- Verbs tell what the subject of the sentence does, did or will do.
- The tense tells the time: past, present or future.
- Present tense verbs tell what is happening right now .

The team plays baseball.

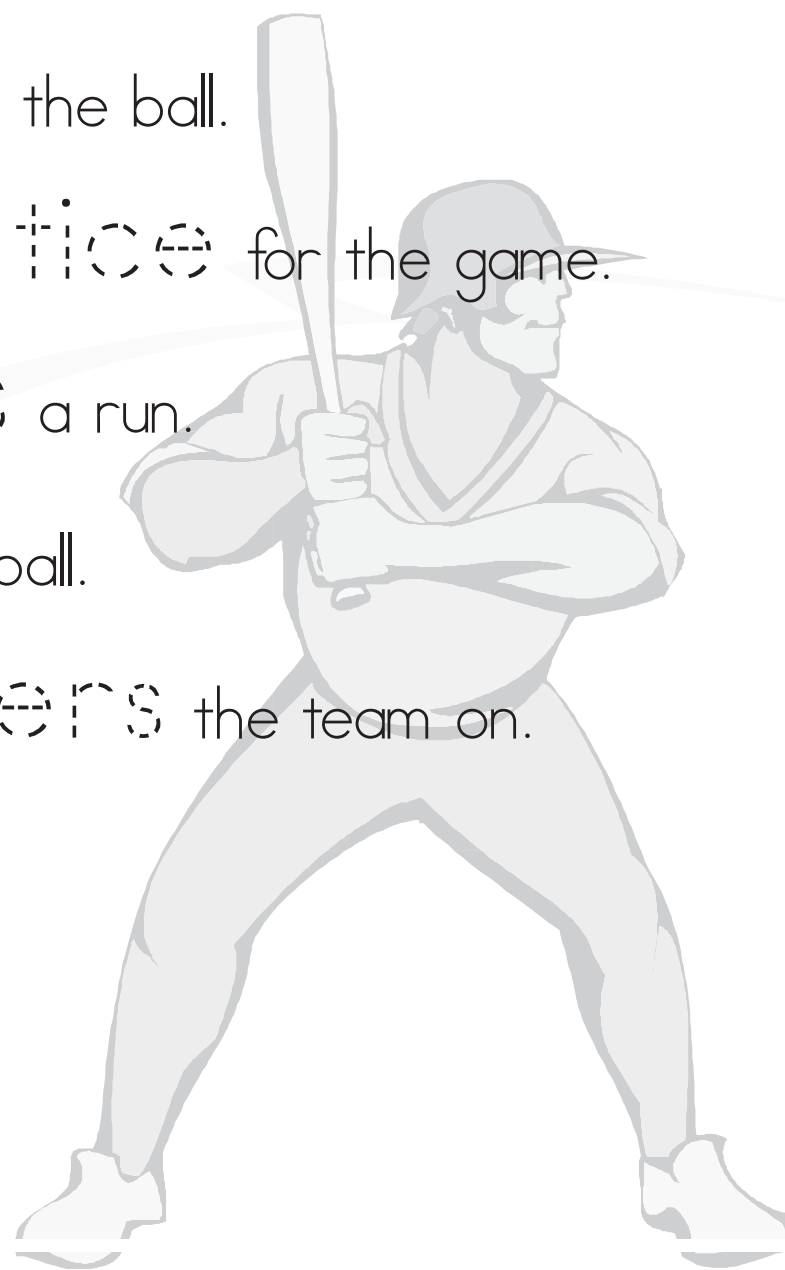
She throws the ball.

The kids practice for the game.

Julie scores a run.

He hits a foul ball.

Everyone cheers the team on.



Verbs: Present Tense

Read and trace the dotted words.

- Verbs tell what the subject of the sentence does, did or will do.
- Present tense verbs tell what is happening right now.

He _____ today. pitching pitches

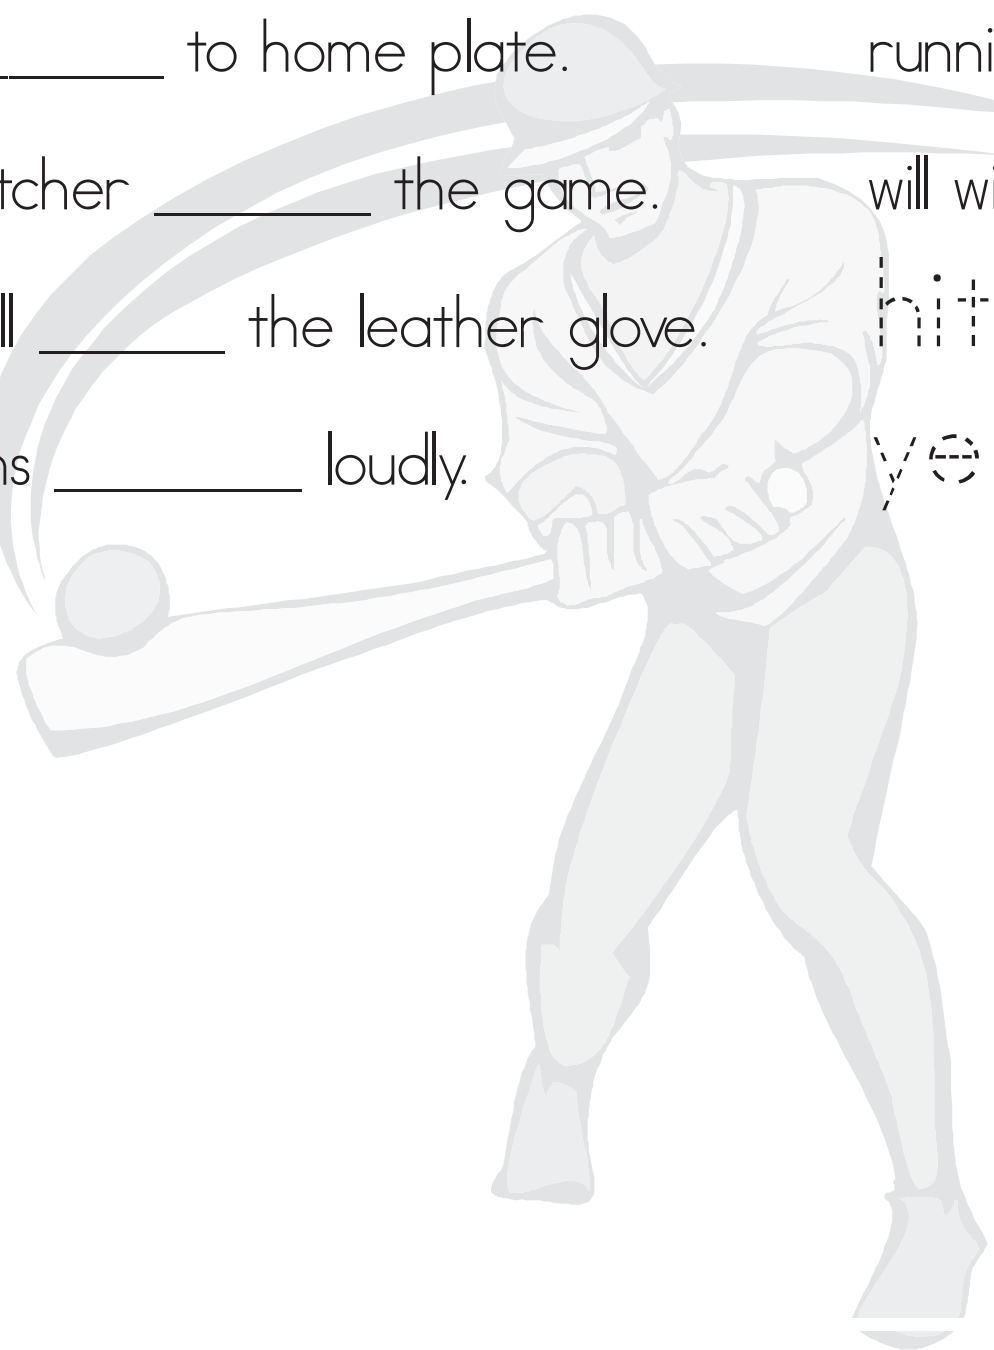
The baseball _____ through the air. flies flew

He _____ to home plate. running runs

The catcher _____ the game. will win wins

The ball _____ the leather glove. hits hitting

The fans _____ loudly. yell yelled



Verbs: Present Tense

Trace the correct verb to complete the sentence.

The boys _____ around the bases.

run running

The ball _____ through the air.

flew flies

The crowd _____ the team to victory.

cheers cheered

The first baseman _____ the ball.

caught catches

The umpire _____ "He's out!"

shouted shouts

The home team _____ the game.

wins won

Verbs: Present Tense

Circle the correct present tense verb.
Write the verb in the blank.

The boys _____ around the bases.

run running

The ball _____ through the air.

flew flies

The crowd _____ the team to victory.

cheers cheered

The first baseman _____ the ball.

caught catches

The umpire _____ "He's out!"

shouted shouts

The home team _____ the game.

wins won

Verbs: Present Tense

Answers

dsrxoe

_____

rtasos

_____

aekynse

_____

edgdosr

_____

orcksei

_____

egnrras

_____

dcianaslr

_____

heixtosw

_____

rmenaisr

_____

atgnsi

_____

Word Bank

Dodgers	Astros	Rockies	Rangers
Mariners	Giants	Yankees
Cardinals	White Sox	Red Sox

Verbs: Present Tense

Unscramble the professional baseball team names.

