happens. It is also referred to as the TIME and PLACE of the story. It is most often found in the beginning of the story. Look in the first or second paragraph.

Example #1

The clock was striking midnight and Cinderella was still at the Ball.

The place setting is the Ball

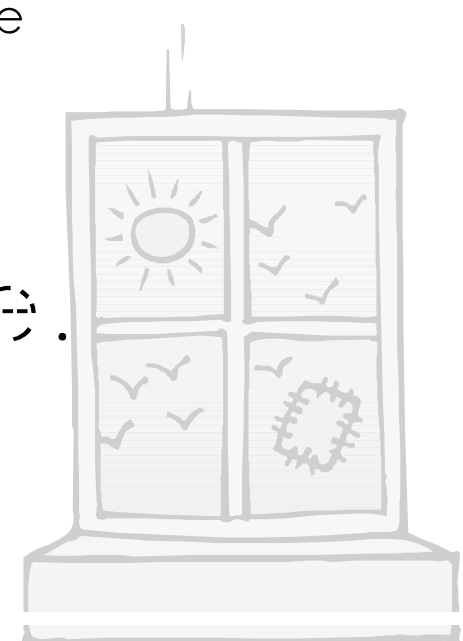
The time setting is midnight

Example #2

When she looked out her window, she saw the sun begin to rise.

The place setting is her house.

The time setting is dawn.



Setting

Read the information and trace the dotted words.

In this example, the author tells the reader exactly when and where the story is taking place. Can you find the time and place?

Nikki was excited! She was finally going to go and see the movie everyone was talking about. As she stood in the ticket line, she looked at her watch and saw that it was 6:00. She hoped the line moved quickly because the movie started in 10 minutes.

Place setting – ticket line

Time setting – 6:00

In this example, the author leaves clues for the reader to figure out the setting. Can you figure them out?

Will walked quickly to the bench and set down his equipment bag. The white lines were crisp and bold against the green of the freshly cut grass. Suddenly, his stomach started to growl. He had eaten a big breakfast but the sun was now high in the sky. As captain, he had to pay attention to the team warm-up, not his stomach.

Place setting – field

Time setting –

Setting

Read the information and trace the dotted words.

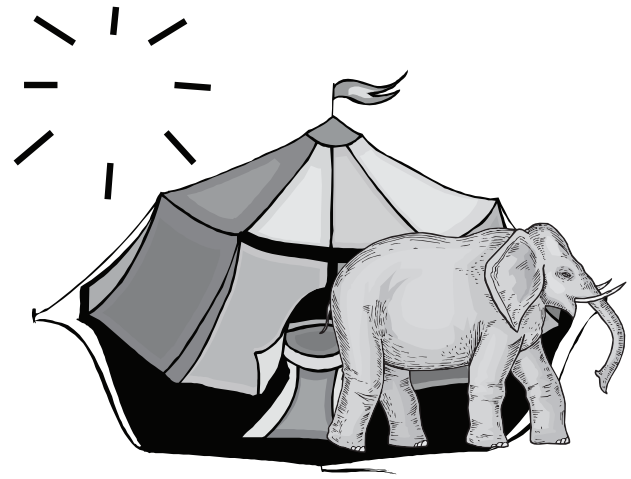
Find the setting by using the clues in the pictures to determine the time and place.

Time: _____

Clues: _____

Place: _____

Clues: _____



Time: _____

Clues: _____

Place: _____

Clues: _____

Time: _____

Clues: _____

Place: _____

Clues: _____

Setting

Fill in the blanks.

Find the setting by using the clues in the pictures to determine the time and place.

Time: _____
Daytime

Clues: _____
Sun

Place: _____
Circus

Clues: _____
Tent, Elephant

Time: _____ Night

Clues: _____
Moon, Sky

Place: _____ Outside

Clues: _____
Tree, Owl

Time: _____ Morning

Clues: _____
Milk, Eggs

Place: _____
Kitchen

Clues: _____

Setting Answers

What is your favorite story? _____.

Time:_____

Place:_____

Setting

Draw the setting and write the time and place.

The time setting is very important to the plot of the story. The time in history, time of day, or the season all play a part inthe story's plot. Trace the words that can be used as clues to describe TIME.

MONTHS AND SEASONS

Winter: December, January, and February

Wind, snow, coats, bare trees, gray skies

Spring: March, April, May

Flowers, butterflies, blue skies, budding plants

Summer: June, July, and August

Hot, sweat, bright sun, swimsuits

Fall: September, October, November

Colorful leaves, cool, jackets, pumpkins

TIME OF DAY

Morning: Dawn, sunrise, breakfast, early

Noon or Afternoon: sun high in sky, lunch

Evening: sun setting, twilight, dinnertime, supper

Night: moon, dark sky

TIME OF HISTORY

Past: already happened

Present: happening now

Future: about to happen, might happen

Modern: current times or fashion, now

Pioneer: American settlers, wilderness, covered wagons

Prehistoric: before written history, outdated

Eons ago: a very long time ago, a billion years ago

I looked up at the bright blue sky and I could see the orange and brown leaves falling from the branches.

