A fact is something you can prove or find out if it is true. Many facts are found in newspapers. You can also look up facts in a dictionary, encyclopedia, or on the Internet.

This statement is a fact: Baseball is played with a bat and ball.

An opinion is a statement about something you feel, think, or believe. It may not be what someone else thinks, believes, or feels, so it can't be a fact. Opinions can also be found in newspapers and on the Internet.

Hint-Words: If you see these words in an article, it may be a clue that it's an opinion: better, think, best, worst, feel, worse, always, believe, never, greatest, hardest

This statement is an opinion. Look for the underlined hint.

I think that football is much more fun than baseball.

Fact, Opinion Read and trace the key words.

A fact is something that you can prove.

Fact: There are two professional football teams in Texas.

Fact: The Houston Texans is one of these teams.

Fact: The Dallas Cowboys is the other team.

These statements are facts and can be proven.

Trace the facts in the newspaper article below.

Rival Teams Play

There are two professional football teams in Texas: the Dallas Cowboys and the Houston Texans. Both teams played great games on Sunday. Although the Cowboys played a good game, most people believed that the Houston Texans played a much better game. The score was 14-7 in favor of the Texans. There were 62,000 fans in attendance. Most of the fans said this was the best game ever played between the two rival teams. Many sportscasters agreed that the two teams played exceptionally well. The two teams will play again next year. Who will have bragging rights in the state of Texas next year? The fans all think it will be their favorite team.

encyclopedia, fact, newspaper, prove, Internet, dictionary

A f_____ is a statement that you can p_____.

You could look it up in a d_____, e_____, n_____, or the

I_____.

These sentences from the newspaper article on T-2 are facts.

They can be proved. Trace these sentences again.

There are two professional football teams in Texas: the Dallas Cowboys and the Houston Texans.

The score was 14-7.

There were 62,000 fans in attendance.

The two teams will play again next year.

Fact, Opinion

Fill in the blanks and trace the key words.

Titans vs. Steelers

1) Last Sunday two of the greatest teams in football went head to head. 2) The Tennessee Titans went up against the Pittsburg Steelers for the AFC Northern Central Division Championship. 3) It was a brutal game. 4) A record-breaking crowd of over 74,000 Fans attended. 5) I have never seen such a rowdy, hyped up crowd. 6) It was a fierce battle between these two legendary teams. 7) The ending score was 21-20 in favor of the Titans. 8) During the last play the Titan's running back made a new speed record for rushing. 9) The victory over the Steelers will take the Titans to the second round of the AFC Championship. 10) After this amazing game I believe the Titans have a clear shot at winning the Super Bowl.

Facts:

Fact, Opinion

Write the number of each sentence that is a fact on the line.

Titans vs. Steelers

1) Last Sunday two of the greatest teams in football went head to head. 2) The Tennessee Titans went up against the Pittsburg Steelers for the AFC Northern Central Division Championship. 3) It was a brutal game. 4) A record-breaking crowd of over 74,000 Fans attended. 5) I have never seen such a rowdy, hyped up crowd. 6) It was a fierce battle between these two legendary teams. 7) The ending score was 21-20 in favor of the Titans. 8) During the last play the Titan's running back made a new speed record for rushing. 9) The victory over the Steelers will take the Titans to the second round of the AFC Championship. 10) After this amazing game I believe the Titans have a clear shot at winning the Super Bowl.

Facts:

2 4 7 8 9

Check your answers.

sifech

agrchesr

nsdplohi

sairder

wnsobr

stiant

ckeras

insvkgi

legaes

nagsbel

Word Bank

Browns	Titans
Packers	Dolphins
Eagles	Chargers
Raiders	Chiefs
Bengals	Vikings

Fact, Opinion

Unscramble the words.
Which team do you think is best?

An opinion is something you think, feel, or believe. It can't be proven.

Hint: If you see some of these words, the sentence may be an opinion: better, think, best, worst, feel, worse, always, believe, never, greatest, hardest Trace all the sentences that are opinions. The underlined words are clues that the sentence is an opinion.

Baseball's biggest day is almost here! The Houston Astros and the Pittsburgh Pirates are playing in the World Series. This will be the greatest game in baseball history. The game will start at 7:05 at Minute Maid Park in Houston. Minute Maid Park is believed to be one of the best ballparks in the league. The ticket sales show this to be a record crowd. The fans think this game will set the pace for all the other games in this series. So let's "Play Ball!"

