The subject of a sentence is the person, place or thing that the sentence is about. A predicate is the word or group of words that tells what the subject is or is doing in the sentence. Predicates begin with a verb.

Trace the subjects:

The boy flew to Mexico.

Mexico is a country.

The mountains are beautiful.

person

place

thing

Trace the predicates:

The boy flew to Mexico.

Mexico is a country.

The mountains are beautiful.

Subjects and Predicates

Read the information and trace the dotted words.

Word Bank:

| | | | | |
|---|---|---|---|---|
| Mexico | sombrero | turtle | traveled | country |
| volcano | fiesta | ruins | flew | hiked |
| forest | mountains | dancing | eating | shop |
| city | fish | diving | walk | vacation |

| | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | |
|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|
| T | U | R | T | L | E | X | R | L | D | I | V | I | N | G | S |
| E | A | T | S | E | I | F | Q | E | A | T | A | O | H | O | H |
| M | Z | C | N | P | Q | I | A | I | N | M | U | Y | K | X | O |
| O | R | F | V | E | L | S | D | E | C | L | X | R | E | T | P |
| U | T | O | M | R | A | H | A | U | I | L | E | U | X | Y | H |
| N | T | R | A | V | E | L | E | D | N | O | C | I | X | E | M |
| T | S | E | N | S | J | J | F | R | G | A | Z | N | R | L | R |
| A | O | S | G | R | U | E | L | M | R | Z | W | S | U | E | E |
| I | N | T | R | I | T | V | E | A | T | I | N | G | T | S | J |
| N | E | K | A | W | E | C | W | V | I | W | O | J | C | O | G |
| S | S | C | T | F | O | A | N | A | O | M | N | U | V | M | F |
| G | G | R | E | U | T | W | I | U | N | R | T | Y | E | B | X |
| C | D | C | N | E | C | A | T | E | B | D | I | H | E | R | E |
| I | A | T | R | V | O | L | C | A | N | O | C | Z | O | E | R |
| T | R | U | T | H | I | K | E | D | Y | C | E | D | T | R | S |
| Y | T | N | L | O | E | G | C | V | A | C | A | T | I | O | N |

Subjects and Predicates

Complete the Word Search.

The complete subject is all of the words that tell who or what is doing an action. The simple subject is the main word or words in the complete subject.The complete subject is underlined and the simple subject is circled. Trace the complete subject.

The Payne family decided to go on a vacation.

The beautiful country of Mexico was where they were going on vacation.

The tropical paradise of Cozumel would be their destination in Mexico.

The airplane flight would be exciting for the children.

The Payne family arrived in Mexico at noon. The temperature was just right for swimming. Many tired tourists filled the airport. The family's luggage was so heavy. A white taxi picked the family up to take them to their resort. A pyramid-shaped hotel was where they were staying! Tropical plants were everywhere. This vacation was going to be so much fun!

Subjects and Predicates

Trace the complete subject and circle the simple subject.

The Payne family couldn't believe their eyes!

_____

The resort paradise hotel was amazing!

_____

Crystal blue water surrounded the hotel.

_____

Sparkling white sand covered the beach.

_____

The impatient children begged their parents to hurry.

_____

New swimming suits were soon unpacked.

_____

Excited children ran to the beautiful beach.

_____

Subjects and Predicates

Underline the complete subject; write the simple subject on the line.

The Payne family couldn't believe their eyes!

family

The resort paradise hotel was amazing!

hotel

Crystal blue water surrounded the hotel.

water

Sparkling white sand covered the beach.

sand

The impatient children begged their parents to hurry.

children

New swimming suits were soon unpacked.

suits

Excited children ran to the beautiful beach.

Subjects and Predicates

Draw a picture of the Payne's hotel.

Compound subjects are made up of two or more subjects joined by and or or and have the same predicate.

Jamie, Jonna, and Jenna dove into the sparkling water.

Beach chairs, towels, and umbrellas covered the beach.

The children and their parents chose an umbrella to sit under.

Snorkeling or parasailing would be fun.

The parents and children went snorkeling.

Small fish, sea urchins, and some large fish were in the clear water.

Jamie and Jenna swam away from the others.

Mom, Dad, and Jenna looked for the other girls.

Subjects and Predicates

Trace the compound subjects.