Season: Fall Clues: orange and brown leaves falling

Time of Day: Daytime Clues: bright blue sky

The wagon wheels crept along the rocky path. My ribs were sore from bouncing on the wooden seat. If the air wasn't so cold, I could sit on my coat. At least the sun is setting and we will camp soon.

Time in History: Pioneer Clues: wagon wheels, camp

Time of Day: evening Clues: sun is setting

Season: Winter Clues: cold ,coat

When

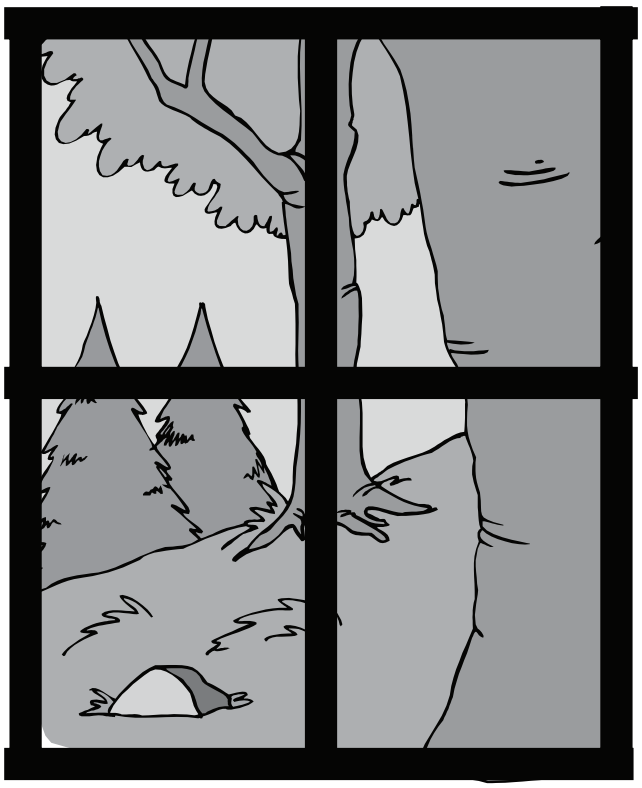
Read the information and trace the dotted words.

Jeff was so excited that March was behind him. He was another month closer to the end of school and the beginning of his journey. The cafeteria was loud from all the students talking and laughing, but he was in another world. Today's meat and gravy was not appealing to any of the kids except "Garbage Disposal Gary." Jeff's eyes were locked on blooming trees and newly cut green grass outside. He felt trapped inside on such a beautiful day.

Don't forget to underline the clues to help you with the answers.

What time period is this story probably written?

a. past
b. present
c. future
d. unknown



What season is Jeff so excited about?

a. fall
b. winter
c. spring
d. autumn

What time of day is it at the school?

a. lunch
b. breakfast
c. snack time
d. recess

What month does the story take place?

a. March
b. April
c. May

When Circle the correct answer.

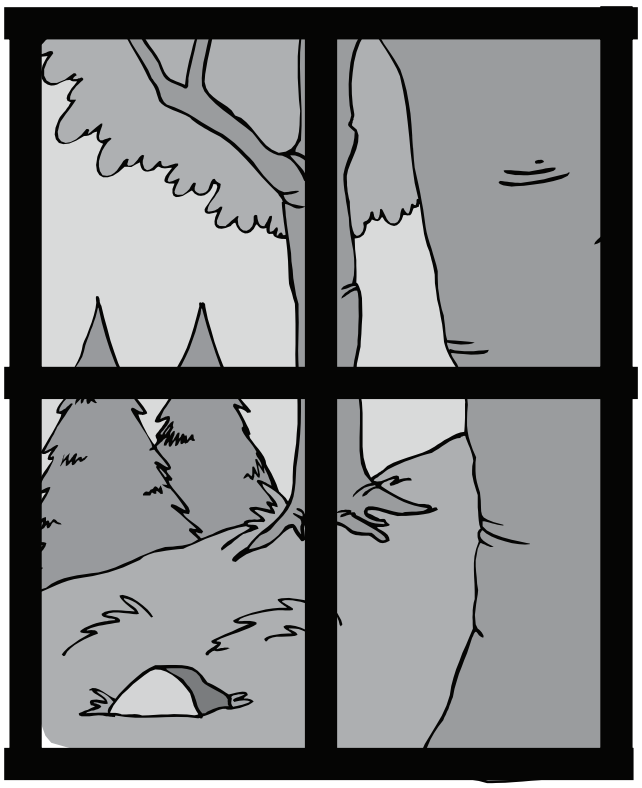
Jeff was so excited that March was behind him. He was another month closer to the end of school and the beginning of his journey. The cafeteria was loud from all the students talking and laughing, but he was in another world. Today's meat and gravy was not appealing to any of the kids except "Garbage Disposal Gary." Jeff's eyes were locked on blooming trees and newly cut green grass outside. He felt trapped inside on such a beautiful day.

Don't forget to underline the clues to help you with the answers.

What time period is this story probably written?

a. past
b. present
c. future
d. unknown



What season is Jeff so excited about?

a. fall
b. winter
c. spring
d. autumn

What time of day is it at the school?

a. lunch
b. breakfast
c. snack time
d. recess

What month does the story take place?

a. March
b. April
c. May

Present	Eon	Future	Modern	Autumn	Winter
Spring	Summer	Moonlight		Starlight	Time

When

Complete the puzzle.