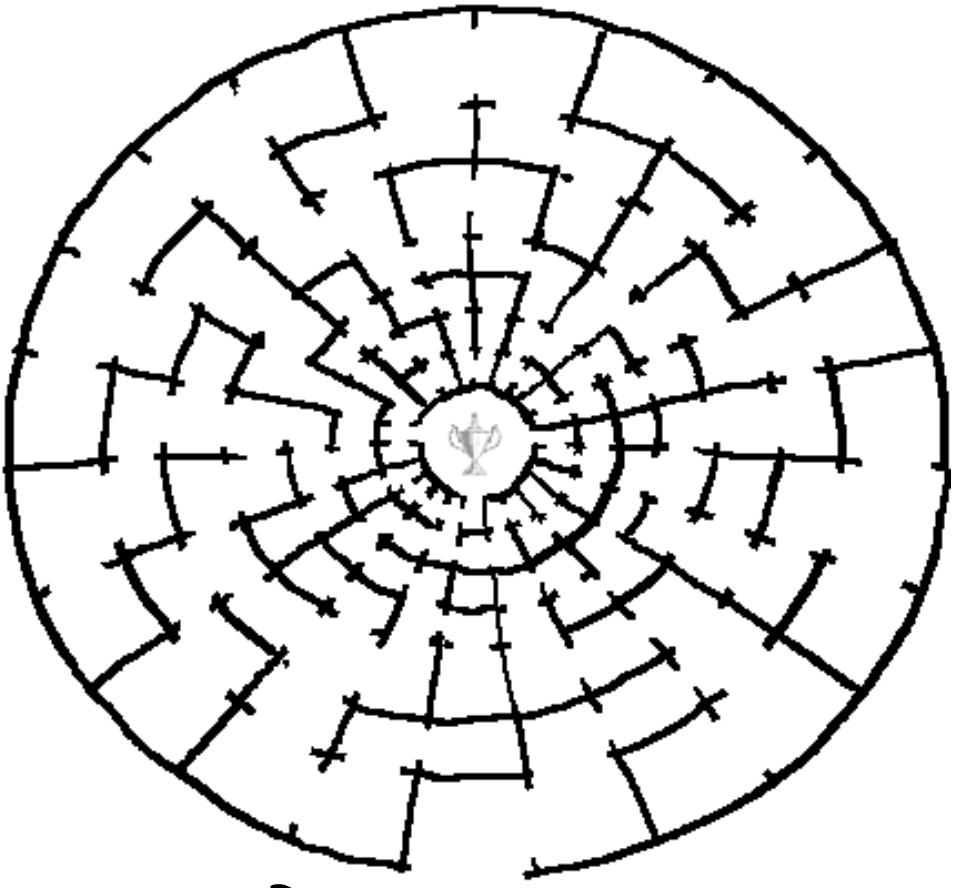
Read and trace the key words.

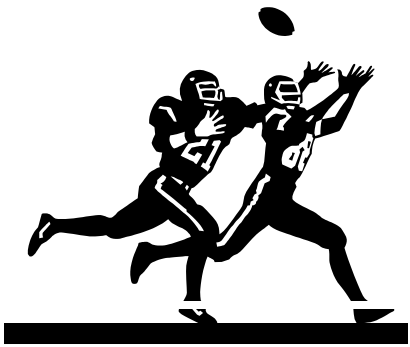
An opinion is something you think, feel, or believe. It can't be proven.

Look for the hint-words in the opinion sentences below. Underline them. Trace the opinion sentences.

better, think, best, worst, feel, worse, always, believe, never, greatest, hardest.

- I think the Colorado Rockies are the best team that has ever played baseball.
- I feel that the hardest thing in baseball is batting.
- The Red Sox are a better team than the Mets.
- Baseball is the worst game to play.
- Teams that wear red and black always win.
- The Texas Rangers will never win a World Series.





Fact, Opinion

Trace a path through the maze to the trophy at the center.

Cardinals vs. Brewers

1) I think that the game between the St. Louis Cardinals and the Milwaukee Brewers will go down in history!
2) It was played on Saturday in a sold-out stadium in St Louis. 3) It was a beautiful day with the temperatures in the seventies.
4) That always makes for good baseball weather.
5) There were over 58,000 fans to watch the Cardinals beat the Brewers 5-3.
6) I think that the Red Birds have never looked better. 7) I also believe that the Cardinals are unbeatable this year and will go all the way to the World Series.
8) Tomorrow's game will start at 2:05 in St. Louis.

