If you travel about 3,000 miles, west of Hawaii, you will reach the island of Guam.

Guam became a territory of the United States at the signing of the Paris Peace Treaty that ended the Spanish American War in 1898.

One year later America officially paid 20 million dollars for the island.

The island is only 30 miles long and 4 to 9 miles wide.

Currently the island has about 10,000 people living there.

It is a tropical paradise and a popular Western Pacific tourist destination.

The island offers beautiful beaches, rolling hills that rise 600 feet above sea level, parasailing, scuba diving, and shopping.

All of us gathered at the cruise ship terminal. Each of us had our passport and luggage. We were so excited. Our trip to the Caribbean was about to begin. When we got on board, everyone went to his or her rooms. My cousins and I were staying in the same room and I unlocked the door. What was that laying on top of the bed? It was a monkey, made out of towels! I couldn't believe it. Just then, our porter introduced himself to us, and told us to look for one of those towel designs everyday. Next we changed and went out on deck to lie in the sun. Several of my aunts and uncles were already there. Seven days and nights on the ocean. What an adventure this was going to be!