Some places have distinct characteristics that the writer can use as clues to WHERE the story takes place.

Where a story takes place is also very important to the plot.

Trace the words and imagine what each place looks like.

Beach

Park

School

Circus

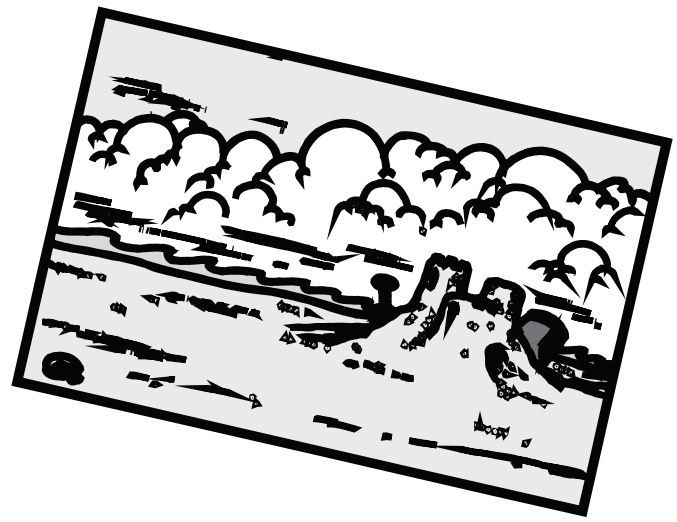
Kitchen

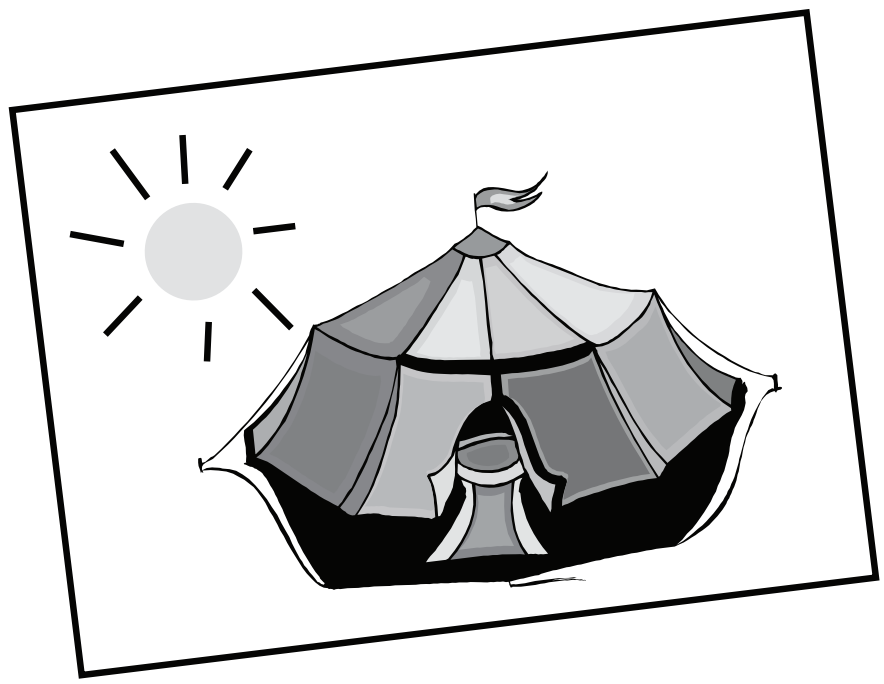
Forest

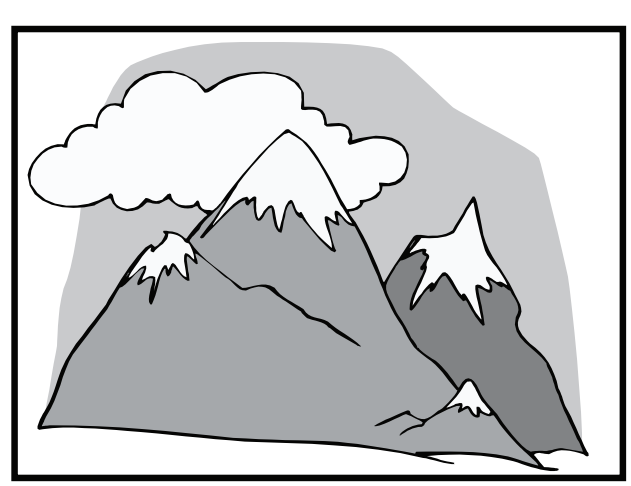
Jungle

Space

Cave







Where

Read the information and trace the important words.

It was so dark. I couldn't even see my hands. My sweaty shirt was turning cold the deeper I walked. I kept my hands on the wet rock wall and inched slowly into the darkness.

Where: cave

Clues: cold,wet,rock,dark,deep

The mud reached the top of my knees. The mosquitoes covered the rest of my body. I could feel the sweat dripping off my nose but I couldn't tear my eyes away from the alligator in front of me.