Opinions:

Fact, Opinion

Write the number of each sentence that is an opinion on the line.

Cardinals vs. Brewers

1) I think that the game between the St. Louis Cardinals and the Milwaukee Brewers will go down in history!
2) It was played on Saturday in a sold-out stadium in St Louis. 3) It was a beautiful day with the temperatures in the seventies.
4) That always makes for good baseball weather.
5) There were over 58,000 fans to watch the Cardinals beat the Brewers 5-3.
6) I think that the Red Birds have never looked better. 7) I also believe that the Cardinals are unbeatable this year and will go all the way to the World Series.
8) Tomorrow's game will start at 2:05 in St. Louis.

Opinions:

1 3 4 6 7

Check your answers.

A fact is something you can prove or find out if it is true. You might also be able to look it up in a dictionary, in an encyclopedia, or find it on the Internet. These statements are facts:

The Dallas Cowboys and Houston Texans are two professional football teams in Texas.

There are four quarters in a football game.

Football's championship game is the Super Bowl.

An opinion is a statement about something you feel, think, or believe. It may not be what someone else thinks, believes, or feels so it can't be a fact.

These statements are opinions:

I believe that the Houston Astros will always win their games.

Baseball is the best sport to play.

The hardest sport to play is baseball.

Football Season Begins

Football season is about to begin in September. This should be the greatest season ever! The first game will be on Sunday, the 15th. The Texans and the Titans will be playing. The fans feel that this will be a tough game. It will be played in Houston's Reliant Stadium. The Titans never like to come to Houston to play. It is felt that there are many hard feelings since the Titans owner moved the team to Tennessee. The team was formerly the Houston Oilers. But this reporter believes that this game will be a good one. Good luck to both teams!

Opinion words:

Fact, Opinion

Trace the fact sentences and write the opinion words on the line.

Baseball is the hardest sport to play of them all.

Fact Opinion

Each team gets three outs in an inning.

Fact Opinion

The Texas Rangers are a baseball team.

Fact Opinion

The New York Yankees are the best team in baseball.

Fact Opinion

Baseball games are always fun to attend.

Fact Opinion

Some states have more than one baseball team.

Fact Opinion

I think that baseball is the worst sport because it is so boring.

Fact Opinion

Fact, Opinion

Circle the correct choice, fact or opinion, for each sentence.

Baseball is the hardest sport to play of them all.

Fact Opinion

Each team gets three outs in an inning.

Fact Opinion

The Texas Rangers are a baseball team.

Fact Opinion

The New York Yankees are the best team in baseball.

Fact Opinion

Baseball games are always fun to attend.

Fact Opinion

Some states have more than one baseball team.

Fact Opinion

I think that baseball is the worst sport because it is so boring.

Fact Opinion

Fact, Opinion

Check your answers.

Word Bank

Fact Opinion Better Think
Best Worst Feel
Worse Always Believe Never Hardest Greatest

				H	A	R	O
		F	A	C	T	W	H	G
	W	O	R	N	E	V	A	R	T
	Q	B	E	T	T	E	R	B	H
B	E	L	I	E	V	E	D	E	I
O	P	I	N	I	O	N	E	S
I	N	F	O	W	O	R	S	T	O	P	N
G	R	E	A	T	E	S	T	O	F	E	E	L
	T	H	I	N	K	E	N	T	E	R	V
	P	E	R	S	U	A	D	E	U	S	E
				I	A	L	W	A	Y	S	R	W
					C	G	W	O	R	S	E
								Q	A	T

Fact, Opinion

Find the words from the word bank

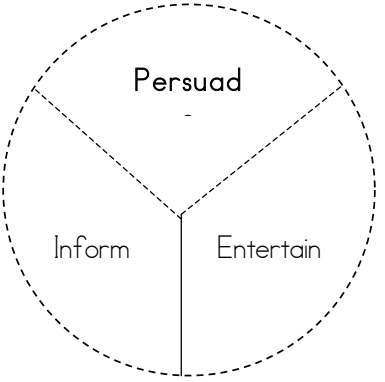
An author's purpose is the reason he or she writes something. The three main reasons an author writes are to persuade, inform, or entertain.