1. Mom and dad saw the girls sitting on the beach.

_____

2. Fins, snorkels, and masks were lying in the glistening sand.

_____

3. Pails, shovels, shells, and sandcastles surrounded them.

_____

4. Jamie and Jenna had been busy.

_____

5. Mom, dad, and Jonna joined the other girls on the beach.

_____

6. Warm sand, gentle breezes, and cool drinks were enjoyed by the family. _____

_____

1. Mom and Dad saw the girls sitting on the beach.

Mom and Dad

2. Fins, snorkels, and masks were lying in the glistening sand.

Fins, snorkels, and masks

3. Pails, shovels, and shells surrounded them.

Pails, shovels, and shells

4. Jamie and Jenna had been busy.

Jamie and Jenna

5. Mom, Dad, and Jonna joined the other girls on the beach.

Mom, Dad, and Jonna

6. Warm sand, gentle breezes, and cool drinks were enjoyed by the family. _____

Warm sand, gentle breezes, and cool drinks

Word Bank:

parrot fish

small fish

moray eels

shrimp

crabs

sting ray

coral

sea urchin

shells

turtles

sea cucumber

large fish

slurtlet _____

eas ncruih _____

alocr _____

rhmpsi _____ raotpr hfis _____

arbsc _____

ase mucbcure _____

royam sele _____

ntgis ayr _____

lmasl sifh _____

geral ifhs _____

Draw things they might have seen.

Subjects and Predicates

Unscramble the animals they might have seen.

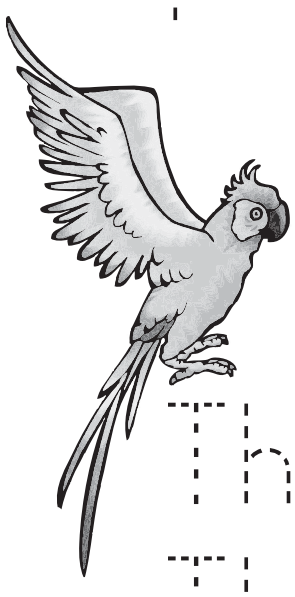
Simple sentences that have the same predicate can be made into one sentence by combining the two sentences and subjects into a compound subject.

Colorful birds surrounded the family.

Tropical plants surrounded the family.

Colorful birds and tropical plants surrounded the family.



The parents decided to go hiking.

The children decided to go hiking.

The parents and children decided to go hiking.

Subjects and Predicates

Read the information and trace the dotted words.

Many different plants were in the jungle.
Many different animals were in the jungle.

Many different _____ and _____ were in the jungle.

The tour guide found an underground cave,
The hiker found an underground cave.

The _____ guide and the _____ found an underground cave.

The underground caves were filled with water.
The cenotes were filled with water.

The underground _____, or , were filled with water.

Subjects and Predicates

Combine the simple subjects into compound subjects.

1. The family jumped into the cool waters of the cenote.
The tour guide jumped into the cool waters of the cenote.

_____

jumped into the cool waters of the cenote.

2. Many rock formations were found in the cenote.
Many stalagmites were found in the cenote.

_____

were found in the cenote.

3. The girls expected to see many fish in the dark cave.
The parents expected to see many fish in the dark cave.

_____

expected to see many fish in the dark cave.

4. No fish lived in the deep cenote.
No plants lived in the deep cenote.

_____ lived in the deep cenote.

5. The family thought this was an amazing dive in the peaceful cenotes.
The entire group thought this was an amazing dive in the peaceful cenotes.

_____

thought this was an amazing dive in the peaceful cenotes.

1. The family jumped into the cool waters of the cenote.
The tour guide jumped into the cool waters of the cenote.

_____
The family and the tour guide
jumped into the cool waters of the cenote.

2. Many rock formations were found in the cenote.
Many stalagmites were found in the cenote.

_____
Many rock formations and stalagmites
were found in the cenote.

3. The girls expected to see many fish in the dark cave.
The parents expected to see many fish in the dark cave.

_____
The girls and parents
expected to see many fish in the dark cave.

4. No fish lived in the deep cenote.
No plants lived in the deep cenote.

_____ lived in the deep cenote.
No fish or plants

5. The family thought this was an amazing dive in the peaceful cenotes.
The entire group thought this was an amazing dive in the peaceful cenotes.

_____
The family and the entire group
thought this was an amazing dive in the peaceful cenotes.

Mexican Jungle

See how many new words you can make from the letters.

The complete predicate is all the words that tell what the subject is or does. The simple predicate is the main word or words in the complete predicate.

The girls begged their parents to go out on the boat.

Mom and Dad booked a trip for all of them to go scuba diving.

Jamie, Jonna, and Jenna were so excited that they barely slept that night.

The girls woke at 7:00 A.M. to go scuba diving.

Subjects and Predicates

Read the information and trace the dotted words.