- Past Tense verbs tell about what has already happened.
- To change a regular verb to past tense, add ed to the end.
- Sometimes the spelling of the verb changes:
  verbs that end in e – drop the e before adding ed verbs that end with a short vowel and consonant – double the final letter before adding ed verbs that end with a consonant and y – change the y to i before

The team played a soccer game yesterday.

The goalie stopped four kicks.

Kaegan scored two points.

All the players kicked the ball.

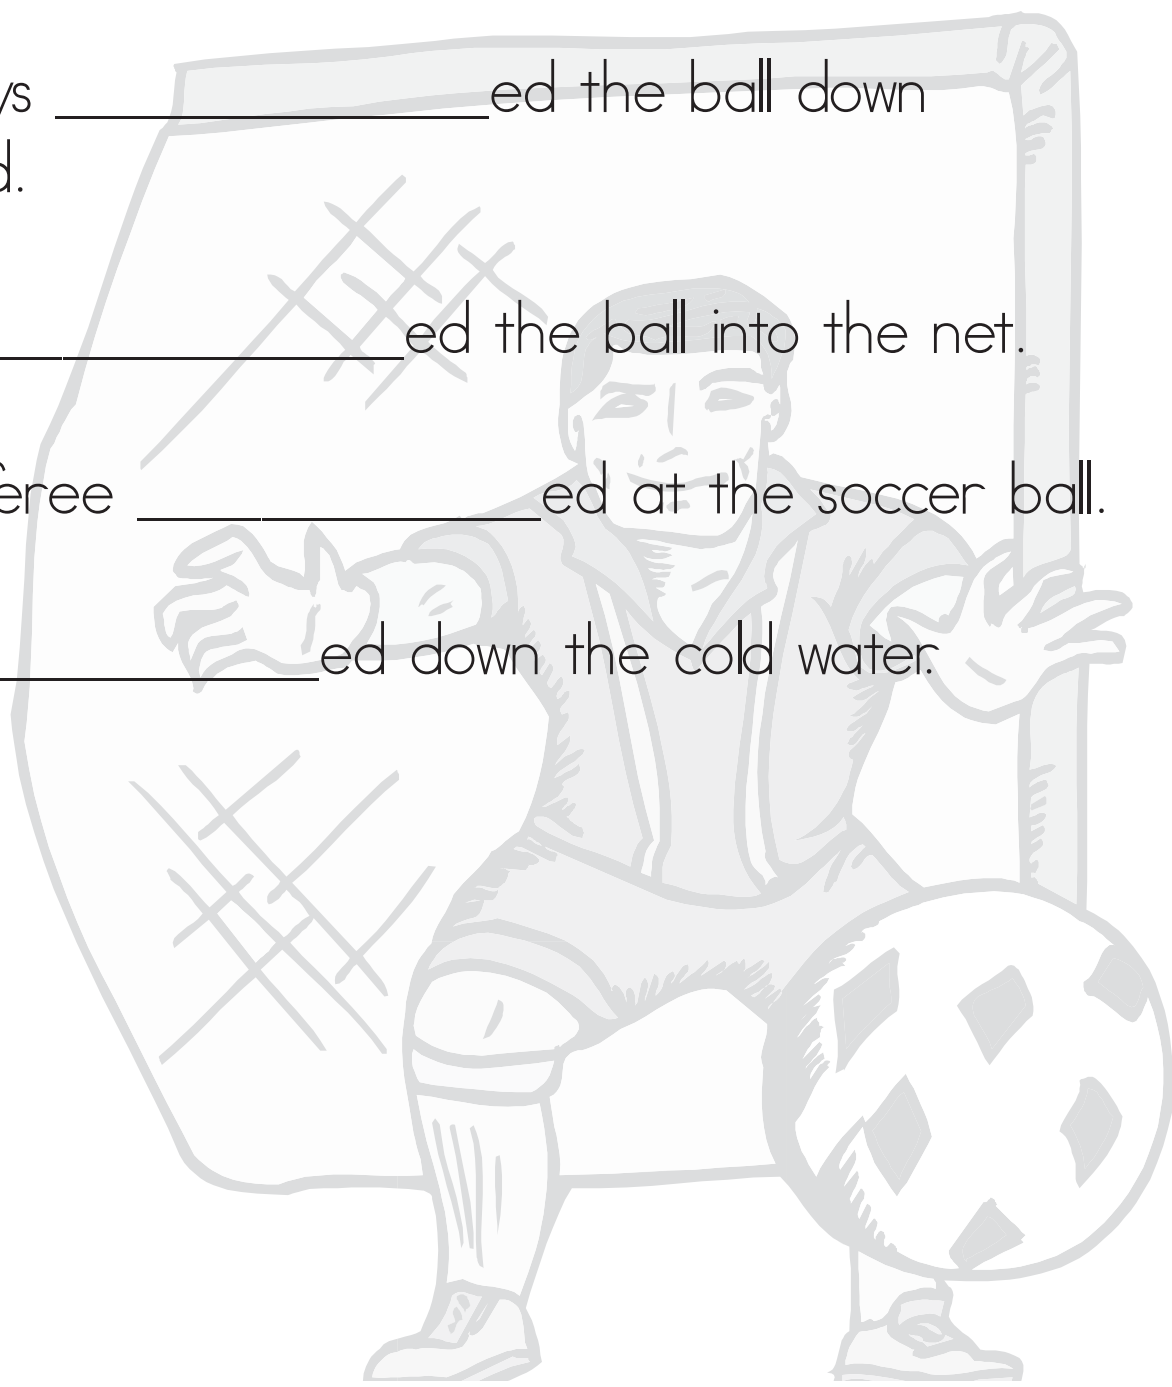
He bounced the ball off his head.

Verbs: Present Tense

Read and trace the dotted words.

- Past Tense verbs tell about what has already happened.
- To change a regular verb to past tense, add ed to the end.

Example: She fouled the ball.	foul
Both teams _____ed hard.	play
The boys _____ed the ball down the field.	push
Sydney _____ed the ball into the net.	kick
The referee _____ed at the soccer ball.	look
They _____ed down the cold water.	gulp



Verbs: Past Tense

Write the verb on the line before the -ed suffix to make the verb past tense.

He _____ past the other players.

The team _____ five points.

Our goalie _____ all the balls.

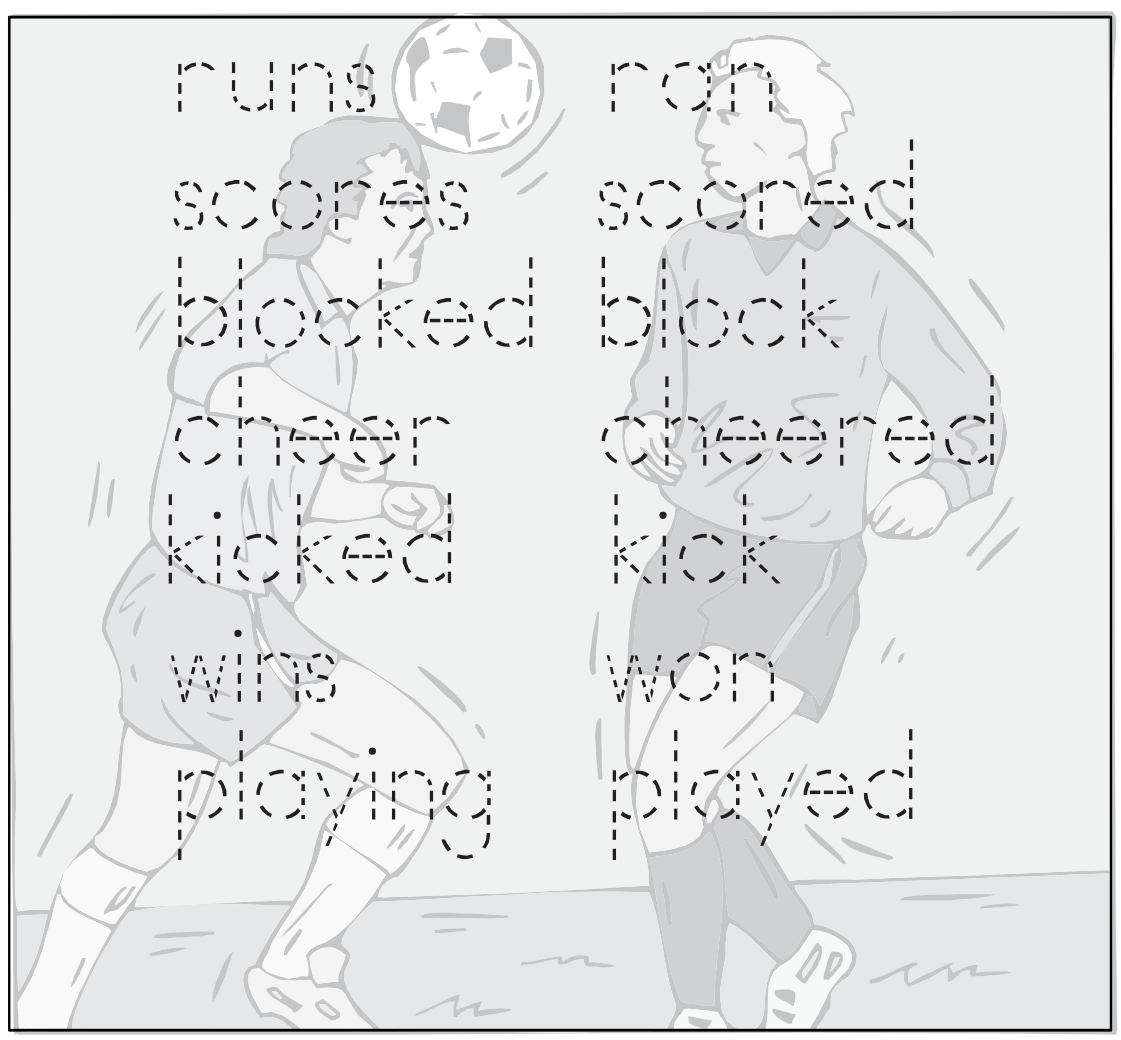
The parents _____ loudly.