PIE

P = persuade

I = inform

E = entertain



First we are going to learn about persuade. When an author writes to persuade they are trying to encourage readers to accept their opinion about an issue. The most common type of persuasion is an advertisement.

Robo-Vac!

The Robo-Vac is your solution to a clean house. This amazing invention will add leisure to your life. Just turn the Robo-Vac on and let it do all the work. You will be amazed at your fresh carpet and spotless floors. Get yours today! Send a $99.99 check to P.O. Box 5623, Highland, TX, 75236.

The author's purpose is to persuade you to buy a Robo-Vac.

Vote for Vic!

Please vote for Victor Ward for Mayor. He is the best candidate for our city and will work hard for the people. Victor Ward is the best man for the job!

The author's purpose is to persuade you to vote for Victor Ward.

When an author writes to persuade they are trying to encourage readers to accept their opinion about an issue. The author can include facts and opinions when trying to persuade the reader. Some types of persuasion are:

Advertisement: a public notice to call attention to something like a product, service, or upcoming event usually found in a newspaper or on television

Editorial: an article on television, in a newspaper or on the radio that gives opinions of the editors or management; giving opinions rather than reporting the facts

The city council needs to reconsider the local harvest parade. At one time the harvest parade provided entertainment and a break from day to day business. However, our city has grown into a much larger and congested area that does not have the space to accommodate a parade. The parade disrupts traffic and hinders business activity. Contact your city council members about this matter.

Author's Purpose: persuade

The author wants to cancel the parade. Some citizens may not agree with this opinion.

Run faster and jump higher! The new exciting Turbo Jets have proved to be an athlete's best friend. Get a pair today and show your opponents what you are really made of. Visit your local Sport Wear today to get your feet geared up.

Author's Purpose: persuade. This is an advertisement for some new shoes

Think First!

Do you have an older brother or sister or maybe a cousin that smokes? Don't make the same mistake they did. They may think they are cool for doing something adults are allowed to do, but they are endangering their bodies. There are many reasons you shouldn't smoke and here are a few:

1. My chances of having a heart attack or stroke will be reduced.
2. My chances of getting lung cancer, emphysema, and other lung diseases will be reduced.
3. I will save money to do more important and more entertaining things.
4. I will not smell like an ashtray.
5. I will not annoy others with second hand smoke.

Smoking kills millions of people every year. Don't become a statistic.

The author's purpose in this story is to
a. explain diseases
b. tell a story
c. give tips to quit smoking
d. persuade you not to start smoking

Which idea from the story is an opinion?
a. Smoking kills millions of people.
b. They are endangering their bodies.
c. If you smoke, you smell like an ashtray.
d. You reduce your chances of disease by not smoking.

Which idea from the story is a fact?
a. They may think they are cool.
b. Not smoking reduces heart disease.
c. Second hand smoke annoys others.
d. You will save money for more important things.

Fact, Opinion

Circle the letter next to the correct answer.

Think First!

Do you have an older brother or sister or maybe a cousin that smokes? Don't make the same mistake they did. They may think they are cool for doing something adults are allowed to do, but they are endangering their bodies. There are many reasons you shouldn't smoke and here are a few:

1. My chances of having a heart attack or stroke will be reduced.
2. My chances of getting lung cancer, emphysema, and other lung diseases will be reduced.
3. I will save money to do more important and more entertaining things.
4. I will not smell like an ashtray.
5. I will not annoy others with second hand smoke.

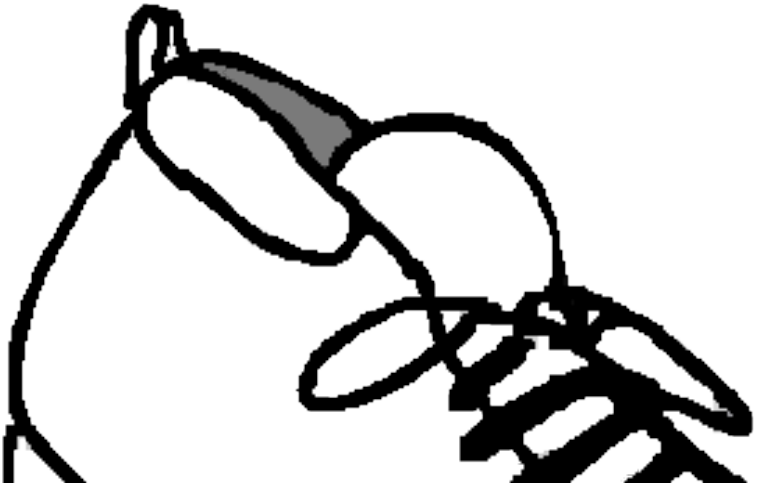
Smoking kills millions of people every year. Don't become a statistic.