Where: swamp

Clues: mud, mosquitoes, alligator, sweat

As he climbed the wooden ladder he could hear the animals shuffling and the chickens clucking. When he reached the top he expected to see hay stacked on the right and the old tools on the left.

Where: hay loft in a barn

Where

Read the information and trace the important words.

Chelsea looked up and was amazed at how high the buildings were. They looked as if they were swaying gently from side to side and she wondered if they would ever just fall down. She desperately wished she were back at the farm where the blue skies covered her. She was thankful that grandma reminded her to wear her scarf, heavy coat and earmuffs as the cold whistled through the streets. Back home, the air usually didn't get cold. The crowd around her and the automobiles next to her seemed to be racing to their destination.

Don't forget to underline the clues to help you with the answers.

Does this story take place in the north or the south?

_____

Where do you think Chelsea is?

a. big city
b. small town
c. country
d. outer space

Where does Chelsea wish she could be?_____

What season does this story take place? _____

Which clues show that she's on a city street?

a. cold air
b. scarf and heavy coat
c. crowd and automobiles

Chelsea looked up and was amazed at how high the buildings were. They looked as if they were swaying gently from side to side and she wondered if they would ever just fall down. She desperately wished she were back at the farm where the blue skies covered her. She was thankful that grandma reminded her to wear her scarf, heavy coat and earmuffs as the cold whistled through the streets. Back home, the air usually didn't get cold. The crowd around her and the automobiles next to her seemed to be racing to their destination.

Don't forget to underline the clues to help you with the answers.

Does this story take place in the north or the south?

_____
North

Where do you think Chelsea is?

a. big city
b. small town
c. country
d. outer space

Where does Chelsea wish she could be?_____
Farm

What season does this story take place? _____
Winter

Which clues show that she's on a city street?

a. cold air
b. scarf and heavy coat
c. crowd and automobiles

Word Bank

Circus Zoo Jungle Hospital Theatre Classroom Mall Lake Castle Dungeon Orchard Camp River Boat Cabin Garden Cemetery Church

H L A R L Y I C I R C U S
O R C H A R D L E D O Y D
S A N R K G C A L U P R U
P M F I E A E S G N R E N
I C B V L R R S N G E T G
T A O E L D Y R U E W E O
A M A R A E P O J O R M I
L P T O M N S O O N S E U
C A S T L E W M T J D C Y
T H E A T R E R H G F L R
Z O O C A B I E G D R K I
X C Z R A O C H U R C H V

Where

Complete the Word Search.

He sat at his desk avoiding his teacher's gaze.

The steak and potatoes made my mouth water.

The fireflies started to glow in the trees.

The red and white tent was enormous.

The Christmas lights sparkled on the wrapping paper.

The rooster's loud crow woke us all.

The ground shook as the giant lizard walked.

Mars looked much different up close.

Monkeys swung through the trees overhead.

Circus

December

Spring

School

Twilight

Jungle

Dinnertime

Space

Prehistoric

Dawn

Where

Match the clues.

He sat at his desk avoiding his teacher's gaze.

The steak and potatoes made my mouth water.

The fireflies started to glow in the trees.

The red and white tent was enormous.

The Christmas lights sparkled on the wrapping paper.

The rooster's loud crow woke us all.

The ground shook as the giant lizard walked.

Mars looked much different up close.

Monkeys swung through the trees overhead.

Circus

December

Spring

School

Twilight

Jungle

Dinnertime

Space

Prehistoric

Dawn

Where

Answers

TIME and PLACE: As you've learned, the setting is very important to a story. Characters are affected by the times in which they live. The place is important since the characters interact with their surroundings.

Do not forget:

- Do not get confused by a setting that is mentioned in the story but isn't the main setting.
- Setting is where most of the action takes place.
- You can usually find the setting in the beginning of the story.
- Always look for clues that will lead to the WHEN and WHERE.

Look at the example below:

The top of the sun was vanishing behind the mountain. Scott loved the orange glow of the water. He hoped he would get to see a bass jump out of the water before the daylight disappeared.

Where: lake Clues: water, bass

When: evening Clues: setting sun, daylight

Time and Place

Read the information and trace the dotted words.

As the door swung open, Rachel could smell the donuts and hot coffee. The cars were passing by and feet were trampling along the concrete.

Time: morning

Place: city street

I laid on the blanket in the grass waiting for the independence celebration to begin. Finally, the dark sky turned into a brilliant show.

Time: night

Place: outside

"Man, this corn dog is good, " I thought as I looked through the metal bars. I wonder what hippos eat for lunch?

Time: afternoon

Place:

Time and Place

Read the information and trace the dotted words.

1. The sun shone down brightly on sparkling white sand. Children were laughing as the waves splashed over them.

Time _____ Place_____

2. Brrr! Chris had never been so cold. He pulled his hat down, making sure his ears were covered. He couldn't believe that when he left for school that morning it had been 70 degrees. Now, as he walked up the sidewalk to his house, he felt the icy blow of the cold north wind and knew he was in for a cold night.

Time _____ Place_____

3. Mrs. Stover entered her classroom just as the 8:00 bell rang to mark the beginning of the school day. Students entered laughing and talking about what had happened to them the night before. They emptied their backpacks and placed their papers in the homework basket.