Mitch _____ the ball into the air.

We _____ the game!

Our players _____ a good game.

Word Bank



Verbs: Past Tense

Trace the past tense verb and write it in the blank.

He _____ past the other players.
ran

The team _____ five points.
scored

Our goalie _____ all the balls.
blocked

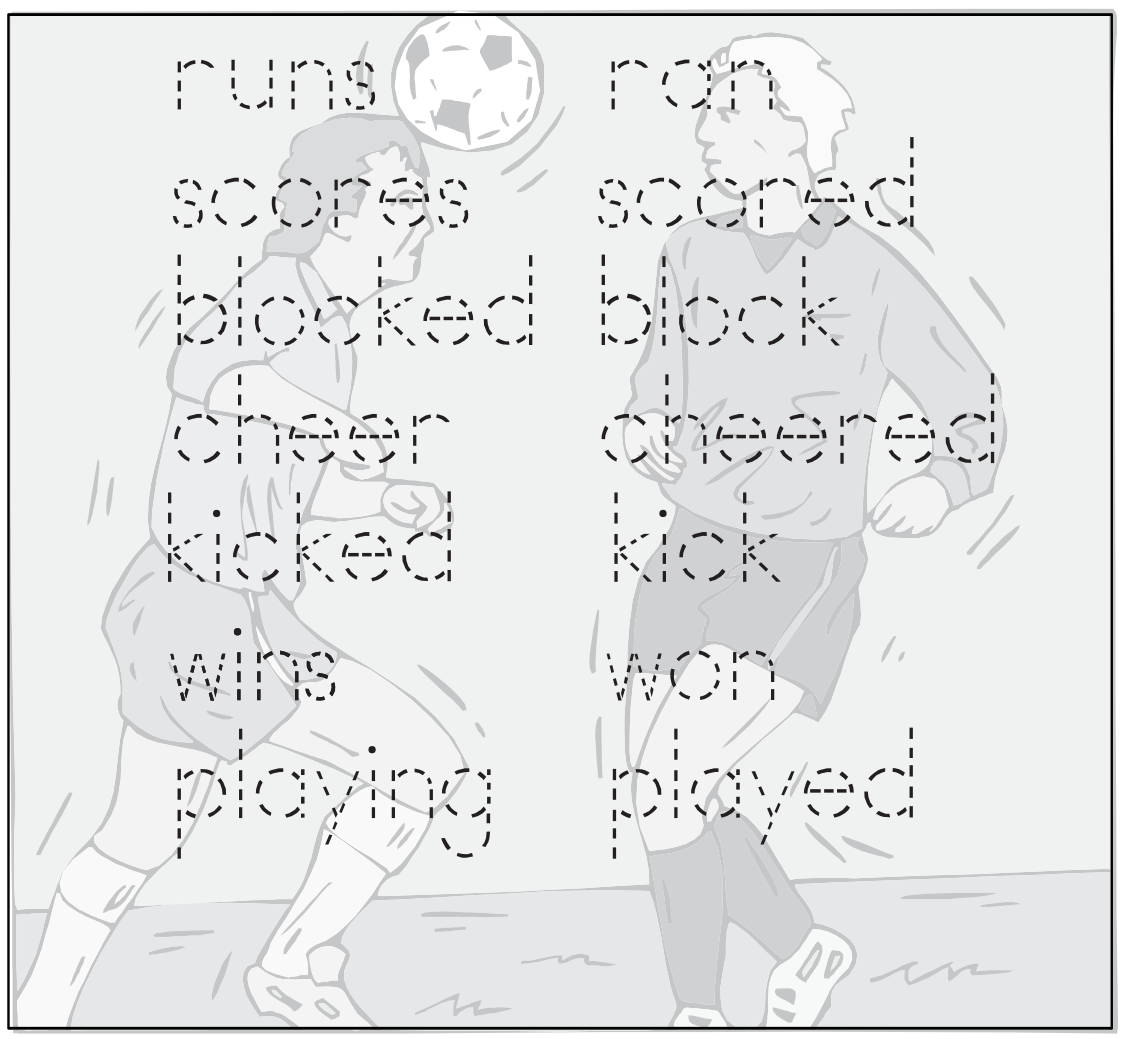
The parents _____ loudly.
cheered

Mitch _____ the ball into the air.
kicked

We _____ the game!
won

Our players _____ a good game.
played

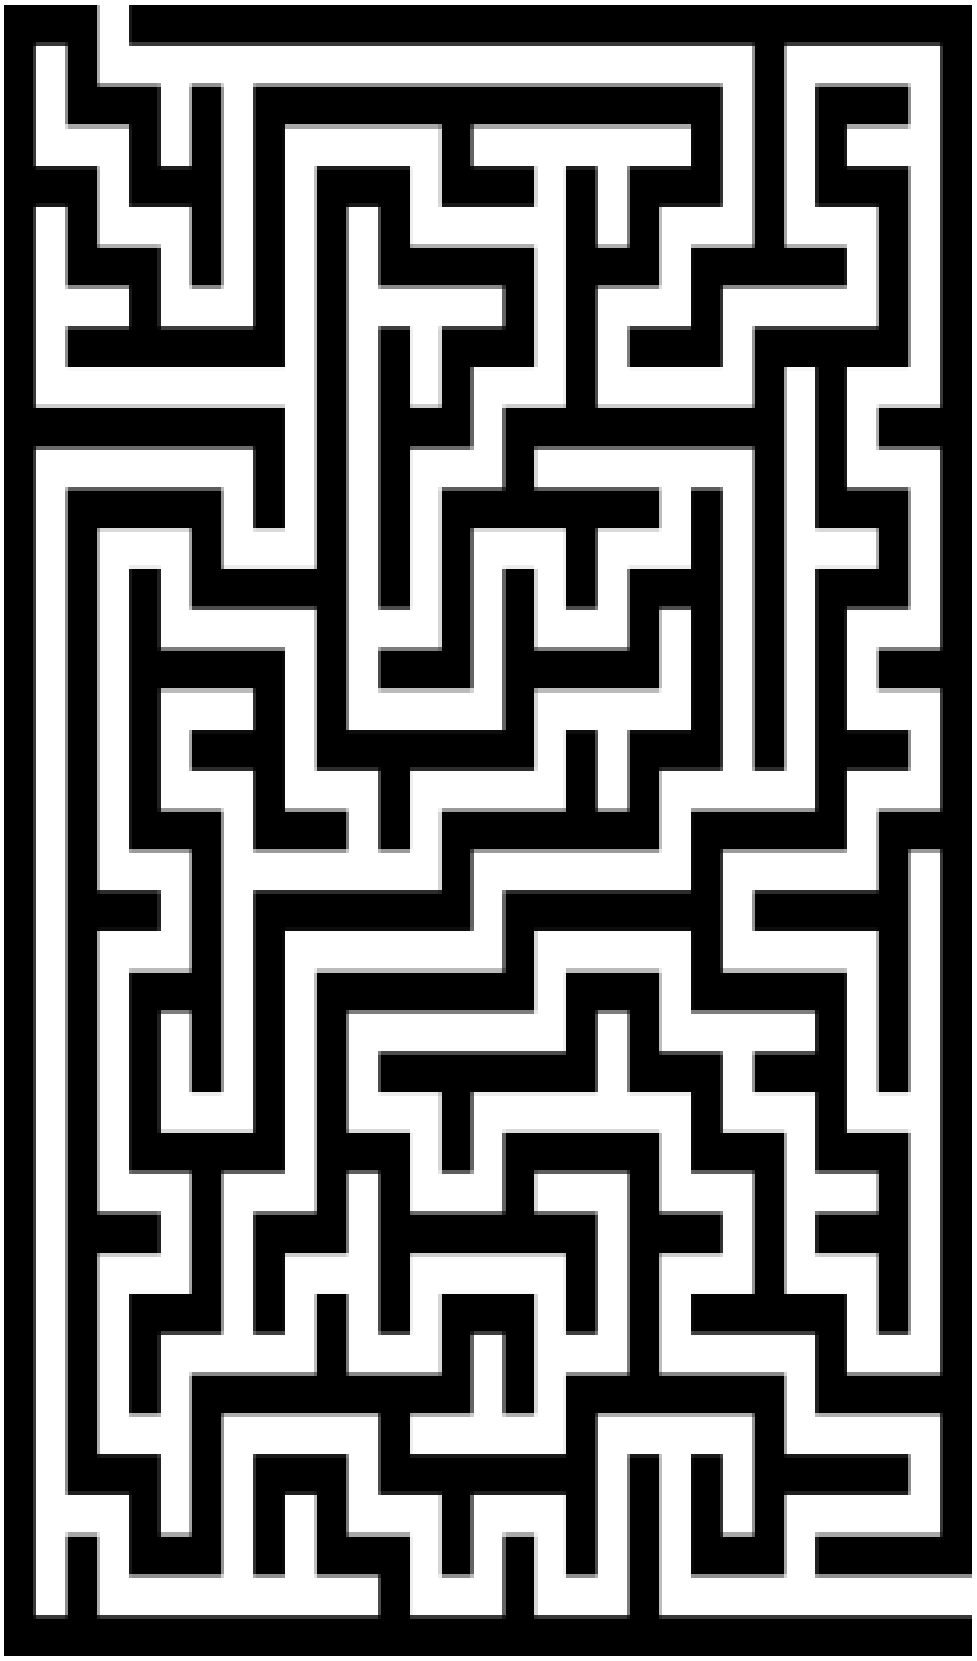
Word Bank



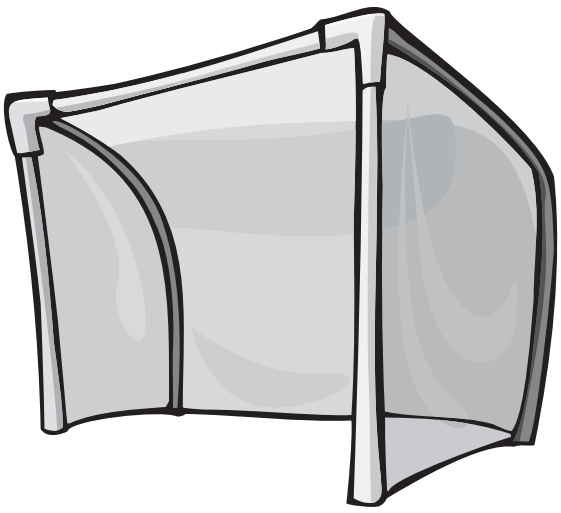
Verbs: Past Tense

Answers

Start



Finish



Verbs: Past Tense

Score a goal by getting the ball to the goal.

- Future Tense verbs tell about what will happen in the future.
- To create future tense verbs, use the helping verb will before the regular verb.