The author's purpose in this story is to
a. explain diseases
b. tell a story
c. give tips to quit smoking
d. persuade you not to start smoking

Which idea from the story is an opinion?
a. Smoking kills millions of people.
b. They are endangering their bodies.
c. If you smoke, you smell like an ashtray.
d. You reduce your chances of disease by not smoking.

Which idea from the story is a fact?
a. They may think they are cool.
b. Not smoking reduces heart disease.
c. Second hand smoke annoys others.
d. You will save money for more important things.

Check your answers.



_____

_____

Fact, Opinion

persuasive advertisement for it.

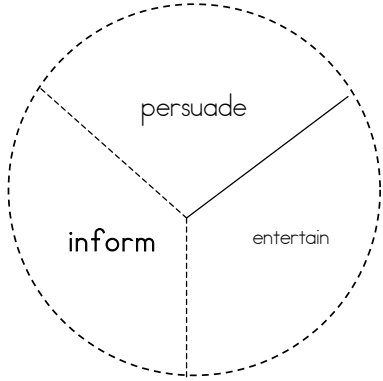
An author's purpose is the reason he or she writes something. The three main reasons an author writes are to persuade, inform, or entertain.

PIE

P = persuade

I = inform

E = entertain



When an author writes to inform he is telling his readers facts about something. Remember a fact is something you can prove or find out if it is true.

There is a famous circle of large rocks in England called Stonehenge. Scientist estimate the construction was about 4,600 years ago. Archaeologists recently discovered a prehistoric village nearby. The scientists think that Stonehenge was a memorial site or cemetery for the village people.

Author's Purpose: inform.

The writer uses facts to discuss a prehistoric site in England.

Honeybees are very important to farmers. The bees are used to pollinate about one-third of the food humans eat. Fruits, vegetables, and nuts are examples of plants that rely on pollen to be transferred from one flower to the next.

Author's Purpose: inform.

The writer gives facts about honeybees and why they are important.

When an author writes to inform they are telling the readers facts about something. Remember a fact is something you can prove or find out if it is true. Text that is written to inform is usually non-fiction.

Examples of text written to inform:

Newspaper articles

Encyclopedia articles

Books about science and history

The author gives facts about the topic without trying to persuade or give opinions on the subject.

> Venice, Italy is a city built on the water. Venice is located on the shores or the Adriatic Sea and was originally built on 118 small islands in the middle of a lagoon. Instead of streets, Venice has canals in which boats are used for transportation. The city is more than a thousand years old and attracts visitors from all over the world.

Author's purpose: inform.

The author uses facts about the city of Venice to write the story.

> In 1875 the famous racetrack known as the Churchill Downs began the tradition of the Kentucky Derby. The Kentucky Derby race for three-year-old thoroughbred horses takes place on the first Saturday in May. There is a two-week-long Kentucky Derby Festival that leads up to the race. This horse race is famous around the world and draws the very wealthy and the very famous every year.

Author's purpose: inform.

The author uses facts about the Kentucky Derby to write the story.

Spring is a very exciting time for gardening enthusiasts. There are so many things to do to prepare your landscape for the gifts of spring. It may become overwhelming if you don't have a plan. Here is a helpful list of spring chores: pruning, deadheading, weeding, fertilizing, mulching, and the most exciting part - planting. Once you have the first five steps complete planting will be a breeze.

Choosing what to plant can be a wonderful experience or a very frustrating journey. Perennials should be considered first since they will become a permanent part of your landscape. When you buy a perennial, you need to find out how large the plant will be once it has reached maturity. Then you can choose a space with plenty of room for growth. You also want to make sure not to place your plants too close together. If you take the size of the space and the plants around your perennial into consideration, your gardening journey will be fruitful.

