- A noun is a word that names a person, place, thing, or idea.
- A common noun begins with a lower case letter and names any person, place or thing.
- A proper noun begins with a capital letter and names a specific person, place or thing.

People's names, titles, holidays, months, days of the week and names of places are proper nouns.

Common:

Can you see the bright stars?

There are nine planets.

The astronauts fly into space.

Proper:

John Glenn is a famous astronaut.

He is from Ohio.

He flew on the spacecraft called Friendship 7.

Nouns - Common and Proper

Read the information and trace the dotted words.

- A noun is a word that names a person, place, thing, or idea.
- A common noun begins with a lower case letter and names any person, place or thing.
- A proper noun begins with a capital letter and names a specific person, place or thing.

Common:

It is dangerous to ride in a spacecraft.

They wear special suits for protection.

Visiting space is very exciting.

Proper:

Earth is one of the planets.

Jupiter is the largest planet.

A space center is located in Houston, Texas.

Nouns - Common and Proper

Read the information and trace the dotted words.

_____1. The astronaut is ready to fly.

_____2. John Glenn was excited about flying.

_____3. The Friendship 7 flies very fast.

_____4. He is wearing a space suit.

_____5. The helmet fit him perfectly.

_____6. NASA is in Houston, Texas.

_____7. The comet is going fast.

Nouns - Common and Proper

Circle the nouns; write C for common and P for proper.

_____1. The astronaut is ready to fly.
C

_____2. John Glenn was excited about flying.
P

_____3. The Friendship 7 flies very fast.
P

_____4. He is wearing a space suit.
C

_____5. The helmet fit him perfectly.
C

_____6. NASA is in Houston, Texas.
P

_____7. The comet is going fast.
C

Nouns - Common and Proper

Make your own patch like the one John Glenn wore.

- A singular noun names one person, place or thing.
- A plural noun names more than one person, place or thing. To change most nouns that end in a consonant to plural, add s or es to the end.

Singular Nouns:

We live on a planet. one planet

It is in a very large galaxy. one galaxy

The sun is a giant star. one sun

Plural Nouns:

At night we can see many stars. more than one star

Telescopes are used to look into space. more than one telescope

Some explorers dream about space travel. more than one explorer

Nouns - Singular and Plural

Read the information and trace the dotted words.

- A singular noun names one person, place or thing.
- A plural noun names more than one person, place or thing. To change most nouns that end in a consonant to plural, add s or es to the end.

We have only one moon. singular

Some planets have several moons. plural

Some astronauts have walked on the moon. plural

They flew in a spaceship. singular

A helmet protects them. singular

Their boots are also protective. plural

Nouns - Singular and Plural

Read the sentences and trace the nouns.

Our solar system has eight _____. planet planets

There is only one _____. sun suns

Jupiter has four large _____. moon moons

Our moon has many _____. crater craters

A crater is a bowl-shaped _____. hole holes

_____ form the craters. meteorite meteorites

A meteorite is a giant _____. rock rocks

We call them shooting _____. star stars

Nouns - Singular and Plural

Circle the correct noun to complete the sentence.

Our solar system has eight _____. planet planets

There is only one _____. sun suns

Jupiter has four large _____. moon moons

Our moon has many _____. crater craters

A crater is a bowl-shaped _____. hole holes

_____ form the craters. meteorite meteorites

A meteorite is a giant _____. rock rocks

We call them shooting _____. star stars

ACROSS

2 A flying fireball

4 It is very hot and bright

5 A space traveler

7 Protect astronauts' feet

9 Famous astronaut John

DOWN

1 Used to look at stars

3 Earth is a _____

4 Ship that flies into space

6 Earth has one _____

8 Shine brightly

Nouns - Singular and Plural

Complete the crossword puzzle.

- A possessive noun shows ownership, or tells who the person, place or thing belongs to.
- A singular possessive noun shows ownership by one person, place or thing.
- Use an apostrophe and an s ('s) to form possessive nouns.

An astronomer's telescope is even larger.

The shuttle's rockets are very loud.

We like watching the rocket's flames.

This is the man's first trip to space.

The astronaut's family will miss him.