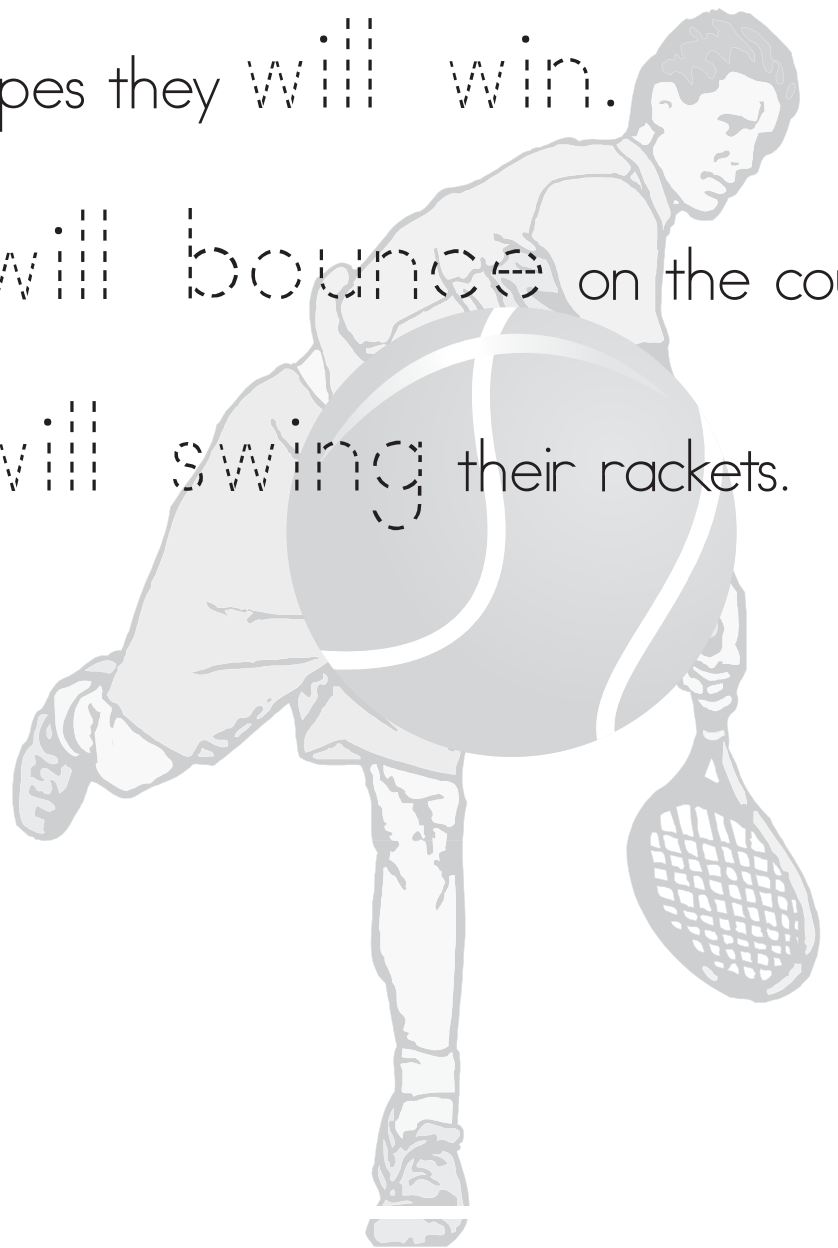
Brook and Sara will practice today.

They will play in a tennis match tomorrow.

Coach Burns hopes they will win.

The tennis balls will bounce on the court.

All the players will swing their rackets.



Verbs: Future Tense

Read and trace the dotted words.

- Future Tense verbs tell about what will happen in the future.
- To create future tense verbs, use the helping verb will before the regular verb.

The coaches will _____ for the game. prepare

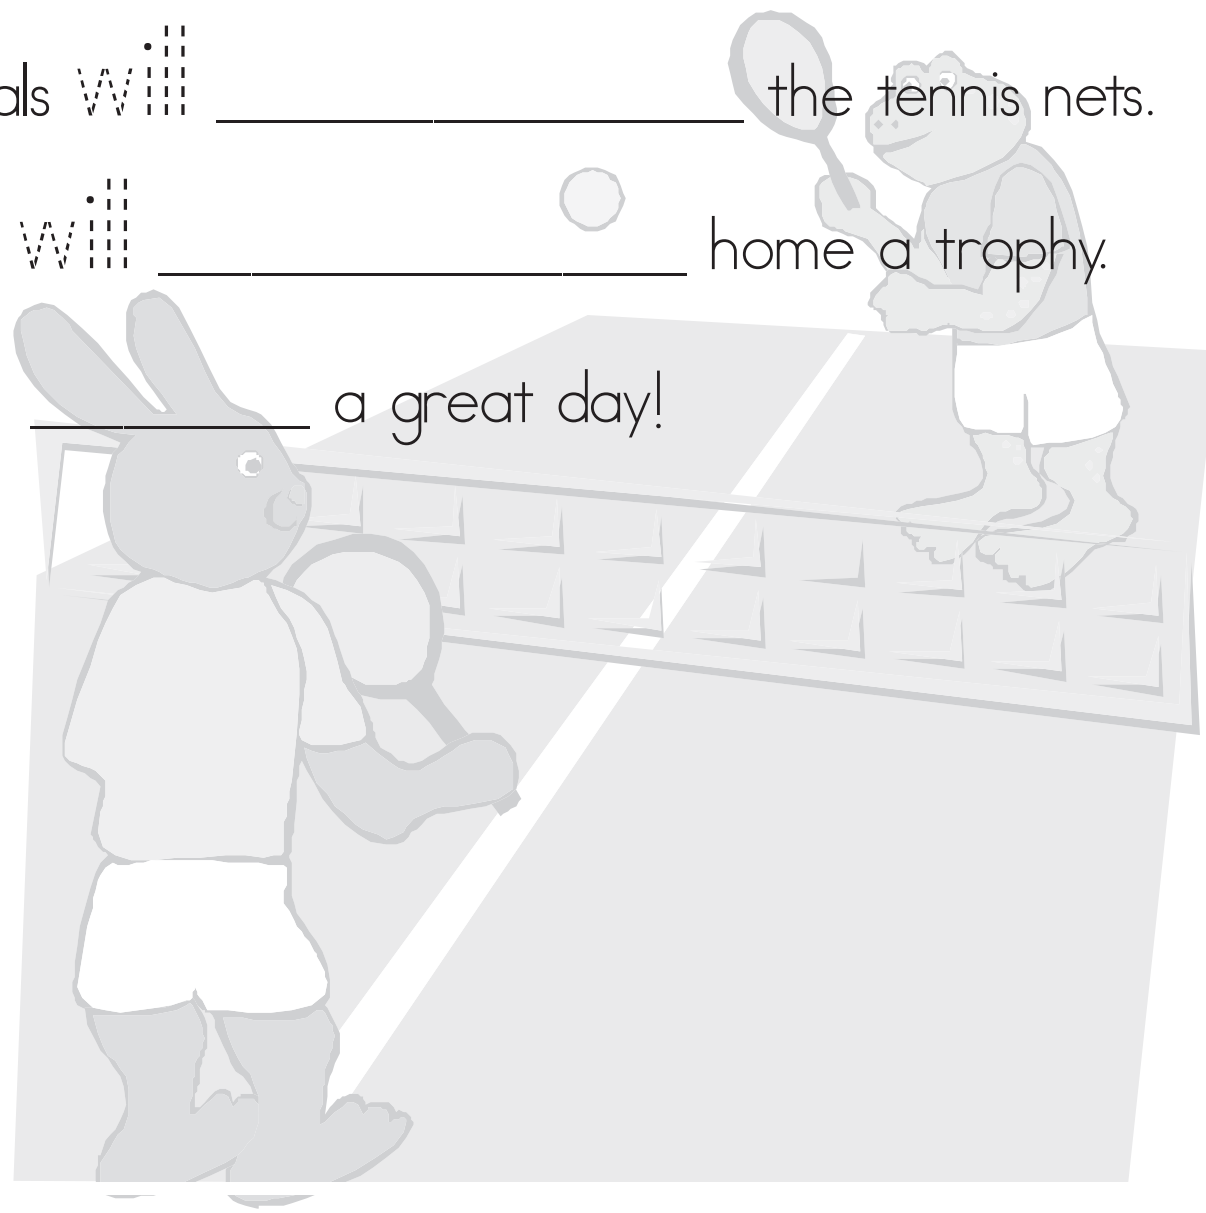
Sara will _____ the other matches. watch

Brook's parents will _____ the tournament. attend

The officials will _____ the tennis nets. check

Someone will _____ home a trophy. take

That will _____ a great day! be



Verbs: Future Tense

Read and trace the word will, then insert the verb into the blank.