The Payne family boarded the dive boat at 9:00 A.M.

The girls gazed at the sparkling blue water.

Soon, they arrived at their diving spot off the coast of Cozumel.

All the divers put on their diving gear.

The girls lined up with the others to jump into the clear waters.

They were ready for their underwater adventure.

Subjects and Predicates

Trace the complete predicate and underline the simple predicate.

The family descended to the bottom of the ocean.

The daughters saw the sun shining through the water.

They began swimming through the beautiful coral reefs.

Jenna pointed to a green moray eel.

A large sea turtle was hiding in the dark.

The guide motioned for them to go up to the surface.

Everyone wanted to go diving again.

The dive had been a huge success!

Subjects and Predicates

Underline the complete and circle the simple predicates.

The family descended to the bottom of the ocean.

The daughters saw the sun shining through the water.

They began swimming through the beautiful coral reefs.

Jenna pointed to a green moray eel.

A large sea turtle was hiding in the dark.

The guide motioned for them to go up to the surface.

Everyone wanted to go diving again.

The dive had been a huge success!

Subjects and Predicates

Circle the picture that is different.

The compound predicate is made up of two or more simple or complete predicates that have the same subject.

Yesterday the Payne family shopped and ate a Mexican meal.

They rented a taxi and rode into town.

Jenna and Jonna saw a street vendor and bought some candy.

The street vendors were making pottery and selling it to shoppers.

Dad and Mom went into a store and bought souvenirs.

Subjects and Predicates

Read the information and trace the dotted words.

Fiesta

The Payne family ate Mexican food and listened to a band.

The girls sang and danced to the Mexican music.

The band played and sang many different songs.

Everyone ate and enjoyed all of the Mexican treats.

Soon they left and went on another Jeep ride.

Subjects and Predicates

Trace the compound predicate and circle the simple predicate.

1. The Payne family left their hotel and went to the ancient ruins.

_____

2. The sisters raced to and climbed the ruins.

_____

3. Mom and Dad walked and joined them on their hike.

_____

4. Some of the ruins had crumbled and fallen to the ground.

_____

5. The Mayans had built and worshipped at these ruins ages ago.

_____

Subjects and Predicates

Underline the compound and write the simple predicate.

1. The Payne family left their hotel and went to the ancient ruins.

left

2. The sisters raced to and climbed the ruins.

raced

3. Mom and Dad walked and joined them on their hike.

walked and joined

4. Some of the ruins had crumbled and fallen to the ground.

had crumbled

5. The Mayans had built and worshipped at these ruins ages ago.

had built and worshipped

Subjects and Predicates

Draw some things you would eat on vacation.

Simple sentences that have the same subject can be combined to make one sentence with a compound predicate. They can be combined with and, but, or or.

The family wanted to stay.

The family knew they must leave.

The family wanted to stay but knew they had to leave.

The girls took one last swim.

The girls took one last walk.

The girls took one last swim and walk.

Subjects and Predicates

Read the information and trace the dotted words.

The girls could buy souvenirs or ride bikes before leaving.

They decided to ride bikes and sightsee one last time.

Mom and Dad folded clothes and packed bags.

The family went swimming and walking on the beach before leaving.

Subjects and Predicates

Read the information and trace the dotted words.

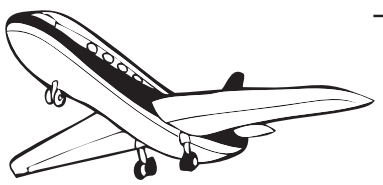
1. The family carried their bags to the taxi.
   The family got into the taxi.

_____

_____



2. The sisters talked about their vacation.
   The sisters looked at their souvenirs.

_____

_____

3. The girls missed their friends.
   The girls wanted to stay in Mexico.

_____

_____

4. The Payne family gathered their luggage.
   The Payne family arrived at the airport.

_____

_____

5. The airplane took off.
   The airplane headed for home.

_____

1. The family carried their bags to the taxi.
   The family got into the taxi.

The family carried their bags and got into the taxi.

2. The sisters talked about their vacation.
   The sisters looked at their souvenirs.

The sisters talked about their vacation and looked at souvenirs.

3. The girls missed their friends.
   The girls wanted to stay in Mexico.

The girls missed their friends but wanted to stay in Mexico.

4. The Payne family gathered their luggage.
   The Payne family arrived at the airport.

The Payne family gathered their luggage and arrived at the airport.

5. The airplane took off.
   The airplane headed for home.

Subjects and Predicates

Complete the maze.

This page intentionally left blank for creative use.

This page intentionally left blank for creative use.