Imagine the shuttle crew's excitement.

Nouns - Singular Possessive

Read the information and trace the dotted words.

- A possessive noun shows ownership, or tells who the person, place or thing belongs to.
- A singular possessive noun shows ownership by one person, place or thing.
- Use an apostrophe and an s ('s) to form possessive nouns.

Clay's _____ dream is to be an astronaut.

library's The _____ astronomy section is his favorite.

teacher's His _____ son is an astronaut.

moon's Clay imagines the _____ surface under his feet.

rocket's He also hears the _____ roar.

Nouns - Singular Possessive

Read the information and trace the dotted words.

people	moon	shuttle
Clay	astronaut	rocket

NASA prepares the _____ engines.

The _____ suits are checked one more time.

They hear the roar and see the _____ flames.

As they go up the _____ waves get smaller.

Soon they will see the _____ craters.

_____ dream has finally come true!

Nouns - Singular Possessive

Add an apostrophe s to the nouns and fill in the blanks.

people	moon	shuttle
Clay	astronaut	rocket

NASA prepares the _____ engines.
shuttle's

The _____ suits are checked one more time.
astronaut's

They hear the roar and see the _____ flames.
rocket's

As they go up the _____ waves get smaller.
people's

Soon they will see the _____ craters.
moon's

_____ dream has finally come true!
Clay's

Nouns - Singular Possessive Answers

You could be an astronaut one day.

Nouns - Singular Possessive

Draw what you dream of seeing in space.

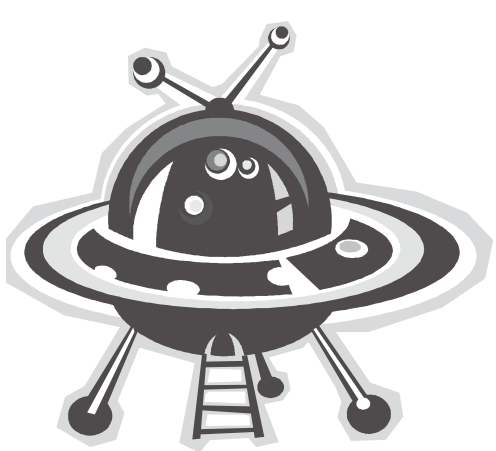
- A plural possessive noun shows ownership by more than one person, place or thing.
- Use an apostrophe after the s' to form a plural possessive noun.

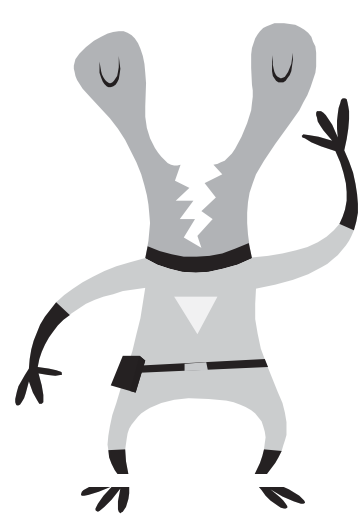
Do you believe in other planets' living creatures?

My friends' stories are about aliens.

The Martians' homes are in outer space.

We saw the aliens' spacecrafts last night.





The lights of the aliens raced across the sky.

The aliens' lights raced across the sky.

The whistle of the spacecrafts whispered in our ears.

The spacecrafts' whistle whispered in our ears.

Watching the sky was the idea of my parents.

Watching the sky was my parents' idea.

We stare until the strength of our eyes weakens.

We stare until our eyes' strength weakens.

Nouns - Plural Possessive

Read the first sentence and trace the new plural possessive nouns.

The alien's antennas are two feet high.

singular possessive plural possessive plural

Some of the Martians are purple.

singular possessive plural possessive plural

Many galaxies' creatures are unknown.

singular possessive plural possessive plural

Jack's friend Kade talks to Martians.

singular possessive plural possessive plural

Do you believe in creatures from space?

singular possessive plural possessive plural

I think the astronauts' are incredible.

singular possessive plural possessive plural

One day, they will prove the alien theories.

singular possessive plural possessive plural

Nouns - Plural Possessive

Circle the correct description of the underlined words.