Time _____ Place_____

4. Dad got in and started the car. We heard the engine roar to life and we could hardly believe we were about to start our summer vacation. School had ended just last Friday. Here it was, Monday morning, and our summer was off to a great start.

Time _____ Place_____

Time and Place Fill in the blanks.

1. The sun shone down brightly on sparkling white sand. Children were laughing as the waves splashed over them.

Time _____ Place_____

Day Beach

2. Brrr! Chris had never been so cold. He pulled his hat down, making sure his ears were covered. He couldn't believe that when he left for school that morning it had been 70 degrees. Now, as he walked up the sidewalk to his house, he felt the icy blow of the cold north wind and knew he was in for a cold night.

Time _____ Place_____

After School His House

3. Mrs. Stover entered her classroom just as the 8:00 bell rang to mark the beginning of the school day. Students entered laughing and talking about what had happened to them the night before. They emptied their backpacks and placed their papers in the homework basket.

Time _____ Place_____

8:00 Classroom

4. Dad got in and started the car. We heard the engine roar to life and we could hardly believe we were about to start our summer vacation. School had ended just last Friday. Here it was, Monday morning, and our summer was off to a great start.

Time _____ Place_____

Monday Morning Car at home

Setting: Time and Place

S_____

H_____

P_____

O_____

M_____

N_____

A_____

C_____

K_____

T_____

R_____

L_____

Time and Place

See how many words you can make with the letters below.

Another part of knowing what a story is about is finding out how a character feels or his emotions about something happening in the selection that is being read. An emotion is a strong feeling. These are just a few examples of words that express feelings or emotions..

angry happy afraid puzzled tired surprised shy sad mad cheerful scared confused sleepy startled timid unhappy furious thrilled terrified curious exhausted shocked bashful upset

There are many more feeling words. When you read, look for feeling words so that you will know what the character is experiencing. Remember, emotions and feelings can change within one selection. Always ask yourself, "How would I feel if this were happening to me?"

Feelings and Emotions

Read the information and trace the dotted words.

These pictures show a character showing an emotion or feeling. Think about your emotions if these words were describing how you were feeling!

surprised startled shocked afraid terrified scared

happy cheerful thrilled angry mad furious

shy timid bashful tired sleepy exhausted

puzzled confused curious sad upset unhappy

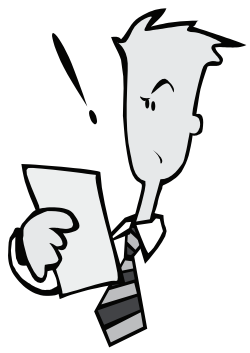
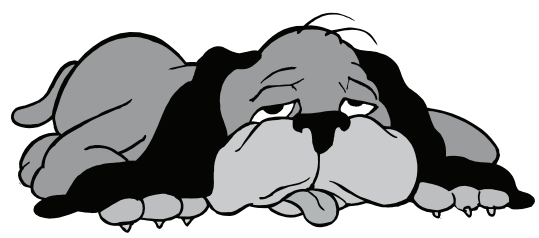
Feelings and Emotions

Read the information and trace the dotted words.

Word Bank

surprised	shocked	happy	cheerful	mad
furious	sleepy	exhausted	confused	puzzled
	sad	upset



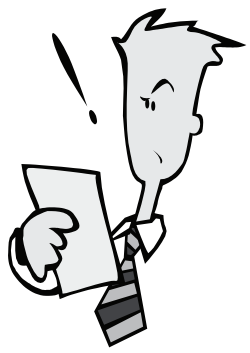


Feelings and Emotions

Use the Word Bank to fill in the blanks.

Word Bank

surprised	shocked	happy	cheerful	mad
furious	sleepy	exhausted	confused	puzzled
	sad	upset

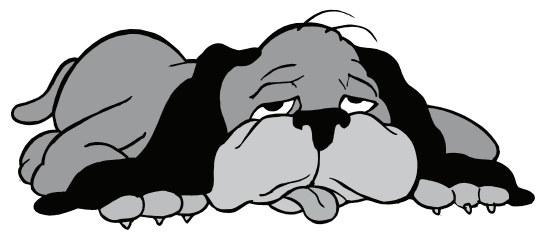


surprised

happy

shocked

cheerful



mad

sleepy

furious

exhausted

confused

sad

puzzled

upset

Feelings and Emotions Answers

Word Bank

angry happy afraid puzzled tired surprised shy sad mad cheerful scared confused sleepy startled timid unhappy furious thrilled terrified curious exhausted shocked bashful upset nosy shaky wicked guilty kind grumpy depressed irate brave ashamed

P A N G R Y P C U T O S D S O D S L F D
U P S E T I I O R R P C I L U E R K G E
Z R S R F U R I O U S A M E T K T E D P
Z T H E O N P S T H C R I E R C E D E R
L S Y P H H N G W A H E T P E O D F P E
E X H A U S T R I P E D F Y W H S G R S
D A K R C C D U C P E T G L S S T H T S
E Q I L X O E M K Y R E B K L L A J Y E
R J N P S N S P E D F R A T P K R K U D
R A T E F I Y D I U R S H C E T Y I O
T G S K A U R B G A L I H R U W L P O I
P H H I S S P R U R D F F I R S E P P K
O A N H E R A I F E I U L I P D A L L
S L K D A D U V L A P E L L O O F H K J
A E Y Z M N S E T N R D L E U D U N N F
D R I G E V L P Y C W L I D S R R U M G
N O S Y D X O U M X P K E P R F I P C H

Feelings and Emotions

Complete the Word Search.