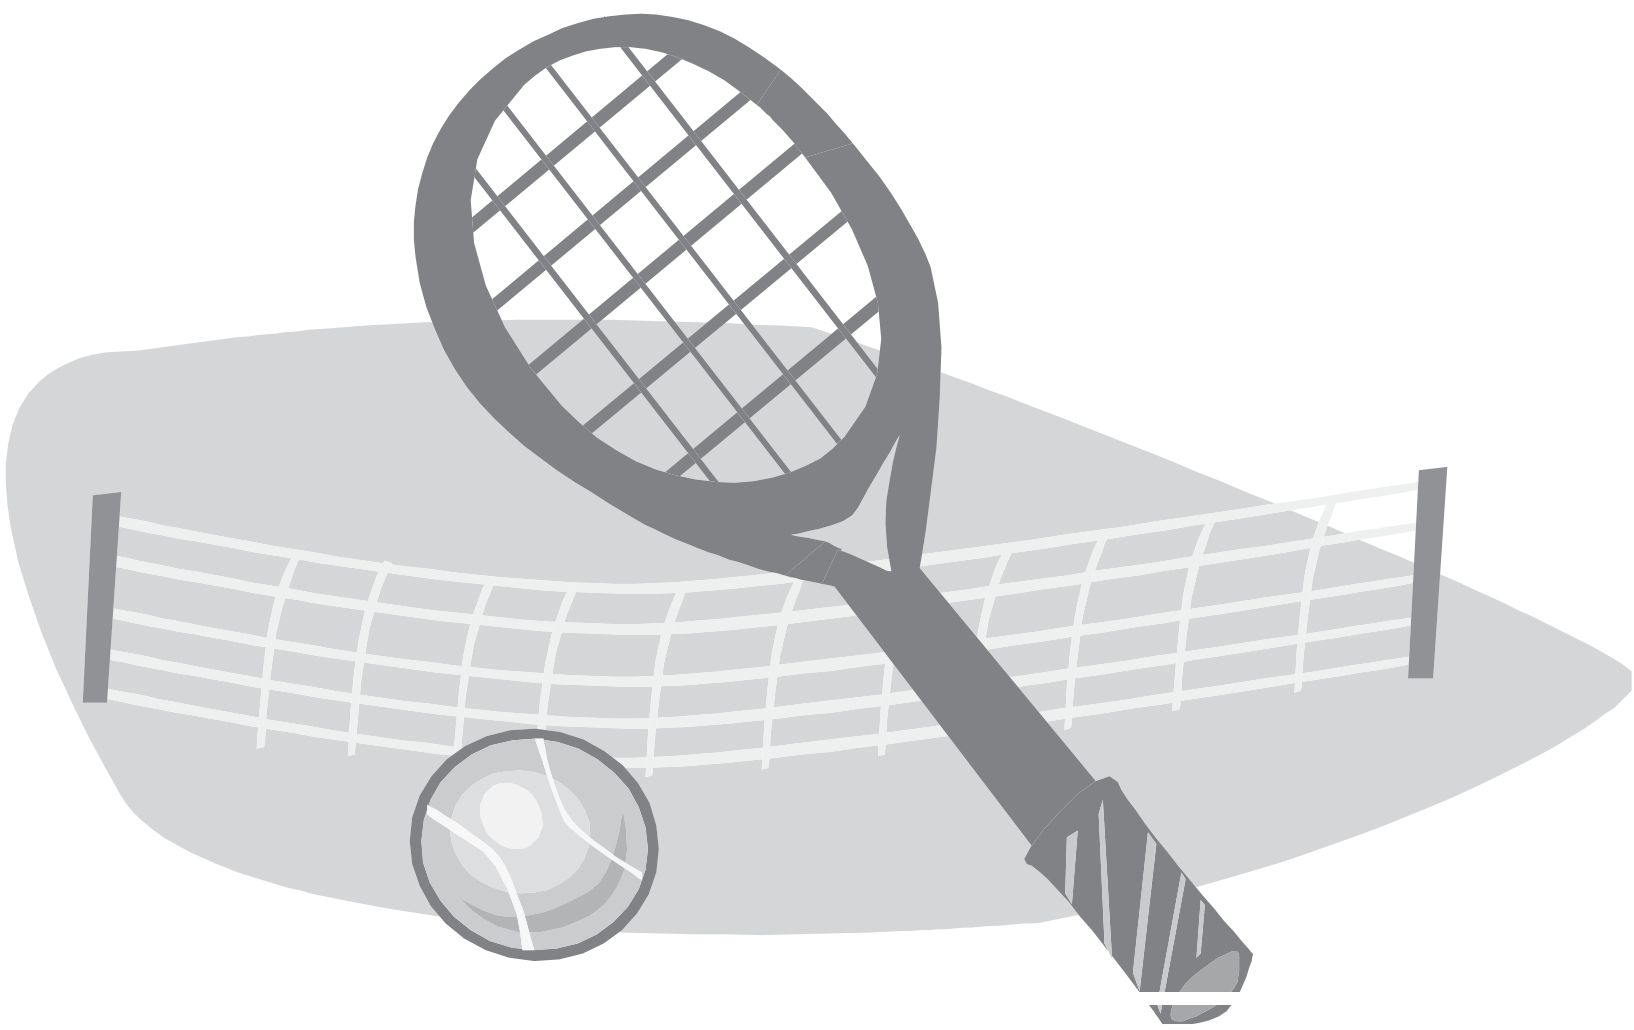
The game will _____ in a few minutes.	beginning	begin
Sara will _____ her racket.	swinged	swing
Her opponent will ___ towards the ball.	run	runs
One of the players will ____ a point.	score	scores
Now the ball will ____ towards Brook.	bounce	bounces
She will ___ the ball.	hitting	hit
The ball will ___ over the net.	flies	fly
It looks like the girls will _____!	win	winning



Verbs: Future Tense

Circle the future tense form of the verb to complete the sentence.

The game will _____ in a few minutes. beginning begin

Sara will _____ her racket. swinged swing

Her opponent will ___ towards the ball. run runs

One of the players will ____ a point. score scores

Now the ball will ____ towards Brook. bounce bounces

She will ___ the ball. hitting hit

The ball will ___ over the net. flies fly

It looks like the girls will _____! win winning

S	F	W	I	L	L	B	O	U	N	C	E	R	C	V
Y	P	D	H	J	F	L	H	N	G	R	C	D	A	C
A	O	F	L	E	S	O	L	C	L	D	G	E	T	H
L	I	L	S	S	W	C	K	L	D	S	H	H	C	C
P	E	I	T	A	O	K	H	H	F	A	X	S	H	T
D	D	E	U	F	R	E	D	C	R	B	H	U	E	A
F	S	S	O	G	H	D	F	E	E	N	J	P	S	W
G	C	G	H	E	T	E	C	O	E	H	T	L	F	L
R	O	L	S	R	E	K	V	H	G	F	R	E	R	L
T	R	K	J	T	W	C	B	S	E	E	Y	F	T	I
G	E	W	H	Y	I	I	N	J	W	E	U	G	Y	W
U	D	I	D	G	L	K	E	L	S	C	R	T	G	G
L	L	L	R	K	L	E	Q	H	A	V	E	E	L	H
P	K	L	O	L	S	P	S	G	C	B	C	L	D	J
E	R	H	P	P	W	I	L	L	W	I	N	O	L	C
D	T	I	P	O	I	N	L	Y	C	N	V	D	G	B
C	Y	T	E	R	N	M	J	I	B	D	B	F	H	N
V	U	E	D	C	G	E	H	M	N	S	L	P	T	A

Word Bank

plays	cheers	kicked	will bounce	will win
throws	shouts	pushed	will swing	will hit
flies	scared	dropped	will practice
catches	blocked	gulped	will watch

Verbs: Future Tense

Complete the Word Search.

- Irregular verbs change to past tense by using a different form of the main verb.
- An irregular verb does not use ed on the end.

Irregular Verb	Past Tense
see	saw
know	knew
think	thought
wear	wore
break	broke
throw	threw
does	did
give	gave fall	fell
bring	brought
begin	began

Verbs: Irregular

Trace examples of irregular verbs.

- Irregular verbs change to past tense by using a different form of the main verb.
- An irregular verb does not use ed on the end.