1. What is the author's purpose?
   a. to sell plants
   b. discuss the best fall plants
   c. help the reader with spring gardening
   d. explain how to mow the grass

2. What is a good title for the story?
   a. Have a Greener Lawn
   b. Grow the Best Trees
   c. Measure All Your Plants
   d. Spring Gardening Tips

3. Perennials will become a permanent part of your landscape.

Is this sentence a fact or an opinion?

_____

4. Where could you find more information on this topic?
   a. Gardening magazine
   b. the sports section of the newspaper
   c. non-fiction book
   d. cook book

5. Does this story inform, persuade, or entertain?

_____

Fact, Opinion

Read the article then answer the questions below.

Spring is a very exciting time for gardening enthusiasts. There are so many things to do to prepare your landscape for the gifts of spring. It may become overwhelming if you don't have a plan. Here is a helpful list of spring chores: pruning, deadheading, weeding, fertilizing, mulching, and the most exciting part planting. Once you have the first five steps complete planting will be a breeze.

Choosing what to plant can be a wonderful experience or a very frustrating journey. Perennials should be considered first since they will become a permanent part of your landscape. When you buy a perennial, you need to find out how large the plant will be once it has reached maturity. Then you can choose a space with plenty of room for growth. You also want to make sure not to place your plants too close together. If you take the size of the space and the plants around your perennial into consideration, your gardening journey will be fruitful.

1. What is the author's purpose?
   a. to sell plants
   b. discuss the best fall plants
   c. help the reader with spring gardening
   d. explain how to mow the grass

2. What is a good title for the story?
   a. Have a Greener Lawn
   b. Grow the Best Trees
   c. Measure All Your Plants
   d. Spring Gardening Tips

3. Perennials will become a permanent part of your landscape.

Is this sentence a fact or an opinion?

_____

Fact

4. Where could you find more information on this topic?
   a. Gardening magazine
   b. the sports section of the newspaper
   c. non-fiction book
   d. cook book

5. Does this story inform, persuade, or entertain?

_____

Inform

Fact, Opinion

Check your answers.

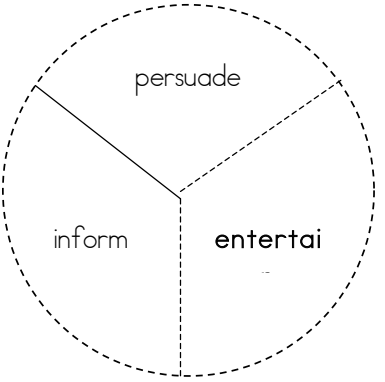
An author's purpose is the reason he or she writes something. The three main reasons an author writes are to persuade, inform, and entertain.

PIE

P = persuade

I = inform

E = entertain



When an author writes to entertain they are trying to give readers enjoyment. If you read for entertainment you are reading because you enjoy the story.

> The fat, hairy hound dog was flying through the air straight towards me. What was I going to do? I can't believe Tyler talked me into hoisting my neighbor's dog onto the roof. The fat dog landed on top of my head and we both landed, SPLAT into the mud hole. How was I going to explain this?

Author's Purpose: entertain.

The writer is describing a funny story. The purpose is to make you laugh or entertain you.

When an author writes to entertain they are trying to give readers enjoyment. Usually stories that are written to entertain are fiction.
Examples of text written to entertain:

Short Stories

Poems

Mysteries

Tall Tales

Adventures

Science Fiction

The author is usually trying to tap into your emotions: the story may be sad, happy, funny, scary, or just interesting.

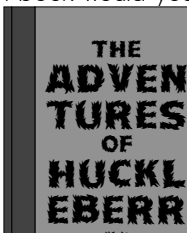
> The hair on the back of my neck stood up. I had never felt my heart beat this fast before. He could be anywhere in the house. It was too dark for me to make my way to the other side of the house. If I went out the window, he might be outside. My brain was racing, "Think, think, what should I do?"

Author's purpose: entertain. The author is building suspense with the words.

> The top of the mountain was more beautiful than Susan could have imagined. Her dream had finally come true. She climbed all the way to the top of Mt. Clemens. She thought about all the mountains that she and Clifton had conquered together and she desperately wished that he was with her today. She climbed the mountain for him and tears welled in her eyes as she thought of how proud he would have been to be next to her.

Author's purpose: entertain. The author is telling a story that is interesting.