Jenna was so excited. This was her first time to fly on an airplane. It was going to be a long trip and she knew that she would be exhausted when she arrived in Paris. Actually, she was both thrilled and terrified at the same time. She was so afraid that when she got to Paris she would be confused communicating with everyone. Speaking French was still new to her and she was a little shy about using her new language. But she was confident that all her hard work would pay off and she would be successful.

The plane began to rumble and Jenna's stomach was upset! Horrified, she took a deep breath and relaxed. As the plane took off, she was shocked to realize that it was not nearly as frightening as she thought. She was amazed that everything was so tiny. Maybe, this wasn't going to be as scary as she thought. She leaned back in her seat and knew she was brave enough to take this amazing adventure all herself!

Feelings and Emotions

Read the information and trace the dotted words.

Word Bank

worried	tired	hungry	glad	puzzled	bravely
nervous	concerned		afraid	astonished

Jenna's airplane was finally landing! She was t_____, h_____,and w_____.

What should she do first? She was p_____.

B_____, she gathered her courage and got off the plane. She was finally in Paris! She was delighted because she had made it here safely. Yet, she was still concerned and a little n_____. She gathered her bags and found a taxi. Jenna was as_____!

Paris was as beautiful as it had been in her dreams. She had been so af_____ that the people would be rude and grumpy with her because she could not speak French very well. But she was gl_____ that everyone was so friendly and helpful. Now it was time for Jenna to start the vacation of her dreams!

Feelings and Emotions

Use the Word Bank to fill in the blanks.

She was in the city of her dreams. Jenna had never been so _____ in her life!

excited disappointed

Where should she go first? She only had three days, she was _____.

proud puzzled

She decided to go to the Eiffel Tower. She was _____ at the amazing beauty.

thankful astonished

She knew she had to go to the top! When she got to the top, she felt_____.

dizzy confused

She felt _____ for making it to the top.

mad proud

She knew that on the rest of her trip she would not be_____.

hungry frightened

She was _____for all the things left to do in the amazing city of her dreams.

confused thankful

Jenna was _____she had made this wonderful trip!

glad disappointed

Feelings and Emotions Circle the correct answer.

She was in the city of her dreams. Jenna had never been so _____ in her life!

excited disappointed

Where should she go first? She only had three days, she was _____.

proud puzzled

She decided to go to the Eiffel Tower. She was _____ at the amazing beauty.

thankful astonished

She knew she had to go to the top! When she got to the top, she felt_____.

dizzy confused

She felt _____ for making it to the top.

mad proud

She knew that on the rest of her trip she would not be_____.