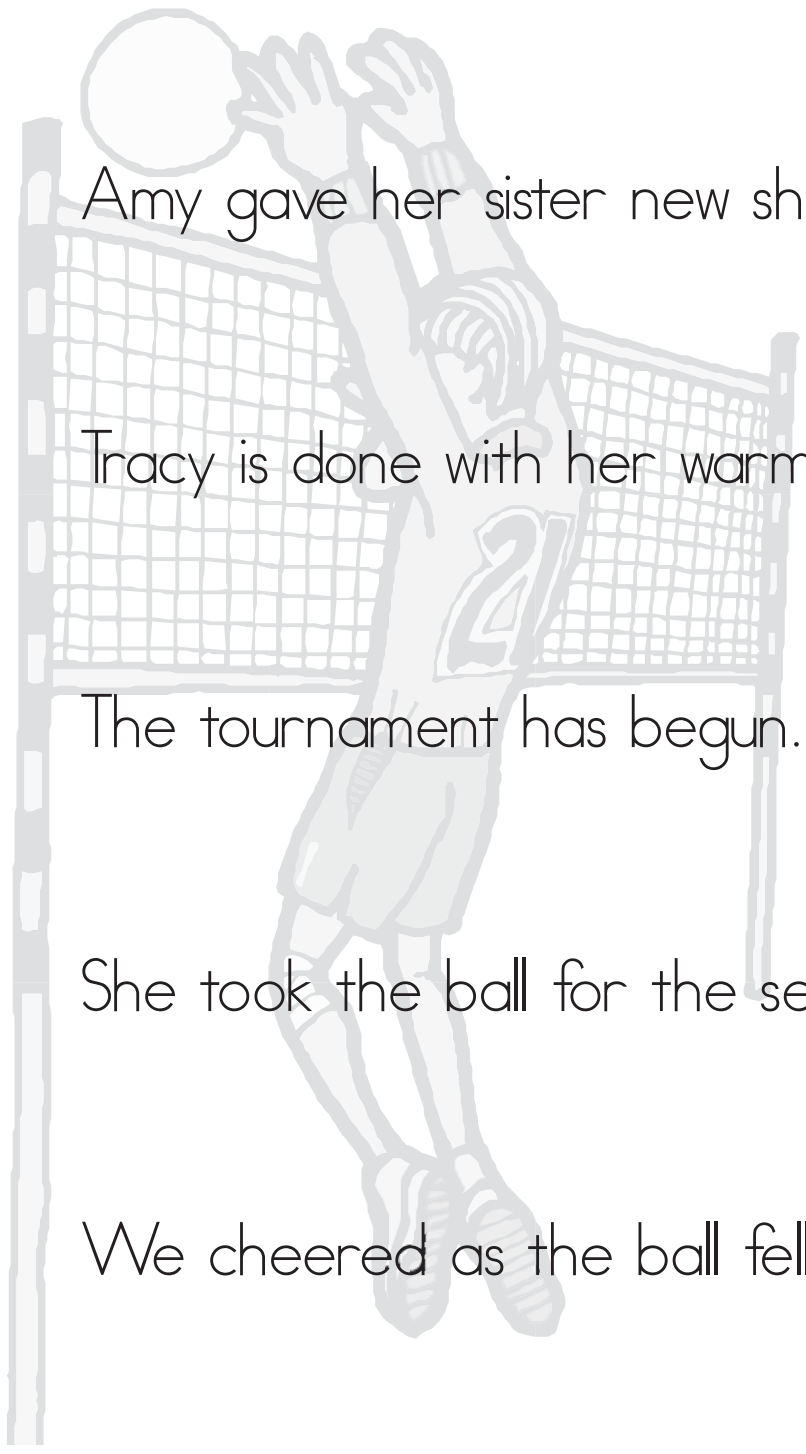
Verb	Past Tense Irregular Verb
give	Amy gave her sister new shoes.
does	Tracy is done with her warm-up.
begin	The tournament has begun.
take	She took the ball for the serve.
fall	We cheered as the ball fell to the floor.



Trace verb and circle the past tense irregular form of the verb.

- Irregular verbs change to past tense by using a different form of the main verb.
- An irregular verb does not use ed on the end.

We (knew, know) what was next.

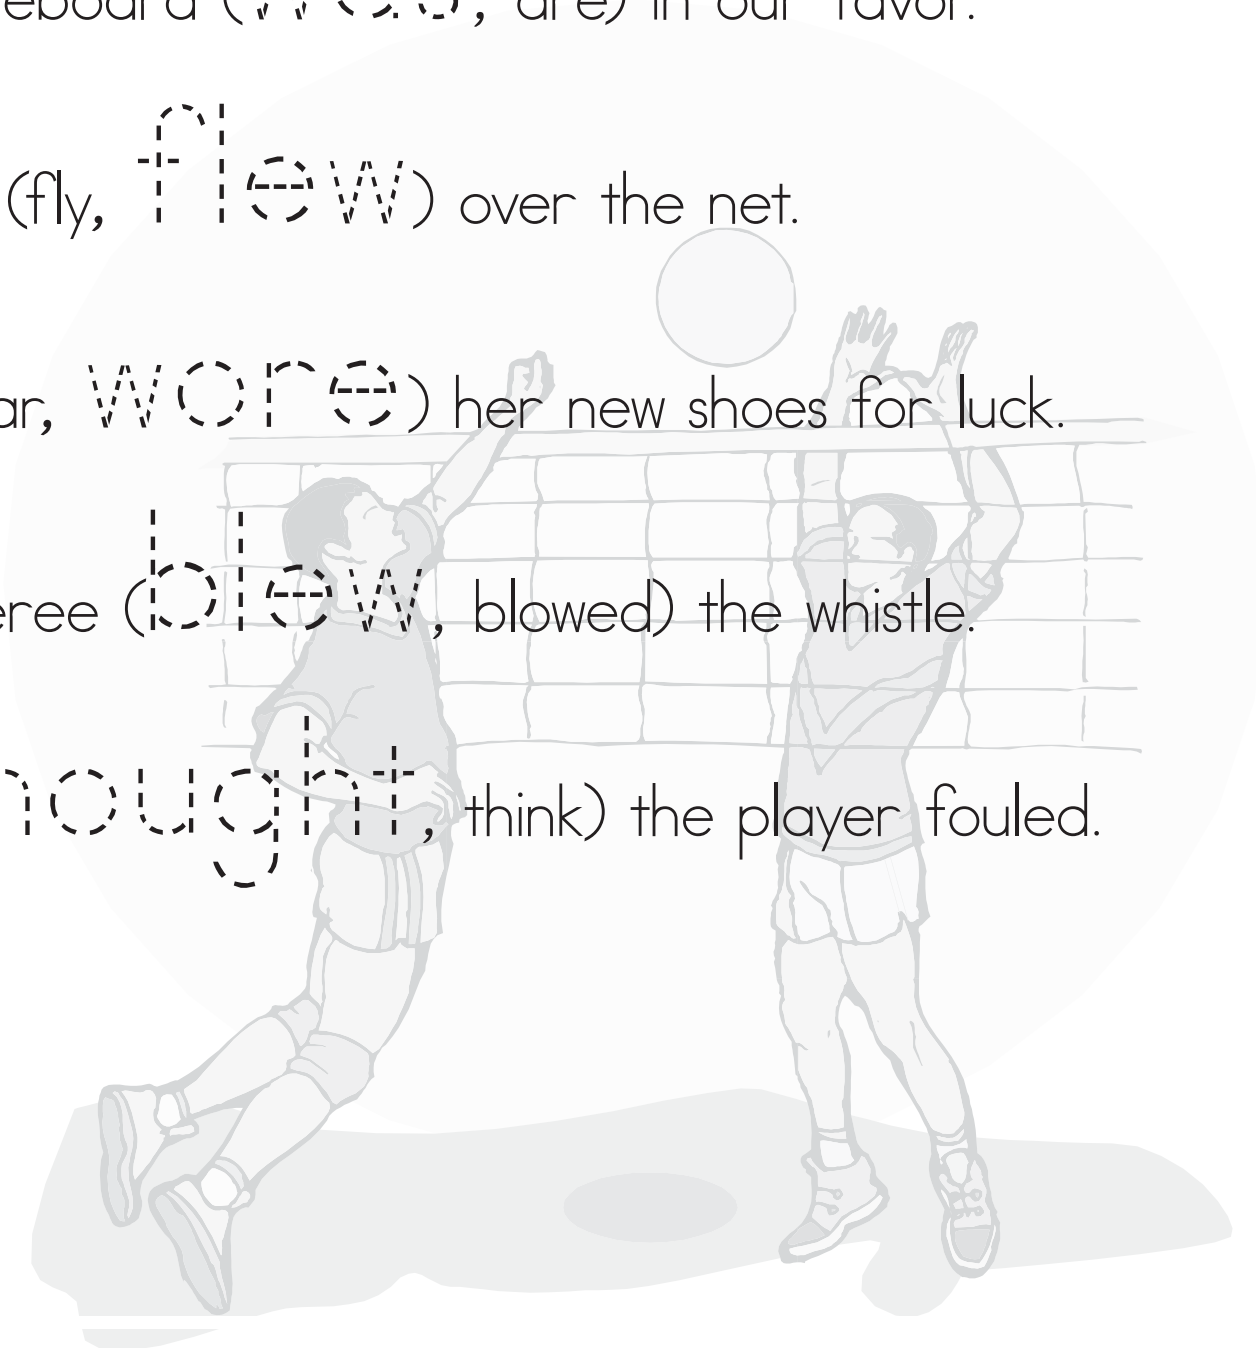
The scoreboard (was, are) in our favor.

The ball (fly, flew) over the net.

She (wear, wore) her new shoes for luck.

The referee (blew, blowed) the whistle.

She (thought, think) the player fouled.



Verbs: Irregular

Trace the correct form of the past tense verb.