The alien's antennas are two feet high.

singular possessive plural possessive plural

Some of the Martians are purple.

singular possessive plural possessive plural

Many galaxies' creatures are unknown.

singular possessive plural possessive plural

Jack's friend Kade talks to Martians.

singular possessive plural possessive plural

Do you believe in creatures from space?

singular possessive plural possessive plural

I think the astronauts' are incredible.

singular possessive plural possessive plural

One day, they will prove the alien theories.

singular possessive plural possessive plural

Nouns - Plural Possessive

List the things you possess or own.
Draw your favorite possession.

A pronoun is a word that is used in place of a noun.

Some examples of common pronouns are:

I me you he she it him

her we us they them

It is traveling very fast.

They all have luminous tails.

You can see them in the sky at night.

The antecedent is the noun that the pronoun replaces.

Tracy said that she saw a comet.

The comet is large, and it is made of ice and dust.

As comets travel, they vaporize.

Pronouns and Antecedents

Read the information and trace the dotted words.

When a comet passes by the sun it loses some of the dust and ice.

As the particles stream behind the comet, they form the tail.

Edmond Halley has a famous comet named after him.

Curtis saw Halley's last return when he was in college.

Halley's orbit lasts about 76 years, so its next visit will be around 2062.

Pronouns and Antecedents

Trace the noun and circle the pronoun it relates to.

	Pronoun	Antecedent
1. When the skies are perfect, they can show miracles.	_____	_____
2. Brian said that he used his telescope.	_____	_____
3. The scientist saw the comet when he went to the observatory.	_____	_____
4. Students, do you want to see the comet?	_____	_____
5. Halley's comet was so beautiful that it was astonishing.	_____	_____
6. Learning about a comet can be fun because it is surprising.	_____	_____

Pronouns and Antecedents

Write the pronoun and antecedent for each sentence.

	Pronoun	Antecedent
1. When the skies are perfect, they can show miracles.	they	skies
2. Brian said that he used his telescope.	he	Brian
3. The scientist saw the comet when he went to the observatory.	he	scientist
4. Students, do you want to see the comet?	you	students
5. Halley's comet was so beautiful that it was astonishing.	it	Halley's comet
6. Learning about a comet can be fun because it is surprising.	it	comet

Pronouns and Antecedents

Draw your own comet and give it a name.

Pronouns can be subjects or objects in a sentence.

Subject pronouns replace nouns in the subject of a sentence. Subject pronouns:

I you he she it we they

I like to learn about astronomy.

We study astronomy in science.

Object pronouns follow an action verb or a word such as for, at, of, with or to. Object pronouns:

me you him her it us them

Kelly questioned him about the planets.

She likes gazing at the stars but not studying them.

Subject and Object Pronouns

Read the information and trace the important words.