1. Which book would you read for entertainment?



2. Which section of a newspaper would you read for entertainment?
   a. weather
   b. editorial
   c. classifieds
   d. comics

3. Read the sentences below and choose which one was written to entertain.
   a. The Smokey Mountains are located between Tennessee and North Carolina and have many types of wildlife and hiking trails.
   b. Jamal could hardly contain the excitement of his dream of seeing the Smokey Mountains finally coming true.

4. If you are looking for a book to entertain, would you choose fiction or non-fiction?

   _____

5. Read the sentences below and choose which selection was written to entertain.
   a. Her father had promised that she would be allowed to get an African Clawed Water Frog from the pet store if she passed the dreaded exam. As the teacher passed out the results one by one, Chelsea grew more and more nervous. She had worked hard this year and she was scared to read the little black numbers.
   b. The African Clawed Water Frog has adapted to a full time water habitat with rear-webbed feet and clawed front legs. These water frogs have become very popular pets.

Write or circle the correct answer for each question.

1. Which book would you read for entertainment?

2. Which section of a newspaper would you read for entertainment?
   a. weather
   b. editorial
   c. classifieds
   d. comics

3. Read the sentences below and choose which one was written to entertain.
   a. The Smokey Mountains are located between Tennessee and North Carolina and have many types of wildlife and hiking trails.
   b. Jamal could hardly contain the excitement of his dream of seeing the Smokey Mountains finally coming true.

4. If you are looking for a book to entertain, would you choose fiction or non-fiction?

   _____
   Fiction

5. Read the sentences below and choose which selection was written to entertain.
   a. Her father had promised that she would be allowed to get an African Clawed Water Frog from the pet store if she passed the dreaded exam. As the teacher passed out the results one by one, Chelsea grew more and more nervous. She had worked hard this year and she was scared to read the little black numbers.
   b. The African Clawed Water Frog has adapted to a full time water habitat with rear-webbed feet and clawed front legs. These water frogs have become very popular pets.

Fact, Opinion

Draw things that are scary in your opinion.

Rodger's Movie Reviews

Craig Turner's new film, Bare Bones is the funniest film this year. Since its debut on Thursday, they have sold over two million tickets at the box office. You will not want to miss this hysterical adventure through a cemetery. Show times are 4:00, 6:15 and 9:30.

Author's purpose: _____

Presidential Legacy

Our 38th president, Gerald R. Ford, took office on August 9, 1974, while our country was in distress at home and abroad. Ford was our first unelected Vice President, appointed by President Nixon after the Vice President, Spiro Agnew, resigned in scandal. Eight months later, Nixon resigned due to the Watergate scandal and Ford was elevated to President of the United States. Gerald Ford only served as our President for 895 days but many believe that he is one of our nation's greatest Presidents. Ford died on December 26, 2006, at the age of 93.

Author's purpose: _____

Last Solution

As the aliens entered Earth's atmosphere, the scientists at NASA's Mission Control were horrified that the laser had not stopped them. What were they going to do now? All their attempts to destroy the aliens had failed. They had one last option, but they knew this would be a dangerous undertaking. As they prepared to launch their final solution, everyone knew in their hearts that if this didn't work, life as they knew it, would be over.

Author's purpose: _____

Fact, Opinion

Write if the artist means to entertain persuade or inform.

Rodger's Movie Reviews

Craig Turner's new film, Bare Bones is the funniest film this year. Since its debut on Thursday, they have sold over two million tickets at the box office. You will not want to miss this hysterical adventure through a cemetery. Show times are 4:00, 6:15 and 9:30.

Author's purpose: _____

Persuade

Presidential Legacy

Our 38th president, Gerald R. Ford, took office on August 9, 1974, while our country was in distress at home and abroad. Ford was our first unelected Vice President, appointed by President Nixon after the Vice President, Spiro Agnew, resigned in scandal. Eight months later, Nixon resigned due to the Watergate scandal and Ford was elevated to President of the United States. Gerald Ford only served as our President for 895 days but many believe that he is one of our nation's greatest Presidents. Ford died on December 26, 2006, at the age of 93.

Author's purpose: _____

Inform

Last Solution

As the aliens entered Earth's atmosphere, the scientists at NASA's Mission Control were horrified that the laser had not stopped them. What were they going to do now? All their attempts to destroy the aliens had failed. They had one last option, but they knew this would be a dangerous undertaking. As they prepared to launch their final solution, everyone knew in their hearts that if this didn't work, life as they knew it, would be over.

Author's purpose: _____

Entertain

Check your answers.