My teammates have _____ to arrive.
begin

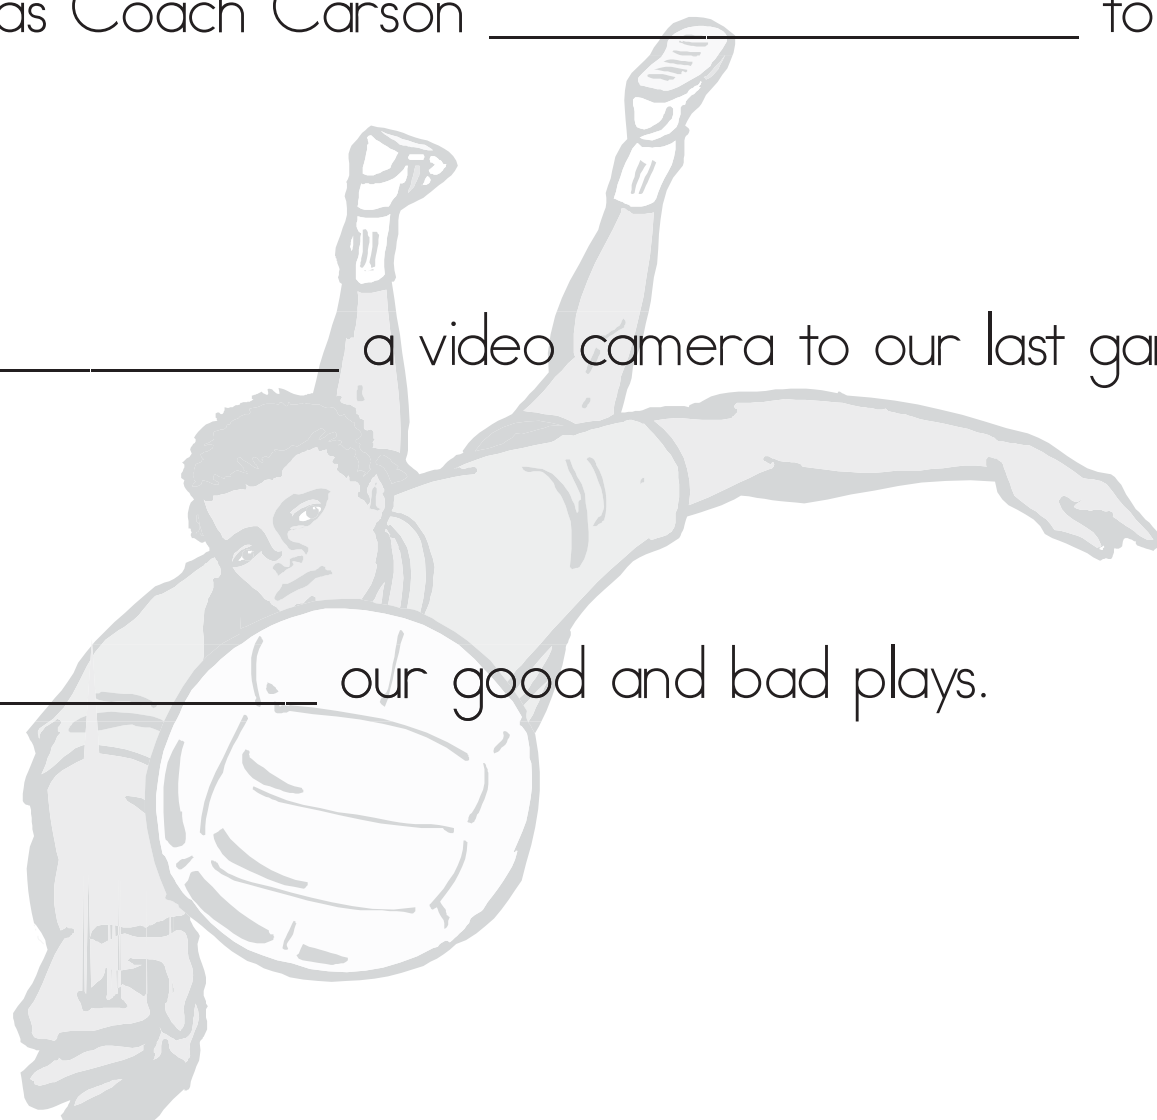
Gretchen _____ she was late for practice.
think

Coach Carson _____ the volleyball net.
hang

We gathered as Coach Carson _____ to us.
speak

She _____ a video camera to our last game.
take

We _____ our good and bad plays.
see



Verbs: Irregular

Write the correct past tense verb in the blank.

My teammates have _____ to arrive.
begin begun

Gretchen _____ she was late for practice.
think thought

Coach Carson _____ the volleyball net.
hang hung

We gathered as Coach Carson _____ to us.
speak spoke

She _____ a video camera to our last game.
take took

We _____ our good and bad plays.
see saw

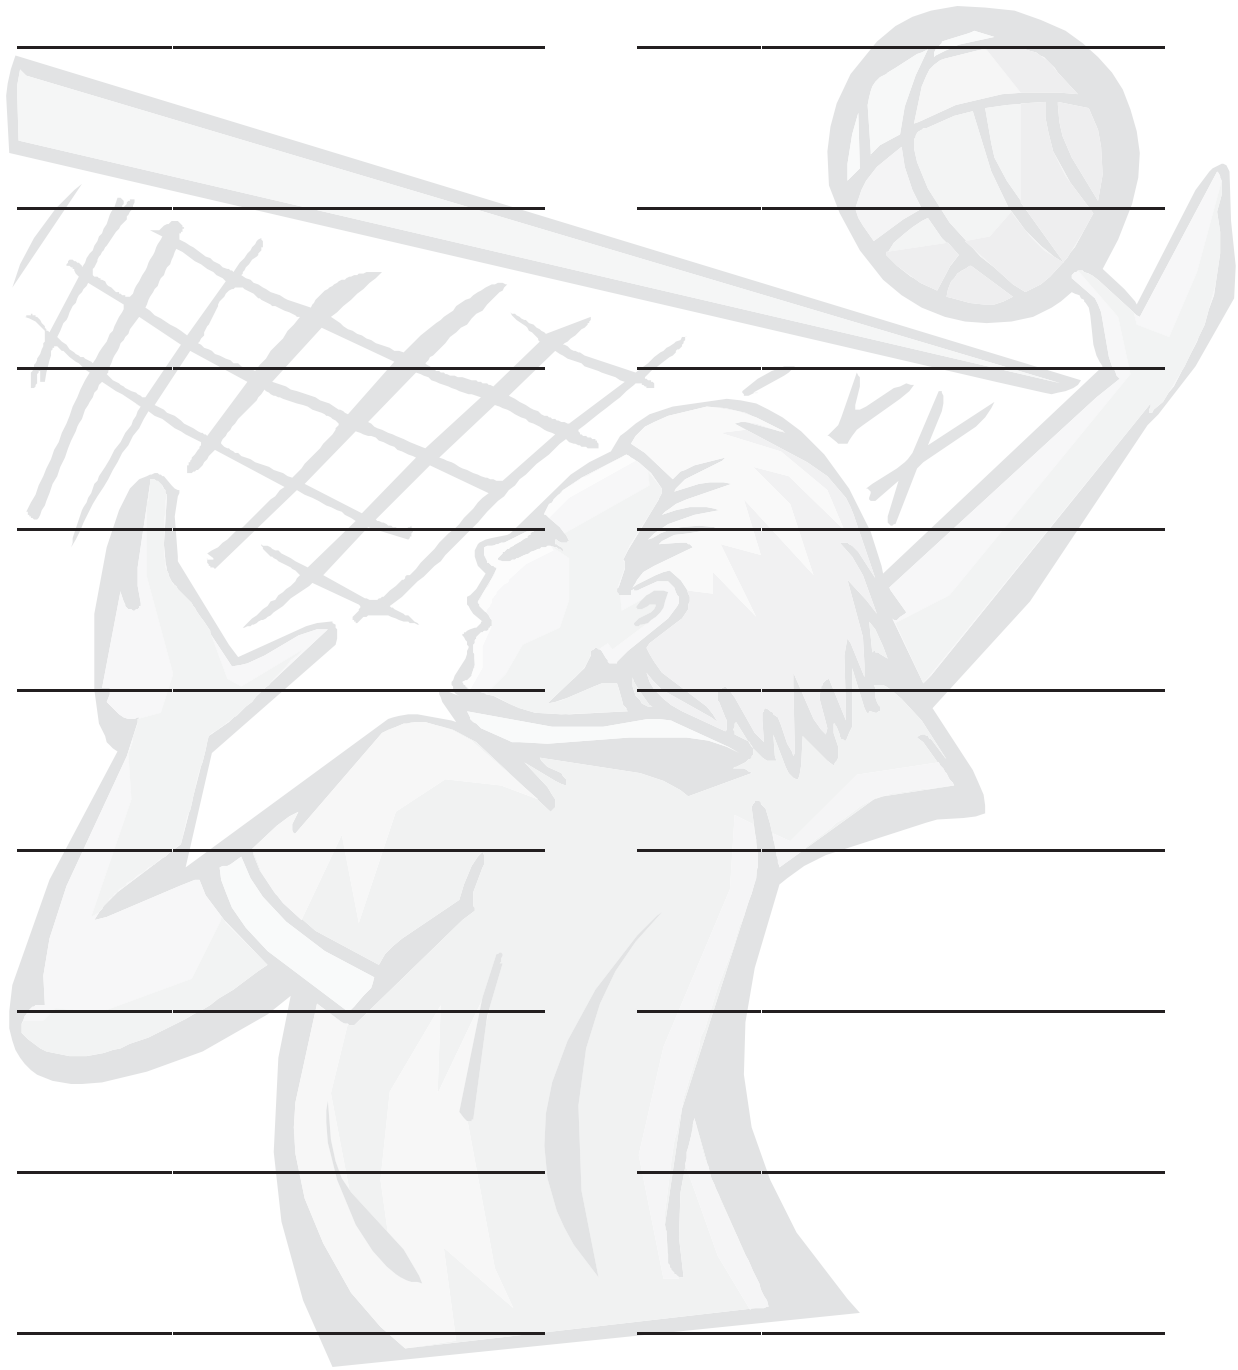
Volleyball Player



Circle all the verbs.