hungry frightened

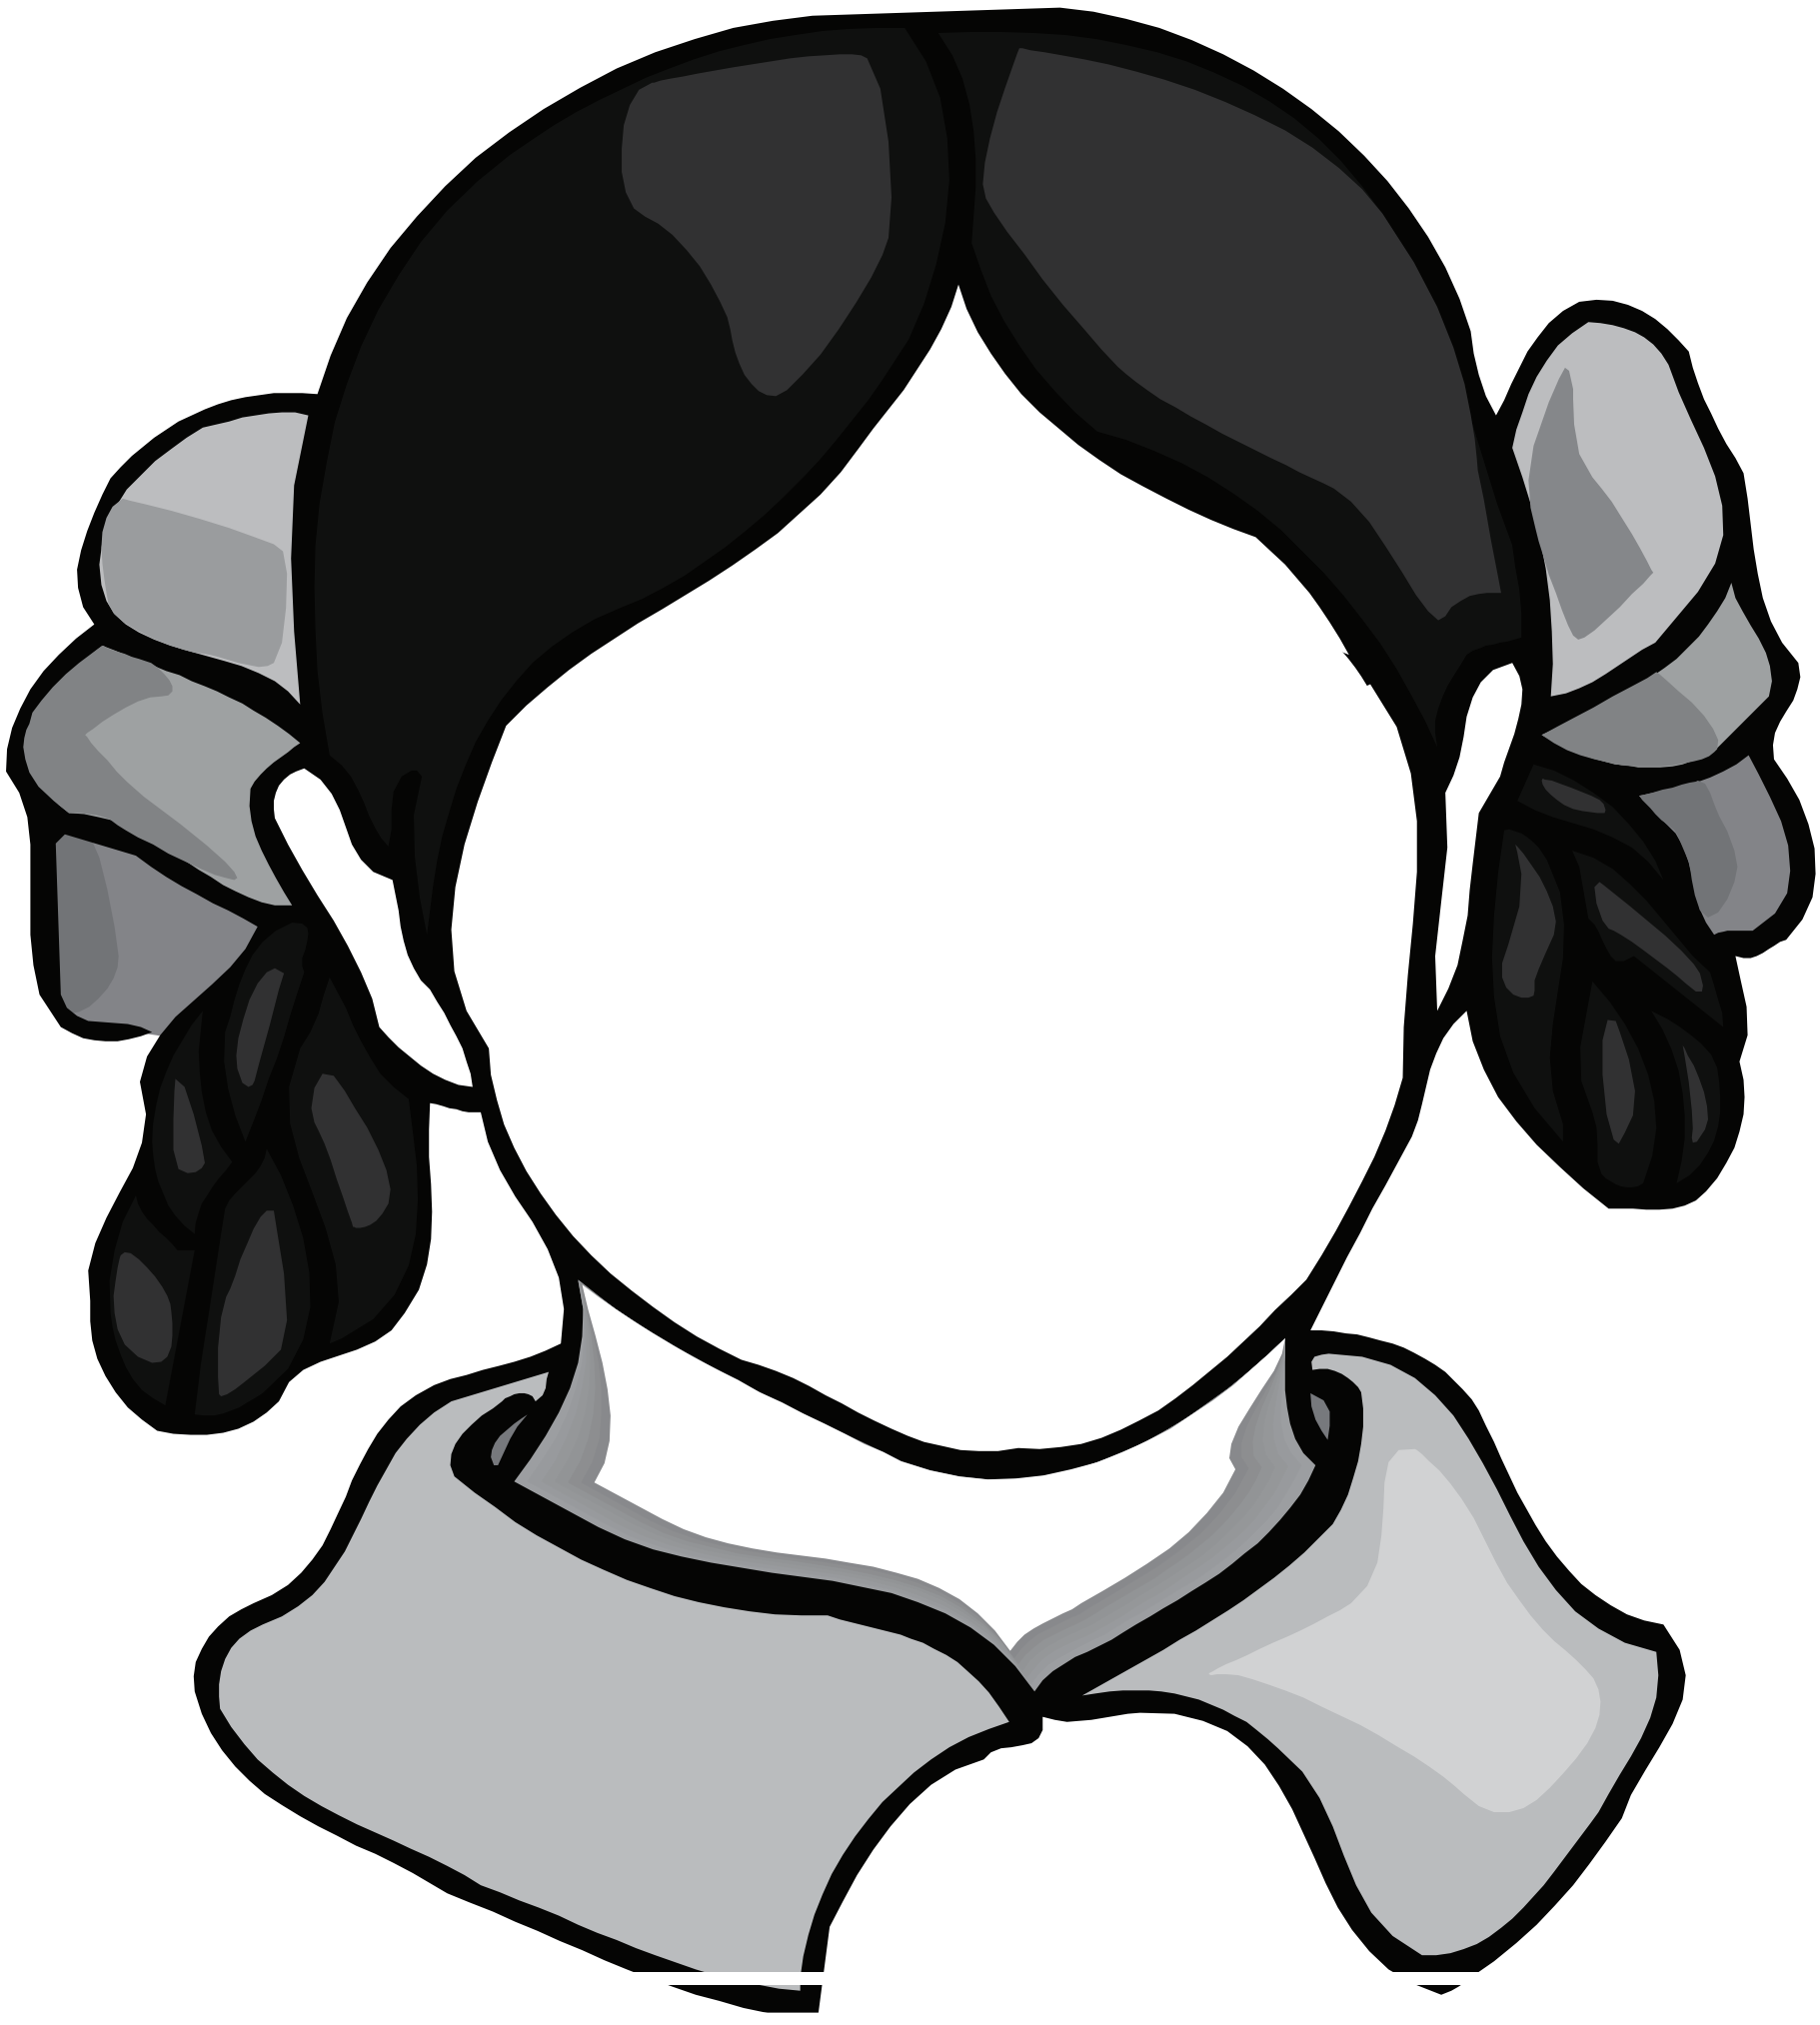
She was _____for all the things left to do in the amazing city of her dreams.

confused thankful

Jenna was _____she had made this wonderful trip!

glad disappointed

Draw Jenna's face to show some of the emotions that she is feeling.
Here are some examples: fear , excited, worried, puzzled, happy, sad.
There are many more ways that Jenna could feel. Can you think of more?



Feelings and Emotions

Follow the directions.

This page intentionally left blank for creative use.

This page intentionally left blank for creative use.