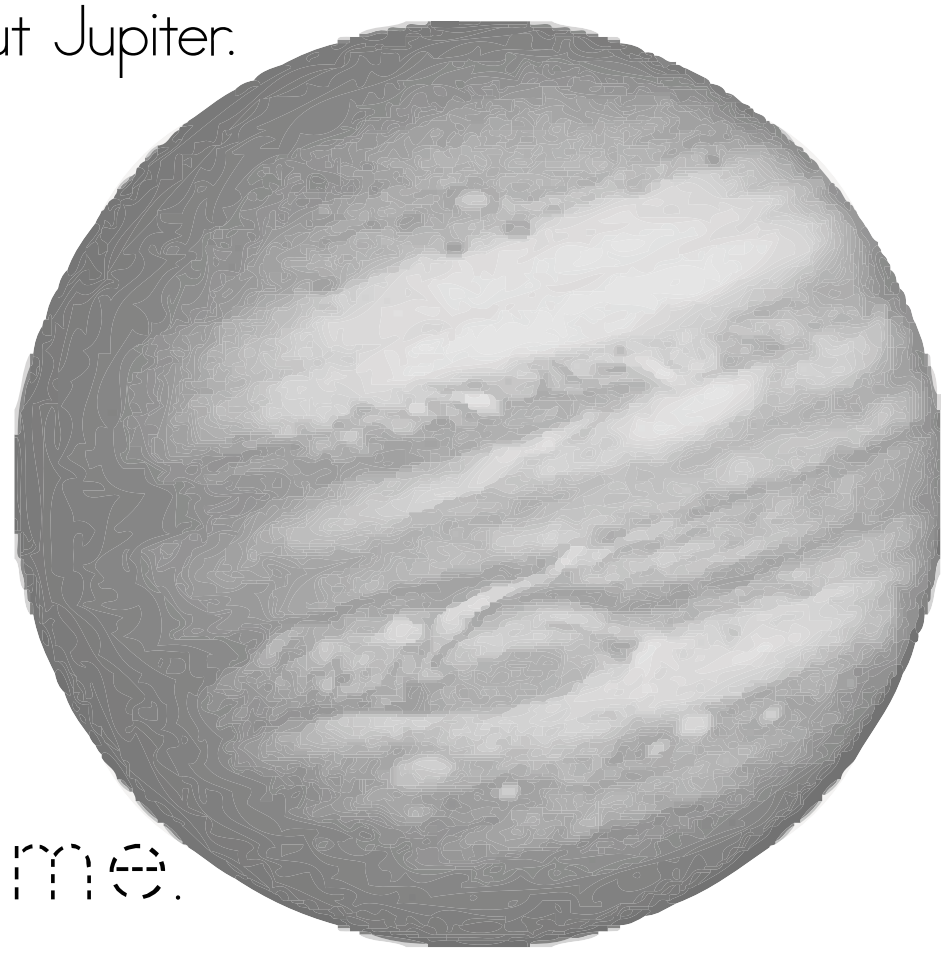
Subject Pronouns:

It is the largest planet in the galaxy.

She taught our class about Jupiter.

We like Jupiter the most.

I watch as Jupiter shines.



Object Pronouns:

My teacher read a book with me.

She gave us some Jupiter pictures to color.

We can show you all of them.

Julie's parents took her to the observatory.

Subject and Object Pronouns

The verbs are underlined for you. Trace the pronoun.

Do _____ want to see more? you your

The pictures _____ saw charmed Sheri. she her

We can draw _____ a picture. him he

_____ think Brett is going to become an astronomer. I me

Brent said, "Observing the sky taught _____ the most." us me

Subject and Object Pronouns

Choose the correct word and fill in the blank.

Do _____ want to see more? you your

The pictures _____ saw charmed Sheri. she her

We can draw _____ a picture. him he

_____ think Brett is going to become an astronomer. I me

Brent said, "Observing the sky taught _____ the most." us me

Subject and Object Pronouns Answers

Subject and Object Pronouns

Find your way through our galaxy, the "Milky Way."

(Mrs. Gleaton's, Mrs. Gleatons) class was studying space. (She, Her) wanted the students to make a mobile with all the planets on (it, its). (Josh's, Joshs') favorite planet was Jupiter, so (he, him) decided to make it. Maggie wanted to draw (Mars, mars) because (she, her) was sure she could put some Martians on it. Lane told her that aliens were not real. This caused (them, they) to start a debate about aliens. The (teacher, Teacher) settled the disagreement by letting them do a paper about (Roswell, roswell), New Mexico. This is a place where aliens supposedly crashed. The (students, student's) became so excited that (they, them) could hardly wait to get started.

Noun Review

Read the story and circle the correct noun or pronoun for each blank.

(Mrs. Gleaton's, Mrs. Gleatons) class was studying space. (She, Her) wanted the students to make a mobile with all the planets on (it, its). (Josh's, Joshs') favorite planet was Jupiter, so (he, him) decided to make it. Maggie wanted to draw (Mars, mars) because (she, her) was sure she could put some Martians on it. Lane told her that aliens were not real. This caused (them, they) to start a debate about aliens. The (teacher, Teacher) settled the disagreement by letting them do a paper about (Roswell, roswell), New Mexico. This is a place where aliens supposedly crashed. The (students, student's) became so excited that (they, them) could hardly wait to get started.

Noun Review

Figure out who has what.

This page intentionally left blank for creative use.

This page intentionally left blank for creative use.