Verbs: Irregular

How many words can you make by using the letters above?

- Linking verbs connect the subject to a noun or adjective in the predicate.

  The player had the basketball. had is the linking verb

- Helping verbs help the verb tell more about the action. It comes before the main verb.

  All the players are practicing. the helping verb is are

Linking Verbs: Trace the verb and the arrow showing the connection.

Toby is a good player.

The basketball was orange.

Helping Verbs: Trace the helping verb and the circle around the main verb.

Trish is shooting hoops.

The opponent has passed the ball.

Verbs: Linking and Helping

Read and trace the dotted lines.

- Linking verbs connect the subject to a noun or adjective in the predicate.
- Helping verbs help the verb tell more about the action. It comes before the main verb.

Linking Verbs: The subject is circled. Trace the verb and connect the subject to the predicate.

Our coach was excited.

The Panthers are tough players.

Basketball is lots of fun.

Helping verbs: Trace the helping verb and circle the main verb.

One team will discover victory.

The players can make clean passes.

Joey and Carson are hoping for a shot.

Linking Verbs: Circle the subject and draw an arrow to the noun or adjective. Underline the verb.

The free throw looks good.

Tracy seems tired.

Our day was very busy.

I am exhausted too.

Helping Verbs: Put a helping verb in front of the action verb. Trace the action verb.

All the teams _____ played well.

The basketball _____ bouncing on the court.

Carrie _____ drop the ball.

We _____ win the game.

Word Bank

should	have
might	was

Linking Verbs: Circle the subject and draw an arrow to the noun or adjective. Underline the verb.

The free throw looks good.

Tracy seems tired.

Our day was very busy.

I am exhausted too.

Helping Verbs: Put a helping verb in front of the action verb. Trace the action verb.

All the teams _____ have play well.

The basketball _____ was bouncing on the court.

Carrie _____ might drop the ball.

We _____ should win the game.

Word Bank

should	have
might	was

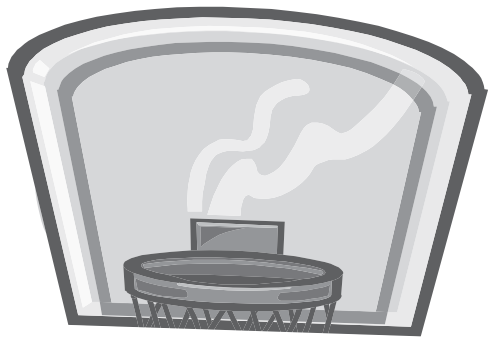
1. Draw a net on the basketball goal.
2. Draw a pole for the basketball goal.
3. Give the player a number on his jersey,
4. Draw a ball bouncing under the player's hand.
5. Draw some shoes for the basketball player.
6. Draw a face on the player.
7. Put a team name on the banner on the wall.
8. Create another basketball player.



Verbs: Linking and Helping

Follow directions above to finish the picture.

- For a singular subject or a subject that only talks about one noun, use am, is or was.
- With a plural subject or a subject that talks about more than one, noun use are or were.
- The verb be is used in sentences that are commands.
- The words: am, is, was, are and were, are all forms of the verb be.

Trace the forms of be below. Read the sentences. Trace the form of the verb.

You are the star of the team.	you = singular
Gary is a great player too.	Gary = singular
My mom was a tennis player.	Mom = singular
All of the coaches are nice.	Coaches = plural
Our fans were very supportive.	Fans = plural
Be careful on the way home.	Be = command

Verbs: Forms of be

Read and trace the dotted words.

The football _____ passing through the goal.

They _____ playing on eight basketball courts.

You must _____ good to go pro.

I _____ going to watch the game.

Gary _____ a baseball coach.

His sons _____ going to coach also.

Franco and I _____ goalies last year.

The baseball _____ in the clouds.

Playing sports _____ so much fun.

Word Bank

am	is	was	are	were	be

Verbs: Forms of be

Insert the correct form of the verb be into each sentence.

The football _____ passing through the goal.
is or was

They _____ playing on eight basketball courts.
are or were

You must _____ good to go pro.
be

I _____ going to watch the game.
am or was

Gary _____ a baseball coach.
is or was

His sons _____ going to coach also.
are or were

Franco and I _____ goalies last year.
were

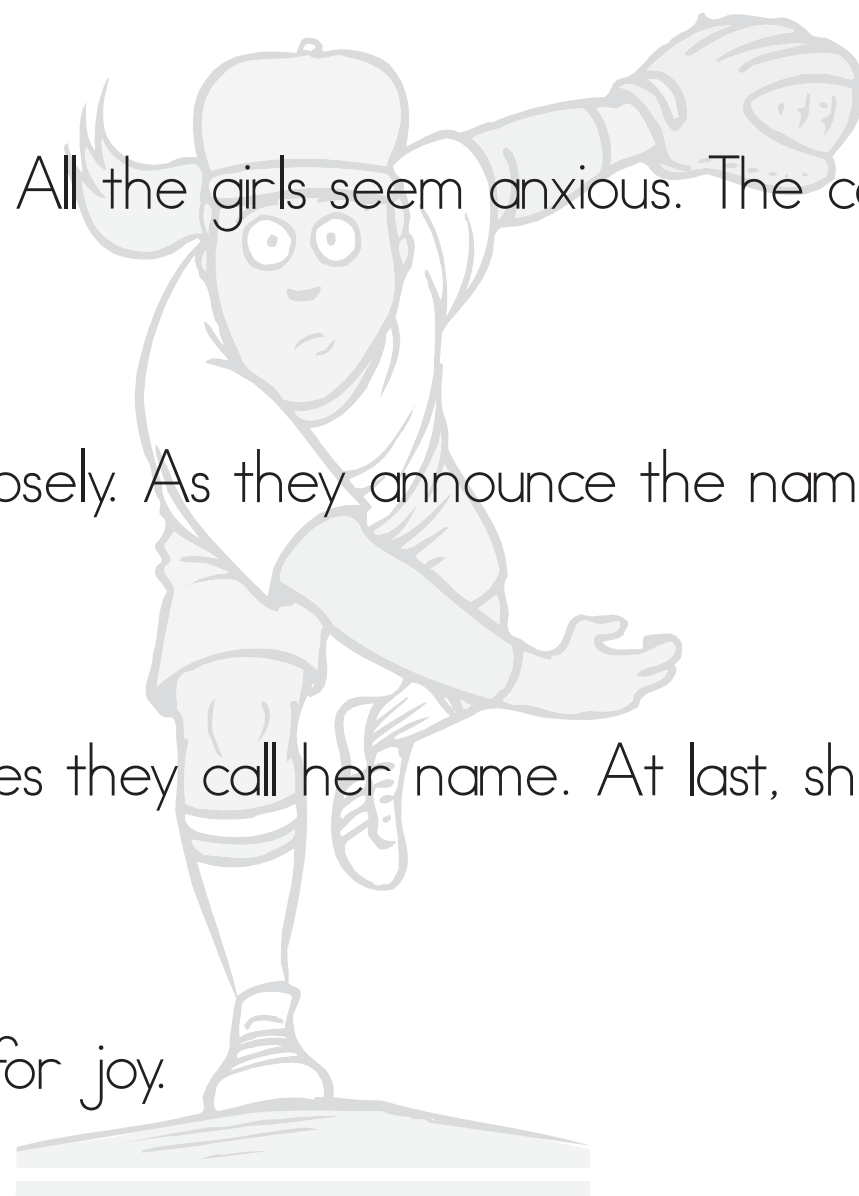
The baseball _____ in the clouds.
is or was

Playing sports _____ so much fun.
is or was

Word Bank

am	is	was	are	were	be

Shelby is a seventh grader. She would love to played softball with her friends. Tomorrow be her chance to try out. Shelby's dad have helped her practice. She is nervous about plays for the coaches. Shelby's mom encourages her to does her best. Finally, the big day arrives. All the girls seem anxious. The coaches watching the girls closely. As they announce the names of the players, Shelby hopes they call her name. At last, she hearing her name and jumped for joy.



Verbs: Review

Underline all the verbs. Find the wrong tense of the verbs and correct them.

Shelby is a seventh grader. She would love to ~~played~~ softball with play

her friends. Tomorrow ↑ be her chance to try out. Shelby's dad will ~~have helped~~ her practice. She is nervous about ~~plays~~ for the has playing coaches. Shelby's mom encourages her to ~~does~~ her best. Finally, do

the big day arrives. All the girls seem anxious. The coaches ~~watching~~ the girls closely. As they announce the names of the watch players, Shelby hopes they call her name. At last, she ~~hearing~~ her hears

name and ~~jumped~~ for joy.
jumps

Don’t forget to put your number and team name on your jersey.
Add some equipment to go with your sport of choice.

Verbs

Design your own jersey.

This page intentionally left blank for creative use.

This page intentionally left blank for creative use.